THE COMET OF 1264 AND 1556.

It is expected that the Comet of 1556, which caused such universal terror in Europe, will revisit the Sun towards the close of 1848, or in the beginning of 1849; but from the liability of these bodies to deflection from their course, by the attraction of the more remote members of the solar system, neither the place nor period of its re-appearance can be predicted with certainty. The constellation Corvus has been pointed out as a probable direction.

EXPLANATION OF THE ARTICLES IN THE CALENDAR.

THE DAY OF THE YEAR, reckoned from the first of January, is useful for ascertaining the interval in days between two given dates.

SUN RISING AND SETTING.—The mean time of Sun setting is given for Toronto and Montreal, for every day. If the time of Sun rising is wanted for either of those places, subtract the mean time of apparent noon from the mean time of setting, and subtract the difference from the mean time of apparent noon, for the time of rising.

Example.—Required the time of Sun rise at Montreal, on the 1st January :—

	h.	m.
Sun sets at .....	4	21 P.M.
Mean Time of Apparent Noon .....	12	4
Difference .....	4	17
Sun Rises .....	7	47 A.M.

The mean time of Sun rising and setting for every tenth day, is given for Quebec, Halifax, and Fredericton. If the time is wanted for any intermediate day, enter the table of Semi-diurnal Arcs (Page 2), with the Sun's declination for that day, the value given, subtracted from, or added to, the mean time of apparent noon, will give the hour of rising or setting.

APPARENT NOON, SHEWING THE EQUATION OF TIME.—This column contains the hour which should be shewn by a clock or watch at Toronto, when a Sun-dial marks twelve o'clock. Its error at any other place in the British Provinces will rarely amount to one second. The Equation of Time is the difference in time between the real place of the Sun, and its supposed or mean place. The actual interval between the successive arrivals of the Sun on the meridian, or the length of successive solar days, is variable, owing to the different rapidity of the motion of the earth in different parts of its orbit, and to the difference in the inclination of the successive parts of the ecliptic to the equator. But, as time-keepers cannot be made to measure an interval which varies every day, a clock or watch is made to mark twenty-four hours in the average of all the days. In other words, it is made to keep pace with an imaginary or mean Sun, having a motion exactly equal to the average motion of the real or apparent Sun. Hence, when it is twelve o'clock by the real Sun, it may be before or after twelve by the mean Sun. The true Sun and the mean or imaginary Sun coincide four times in each year, viz., about the 15th of March, the 15th of June, the 1st of September, and the 24th of December. The difference between them, or the Equation of Time, is never more than sixteen minutes. A Sun-dial gives apparent time, and the equation of time must be applied before setting a watch by it.

THE SUN'S DECLINATION is given for mean noon at Toronto, for every day: the difference for mean noon for any other place in the British Provinces, will rarely amount to one minute.

THE MOON'S AGE is given for mean noon at Toronto.

THE MOON'S RISING OR SETTING is given for every day at Montreal and Toronto: the time of rising being given when she sets during daylight; and the time of setting, when she rises during daylight. The time given for Montreal will never be more than four minutes in error for Halifax, three minutes in error for Fredericton, and five minutes in error for Quebec; and it is, therefore, near enough for ordinary reference at those places.

THE MOON'S DECLINATION, when on the meridian at Toronto, is given for every day.

TWILIGHT begins in the morning, when the Sun is about eighteen degrees below the horizon, and ends in the evening, when it is eighteen degrees beyond it. The mean time of beginning and ending is given for every tenth day.

THE PLANETS.—The hour of meridian passage, right ascension and declination of each of the Planets, is given for the 1st and 15th of each month. (m signifies morning.)

THE POLE STAR.—The time when the Pole Star is on the meridian, is given for the 15th of each month, being the hour when it is due north. U. signifies Upper Culmination—L. signifies Lower Culmination. The greatest elongation of the Pole Star from the meridian, varies with the latitude of the place: it is about  $2^{\circ} 4'$  at Toronto,  $2^{\circ} 8' 5$  at Montreal, increasing at the rate of about  $1'.5$  for every degree of latitude between  $40^{\circ}$  and  $50^{\circ}$ . To find the hour when it is on the meridian on any other date, multiply 3m. 56.5s. by the interval in days,—add the product, if for a date before the 15th; subtract it, if for a date after the 15th.

ECLIPSES OF JUPITER'S SATELLITES, visible in Canada, are given. A telescope with a magnifying power of forty, is sufficient for observing these phenomena.

SEMI-DIURNAL ARCS.—This table is useful for determining the times of rising and setting of the heavenly bodies. Enter the table with the declination of the object: under the proper column for the locality will be found half the time which the object remains above the horizon, which is to be subtracted from the time of its meridian passage, if the time of rising is required, or added, for the time of setting.

Example.—Required the time of rising for the Planet Jupiter, at Montreal, July 1, 1848. Declination of Jupiter,  $21^{\circ}$  N.

	h. m.

METEOROLOGICAL.—On the first page of each month is given the mean temperature for Upper and Lower Canada; to which is added the mean temperature of the South of England, for comparison of climate. The mean temperature of Toronto is derived from the records of Her Majesty's Magnetical Observatory, for the six years, 1841-46,—by permission of the Director,—and is the mean for the twenty-four hours. The mean temperature for Nicolet, on Lake St. Peter's, in Lower Canada, is derived from the register of the Rev. Francois Desautiers, for nine years, 1838-1846, published in the British American Journal of Medical and Physical Science, vol. iii. Nicolet is situated in latitude  $64^{\circ} 14'$ , longitude  $72^{\circ} 19'$ , and may be considered a middle point in Lower Canada; but the mean results are derived from observations at 6, A.M., and 3, P.M., only; and are, therefore, above the mean of the twenty-four hours. About  $0.7^{\circ}$  should be subtracted from each on this account. The mean temperatures for the South of England, are from observations by Sir T. Harris, at Plymouth, for five years, 1833-37; and are the means of the twenty four hours—the highest and lowest are, however, from another source, and are only approximate. We would gladly extend the interest of this table by adding the temperatures for Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and the Island of Newfoundland, if in possession of authentic materials.

VARIATION OF THE COMPASS.

FROM THE RECORDS OF THE MAGNETICAL OBSERVATORY.

The mean variation at Toronto, for the year 1846, was  $1^{\circ} 30'$  west: it increases about  $3'$  every year. The variation undergoes a daily change, being least from 7 to 8, A.M., and greatest from 1 to 2, P.M. The difference between these values, in the several months, is as follows:—

January .....	7.2
February.....	6.9
March .....	10.1
April .....	11.2
May .....	12.8
June .....	13.6
July .....	13.2
August.....	14.3
September...	11.4
October .....	7.6
November .....	6.6
December.....	5.9

The variation is least liable to fluctuations in the afternoon: it is near its mean value at 10, A.M., and 6 to 7, P.M.

JANUARY.

The ice-bound stream, the cutting gale,
 The crunching snow, and driving hail,
 Attest old Winter's sway:
 But still the sleigh-bells' merry noise,
 Proclaims that Winter has its joys,
 To sweep dull care away;
 Whilst Canada may boast a sky
 As blue and clear as Beauty's eye.

≈ This is the first Month of the year; its Zodaical sign is AQUARIUS, or the Water-bearer; it derives its name from Janus, a Deity represented by the Romans with two faces, because he was acquainted with past and future events.

FEBRUARY.

And now the glittering bay invites Indulgence in the keen delights
 Of Winter's healthful games;
 The rapid skater plies his skill;
 The "Curling list" begins to fill
 With well remembered names.
 The money-lender loves to praise
 The month that has the fewest days.

✕ This month has PISCES, or the Fishes, for its Zodiacal sign: Its name is from the Februa, or Sacrifices offered to the manes of the gods at this season.

MARCH.

Now the loud groaning of the Northern blast,
 Betokens Winter breathing out his last,
 And struggling with his fate :
 The pendent icicle, the softening snow,
 The later twilight's ruddy glow,
 On Sol's bright car await.
 The Fox and Marten renovate their dress,
 As tyrant man requires their clothing less.

☿ March is the third month of the year; with the ancients it was the first : The name is said to be decreed from that of Mars, the God of War ; its Zodiacal sign is ARIES, the Ram.

A P R I L.

April, the month that ever shrouds
 The face of heaven with weeping clouds;
 These tears some tidings bring:
 Are they of grief, that Winter dies?
 Or gladness taking this disguise,
 To hail the dawn of Spring?
 Of happy Spring, when all these showers
 Shall serve as foils to brighten coming hours.

8 This is the Fourth Month of the year, having for its sign TAURUS, the Bull. Its Latin name is Aprilis, from Aperio, to open or set forth.

MAY.

Now Nature in her gayest robe is drest,
 And hails the gentle breathing of the West,
 With all her charms displayed.
 The feathered songster serenades his mate;
 The bachelor resolves to try his fate,
 And woo some pretty maid.
 Not Nature only, but the human heart is gay,
 And all proclaims "the merry month of May."

II May, the Fifth Month of our year, was the second in the old Alban Calendar; our Saxon ancestors, after the Romans, called it Mains Month. Zodiacal sign—GEMINI, the Twins.

J U N E .

Now is the interesting time,
 When summer in its youthful prime
 Sheds hope on all around ;
 Rich promise that the grateful soil,
 Will well repay the Farmer's toil,
 On every side is found ;
 The proof of coming plenty floats in every breeze,
 Smiles in the verdant fields and blossoms on the trees.

25 This is the sixth month of the year, and has for its sign CANCER, the Crab ; the most probable derivation of its name is from Junio, in honour of whom a festival was celebrated at the beginning of this month.

JULY.

Now the fierce radiance of the noontide ray,
 With ardent beam proclaims the God of day,
 Oppressive in his might.
 The panting cattle seek the grateful shade,
 The tender flowers of morning droop and fade
 To bloom again at night;
 Whilst man looks on and sees the wise design,
 In fields of yellow corn and thickly clustered vine.

July is the seventh month of the year, according to ancient reckoning it was the fifth; Mark Antony denominated it July, in compliment to Julius Cæsar, who was born in it. Leo THE LION is its Zodiacal sign.

AUGUST.

Now harvest calls the reaper to the field,
 The products of his former toil to yield,
 And fill his barns with food
 The faithful earth is not a niggard friend,
 But pays with ample interest what we lend,
 And proves its credit good.
 Let not the child of want appeal in vain,
 But share with us this bounteous gift of grain.

This month was named by the Romans AUGUST, in compliment to the Emperor Augustus. It is the eighth month of the year, and has VIRGO, the Virgin, for its Zodiacal sign.

SEPTEMBER.

Pomona now prefers her welcome suit,
 And brings her offering of luscious fruit,
 To magnify our debt :
 The rosy apple bends the yielding twig ;
 The downy peach, the apricot, and fig,
 In tempting order set ;
 And last, not least, the product of the vine,
 Whose virtues stamp Pomona as divine.

— This is the ninth Month of the year, though anciently the seventh : hence its name, Septem, and ember, from the rainy season usually commencing at this period. Zodiacal sign—LIBRA, the Balance.

OCTOBER.

This is the month when Canada displays
 A beauty unexampled, to the gaze
 Of all who beauty prize.
 The forest now assumes a gorgeous dress,
 Composed of every form of loveliness,
 And steeped in richest dyes
 A beauteous pall on all the landscape spread,
 A softened hazy yellow light is shed,
 And gentle breezes whisper "Summer's dead."

October, in the year of Romans, was strictly what its name implies, the eighth month. With us it is the tenth; sign in the Zodiac, SCORPIO, the Scorpion.

On the 15th, about 45° from the horizon, will be seen four stars forming a square. Scheat [ $\beta$  Pegasi] and Alpheratz [ $\alpha$  Andromedae] form the North side; Markab [ $\alpha$  Pegasi] and Agenah [ $\gamma$  Pegasi] the South side. Low down, and to the West of the meridian, is the bright Southern star Fomalhaut [ $\alpha$  Pisc. Aus. c.] The line of the pointers carried beyond the Pole, passes at 6° distance through Scheat, and 13° further through Markab.

NOVEMBER.

Now a rude trumpet sounds upon the ear,
 And boldly speaks of winter coming near
 With all his bitter storms;
 The vanguard of his army is at hand,
 And nothing can restrain the ardent band
 That with his banner forms!
 Then not to arms! but armour, let us fly;
 And not our powder, but our feet, keep dry.

† This month, whose Zodiacal sign is SAGITTARIUS, the Archer, is, in common with some of the other months, indebted for its name to Romulus, with whom it was the ninth month—it is now the eleventh month.

DECEMBER.

Now pile the hearth, and let the ruddy light
 To thoughts of joy and merriment invite,
 For Christmas time is near
 Let every breast with warmer feelings fill,
 To meet the coldness of the icy chill
 That marks the dying year.
 Hand round the wine, and ere it be too late,
 A bumper fill to Eighteen forty-eight.

♊ CAPRICORNUS, the Goat, is the Zodiacal Sign of this the Twelfth and last Month of our year, though tenth of the Romans.

THE CUSTOMS LAW OF CANADA.

By an Act of the Legislature of Canada, passed in 1847, the laws relating to Customs are consolidated. The new Act comes in force on 5th January, 1848, and former Acts are from thence repealed. (3.) The Duties of Customs to be raised upon importations into the Province are enumerated in a table, of which we annex a copy. There is also a "Table of Exemptions," the articles enumerated in which may be imported without payment of any duty. The Governor in Council may exempt from duty any article subjected, in the first mentioned table, to an ad valorem duty, as being unenumerated in the said table. A reciprocal exemption from duty of all articles (except spirits or strong waters) being the growth, produce, or manufacture of the British North American Colonies, is authorised by the Act. (4.) Currency, Weights and Measures.—All monies granted or imposed in any way by the Act, are computed in Provincial currency; and all duties are to be paid and received according to the British weights and measures in use on 6th July, 1825. (5.) The monies levied under the Act, arising from duties or penalties, and belonging to Her Majesty, are to be paid over by the respective officers receiving the same to the Receiver-General, and shall form part of the Consolidated Revenue of the Province, to be accounted for through the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury in the usual manner. (8.) Entry and unloading of Goods.—No goods shall be unladen from any vessel arriving from any place out of the Province, until duly entered, and warrant granted for unloading; nor shall any goods be so unladen, (unless for the purpose of lightening a vessel in crossing over a shoal, or bar, or sand-bank,) except at some place at which an officer of the Customs is appointed to attend, or at some place for which a sufferance shall be granted by the Collector. All goods unladen contrary to the regulations of the Act shall be forfeited. (9.) Port of Entry—Penalty—Seizure.—Neither shall it be lawful to import any goods, by sea, land, coastwise, or inland navigation, whether liable to duty or not, except into a regular port of entry, at which a Custom House now is, or may be hereafter lawfully established. Goods otherwise imported shall be forfeited, together with the vessel containing them, if of less value than £200: if worth more than that sum, the vessel may be seized, and the Master or person in charge shall incur a penalty of £200. The vessel may be detained until payment or security be given for the payment of the penalty. Unless payment or security be given within thirty days, the vessel to be sold for the penalty. Like penalties are imposed for carrying goods past the Custom House, or removing them from the station appointed for their examination by the Collector, before they shall have been examined and all duties thereon paid, and a permit given accordingly. In any case of illicit importation by land, the goods shall be forfeited, together with the carriage, and all the harness and tackle and the horses or other cattle employed in importing or removing the goods. (10.) Report to Custom House.—The Master of every vessel arriving from sea or coastwise, whether laden or in ballast, must go directly, before breaking bulk, to the Custom House for the port at which he arrives, and make a report in writing to the Collector of the arrival and voyage, stating the name of the vessel, country and tonnage, (and, if British, the port of registry,) the name and country of the Master, the country of the owners, the number of the crew, and how many are of the country of such vessel, and whether she be laden or in ballast, and, if laden, the particulars of the cargo, the marks and numbers of every package and parcel of goods on board where the same was laden, and where and to whom consigned, and where any, and what goods, if any, had been unladen during the voyage, as far as any of such particulars can be known to him. Penalties.—The penalty for unloading any goods before reporting, or for failing to report, or for making an untrue report, or for not truly answering the questions demanded of him, is £100. Amended Report.—Any goods not reported shall be forfeited, unless it shall appear that there was no fraudulent intention, in which case the Master shall be allowed to amend his report. What is a Coasting Voyage.—The Governor in Council may, by regulation, declare any trade or voyage on the rivers, lakes and waters, within or adjacent to the Province, whether to or from any place within or without the Province, to be a coasting trade or a coasting voyage, within the meaning of the Act, whether such rivers, lakes or waters, be or be not geographically, or for the purposes of other Acts or Laws, inland waters; and all carrying by water which shall not be a carrying by sea or coastwise, shall be deemed to be a carrying by inland navigation. The Governor in Council may also, from time to time, with regard to any such coasting trade, dispense with such of the requirements of this section as he may deem inexpedient or unnecessary to enforce. The necessary discharging, for the purpose of lightening the vessel in order to pass a shoal, or otherwise for the safety of the vessel, shall not be deemed an unlawful landing or breaking of bulk. (11.) Inland Importations.—Goods arriving by land or inland navigation from any place beyond the limits of the Province, have to be reported in like manner, under like penalties. (12.) When and how Goods must be Entered and Landed.—Goods imported by sea, or from any place without the Province, must be duly entered and landed within five days of the arrival of the importing vessel; and goods imported by inland navigation in a decked vessel of one hundred tons burthen or more, must be duly entered and landed within two days of the vessel's arrival; and goods imported by inland navigation in any undecked vessel, or in any vessel of less than one hundred tons burthen, or by land, must be duly entered, and produced to the proper officer within twenty-four hours after their importation. Form of Entry.—The person entering any goods, whether inwards or outwards, must deliver to the Collector a bill of entry, in appointed form, fairly written or printed, or partly written or partly printed, containing the name of the importer or exporter, and if imported or exported by water, the name of the vessel, and of the Master, and of the place to or from which bound, and of the place within the port where the goods are to be unladen or laden, and the description of the goods, and the marks and numbers and contents of the packages, and the place from or to which the goods are imported, or exported, or carried, and stating whether such place be within or without the limits of the Province. Duties must be paid down.—Unless the goods are to be warehoused, as provided by the Act, the importer must at the same time pay down all duties upon the entry of goods inwards; whereupon the Collector shall immediately grant his warrant for unloading, and a permit for the conveyance of the goods further into the Province, if required. If not paid, to be Warehoused.—In default of entry and landing, or production of goods, or payment of duty, the officers of Customs may convey the goods to the Customs' Warehouse. May be sold in three months.—If not duly entered, and the duties paid within three months, together with all charges of removal and warehouse rent, they shall be sold by public auction to the highest bidder, and the proceeds applied first to the payment of duties and charges, and the overplus, if any, after discharging the vessel's lien, shall be paid to the owner of the goods. If to be sent to another Port.—In the case of goods brought in a decked vessel from any place out of the Province to any port of entry therein, and not landed, if it be intended to convey the goods to some other port in the Province, in the same vessel, there to be landed, then the duty shall not be paid, nor the entry completed, at the first port, but at the port where the goods shall be landed, and to which they shall be conveyed accordingly, under such regulations, and with such security or precautions, for compliance with the requirements of the Act, as the Governor in Council shall from time to time appoint. (13.) Entry by Bill of Sight.—If the importer of goods on which a duty ad valorem is imposed, shall subscribe a declaration before the Collector, that he cannot, for want of full information, make a perfect entry, the Collector may cause the goods to be landed on a bill of sight for the several packages, by the best description that can be given, and to be seen and examined by the importer, at his expense, in the presence of the Collector, and to be delivered to the importer on his depositing in the hands of the Collector such sum of money as shall, in the judgment of the latter, be fully sufficient to pay the duties, and engaging to make a perfect entry within a time to be appointed by the Collector. In the event of the perfect entry not being completed within the time specified, the money deposited shall be held to be the duty accruing on such goods, and shall be dealt with and accounted for accordingly. (14.) Entry by Agent.—When any person shall apply to an officer of Customs to transact business on behalf of another person, the officer may require the applicant to produce a written authority from his principal, and failing his producing such, the officer may refuse to transact the business with him. Business done by an agent shall bind the principal. (15.) Ad valorem Duties.—In making entry of goods where the duties are charged ad valorem, such value shall be the invoice value of the goods at the place from whence they were imported, with the addition of ten pounds per centum thereon. The importer shall in the bill of entry state the value for duty accordingly, and immediately produce to the Collector the original invoice (if any there be) of the goods, in order to prove their value; and shall make and subscribe a declaration in the following form:—

"I A B, of ———, do declare that the Invoice (or invoices) now produced by me is (or are) just and true, and that it contains (or they contain) the exact particulars and true prices of the articles subject to ad valorem duty and mentioned in the annexed Bill of Entry, and that I am the importer (or the Agent or Clerk of C. D., the importer) thereof.

"E. F., Collector.

"(Or other proper officer.)"

The cost of the goods so declared, shall, if not disputed by the Collector, with the addition of ten per centum, be the value for duty. When under real value, or on Invoice.—Should it appear to the Collector that the goods have been Invoiced below their real and true value at the place whence they were imported, or if there be no Invoice, the articles may be examined by two competent persons to be appointed from time to time by the Governor in Council, to a time whenever need may be as examiners at the port, who shall declare on oath, before the Collector, what is the true and real value of such articles at the place whence they were imported, and the value so declared with the addition of ten per centum, shall be that according to which the duties imposed shall be charged and paid. (16.) Further proof.—The Collector may require from the Importer before admitting the goods to entry, such further proof as he may deem necessary, by oath or declaration, production of Invoices, or Bills of lading, or otherwise, that the goods are properly described and rated for duty; or, if claimed, to be exempted from the payment of duty, that they come properly within the meaning of the exemptions specified in the Act. (17.) When contents of packages are unknown.—Packages of which the importer shall declare the contents to be unknown to him, may be opened and examined by the Collector, in the presence of the Importer and at his expense, who shall also bear the expense of repacking. (18.) Where goods do not correspond with entry.—No entry, or warrant for the landing of goods, or for taking goods out of Warehouse, shall be deemed valid, unless the particulars of the goods and packages in the entry, or warrant, shall correspond with the particulars of the goods and packages purporting to be the same in the report of the vessel, or other report (where any is required) by which the importation or entry is authorized, nor unless the goods shall have been properly described in the entry, by the denominations and with the characters and circumstances according to which the goods are charged with duty, or may be imported; and any goods taken or delivered out of any vessel or warehouse, or conveyed into the Province beyond the Port of Entry, by virtue of any entry or warrant not corresponding or agreeing in all such respects, or not properly describing the same, shall be deemed to be goods landed or taken without due entry, and shall be forfeited. Suspicion of fraud.—The Collector, after the entry of any goods, may, on suspicion of fraud, open and examine any package, in presence of two or more credible witnesses, and if it shall be found to agree with the entries, the goods shall be repacked at the public cost, but otherwise they shall be forfeited. (19.) Goods Damaged—If any goods imported by water, liable to duty, shall receive damage during the voyage, after being laden or shipped, and before being unshipped or discharged from the vessel in which they shall be imported into the Province, or from any vessel or craft into which they may have been transhipped for the purpose of being conveyed to the port of destination, so that the owner shall be prejudiced in the sale of the goods, the Collector at the place where they shall be landed, may choose three disinterested merchants, experienced in the value of such goods, any two of whom, upon viewing the same, shall certify and declare what damage they have received, or how much they are lessened in their true value by such damage, in relation to the duties imposed on them, and thereupon the Collector shall make or repay a proportionate allowance to the importer, by way of abatement of the duties. The merchants shall be allowed, in remuneration for such valuation, at the discretion of the Collector, a sum not less than 10s, nor more than 50s, each, to be paid by the owner of the goods. (20.) Goods lost or Destroyed—When any vessel shall be entered at the Custom House, on board of which there shall be goods, on which duty has been levied or collected, or on which any duty has been deposited, and that thereafter the goods shall be lost or destroyed before being landed from the vessel, or from any vessel or craft employed to lighten such vessel; then on proof upon oath of one or more credible witnesses, before the Collector, and to his satisfaction, that the goods or any part of them (specifying the same) have been so lost or destroyed before being landed, the duties on the whole, or the part so proved to be lost or destroyed, shall, if paid or deposited, be returned to the owner. (21.) Goods exempted from Duty.—All goods exempt from duty as being imported for the use of Her Majesty's Troops, or for any other purpose for which they may be imported free of duty, shall, in case of their sale after importation, become liable to and be charged with duties payable on like goods on their importation for other purposes; and if such duties be not paid, the goods shall be forfeited, and may be seized and dealt with accordingly. (22.) Allowance for Tare—In all cases where duties are charged according to the weight, tale, gauge or measure, such allowance shall be made for tare and draft upon the packages, as shall be appointed by regulation by the Governor in Council: but when the original Invoice shall be produced, and a declaration of its correctness made in the terms prescribed by the Act, the Tare according to such Invoice shall be deducted from the gross weight of the goods, instead of the allowances just indicated; subject however to such further regulations as the Governor in Council shall from time to time make. (23.) Warehousing Ports—The following are Warehousing Ports, for the purposes of the Act:—Amherstburgh, Brockville, Belleville, Chipewawa, Cobourg, Colborne, Cornwall, Dalhousie, Dover, Goderich, Hamilton, Hope, Kingston, Montreal, Niagara, Port Maitland on the Grand River, Prescott, Quebec, Stanley, St. John's, and Toronto; and such others as the Governor in Council shall from time to time appoint. (24.) Entry for Exportation.—An Importer of goods may enter them for exportation, without payment of duties, on giving security by himself, and one sufficient surety for their exportation; or he may warehouse them on giving security by his own bond for the payment of the duties, and the performance of all the requirements of the Act with regard to them;—the penalty of the bond to be double the amount of the duties; subject to such rules and regulations as the Governor in Council shall from time to time appoint, not being repugnant to the Act. Samples from Warehouse.—The Importer may sort, pack, repack, or make such lawful arrangements respecting the goods, in order to their preservation or disposal, and take from them moderate samples, without present payment of duty or entry, and remove them from one warehousing port to another, under good and sufficient bonds to the satisfaction of the Collector. The goods may be entered at any frontier port, with the sanction of the Collector, under bonds to his satisfaction, and subject to such regulations as may be made by the Governor in Council, to pass them on to a warehousing port in any other part of the Province. These privileges are to be used during the regular warehouse hours, and subject to such regulations as the Collector shall see fit to adopt, as well for the carrying and taking of the goods to the warehouse, as for other purposes. When to be finally cleared.—All such goods must be finally cleared either for exportation or home consumption, within two years from the date of the first entry and warehousing, (unless the Collector shall see fit to extend the time,) failing which the Collector is empowered to sell the goods, for the payment first of the duties, and secondly of the warehouse rent and other charges, and the surplus, if any, shall be paid to the owner. The importer may abandon any whole packages for duties, without being liable to pay any duty on them. (25.) Goods unlawfully relanded, &c.—If any goods entered to be warehoused, shall not be duly deposited in the warehouse, or shall afterwards be taken out without due entry and clearance, or having been entered and cleared for exportation from the warehouse, shall not be duly shipped or otherwise conveyed out of the Province, or shall be afterwards relanded, sold, used, or brought into the Province, without permission from the proper officer of the Customs, they shall be forfeited. (26.) Duties on Goods Warehoused.—Goods warehoused before this Act comes in force, and remaining so warehoused after that time, shall, if taken out for consumption, be subject to the duties to which they would be subject if they were then imported, and not to any other. Warehouses appointed before the passing of this Act to continue in force; as well as all Bonds previously granted. (27.) Cattle and Grain in Bond.—An importer of Cattle or Swine may slaughter, cure and pack them in Bond, or if imported in the Carcass he may cure and pack them in Bond. Also, an importer of Wheat, Maize, or other grain, may grind and pack the same in Bond. Curing and Packing.—The slaughtering, curing, grinding, and packing, must be conducted, under such regulations and restrictions as the Governor in Council shall from time to time appoint for the purpose. These regulations may extend to the substitution of Beef or Pork, Flour or Meal, in quantities equivalent to the produce of such cattle and swine, wheat, maize, or other grain. (28.) Transfer of Property in Bond.—Goods warehoused may be transferred from party to party, on a bona fide Bill of Sale of one or more parcels, duly executed, and entered in a book to be kept for the purpose by the Collector. New Security.—The Collector may receive fresh security from the purchaser, and cancel the bond given by the original bondholder, to that extent; provided the sale shall be of whole packages only. (29.) Leakage.—The Governor in Council may by regulation authorise such allowance to be made for leakage, natural and unavoidable waste or deficiency on goods warehoused, as he may deem expedient, but, subject to such regulations, the duties shall be payable on the quantities originally warehoused. (30.) Expense of Warehousing &c.—All charges and expenses of unshipping, landing, opening, unpacking, repacking, weighing, gauging, warehouse rent, and all other expenses attending anything to be done with such goods, in order to carry the Act into effect, must be borne by the importer. (31.) Entry of Vessels outwards.—The Master of every outward bound vessel, from any port in the Province, to any place beyond seas, or out of the limits of the Province, must deliver to the Collector an entry outwards, of the destination of the vessel, her name, country and tonnage, (and if British, the Port of Registry,) the name and country of the master, the country of the owners, the number of the crew, and how many are of the country of the vessel. Entry of Cargo.—Before her departure, the Master must deliver to the Collector, a content of the goods laden, and the names of the respective Shippers and Consignees, with the marks and numbers of the packages or parcels, and subscribe a declaration to the truth of the content, as far as known to him; and moreover, go before the Collector, and answer such questions concerning the vessel, and the cargo, if any, and the crew and voyage, as shall be demanded of him. Clearance.—If the vessel be laden, the Collector shall thereupon make out and give to the Master, a certificate of clearance of the vessel, for the intended voyage, containing an account of the total quantities of the several sorts of goods laden; or where there is no cargo, a certificate of the vessel's clearance in ballast. Penalty.—If the vessel shall depart without her clearance, or the Master deliver a false content, or not truly answer the questions demanded of him, he shall forfeit the sum of £100. (32.) Constructive Warehousing.—If after any goods shall have been duly entered or landed to be warehoused, or entered and examined to be re-warehoused, and before they shall have been actually deposited in the warehouse, the importer shall further enter them, or any part of them, for home use, or for exportation, as from the warehouse, they shall be considered as virtually and constructively warehoused, or re-warehoused, as the case may be, although not actually deposited in the warehouse, and may be delivered and taken for home use or exportation. (33.) Bond for Exportation.—Upon the entry outwards of goods to be exported from the warehouse, the person entering must give bond in double the amount of duties of importation, with a sufficient surety to be approved by the Collector; when the entry shall be by sea, that the goods shall actually be exported, and when by inland navigation, that they shall be landed and delivered at the place named in the entry outwards; or in either case, that they shall be otherwise accounted for to the satisfaction of the Collector, and that such further proof of their having been properly disposed of, as shall be required by regulation of the Governor in Council, shall be produced to the Collector, within a period to be named in the bond. (34.) Branding of Goods.—The Governor in Council may, by regulation, direct that any goods entered at the Custom House, before being delivered by the officers to the importer, shall be marked or stamped, in such manner as may be directed by such regulations for the security of the revenue. (35.) Penalty for forging marks.—If any person shall forge or counterfeit any mark or brand, to resemble any which shall be provided and used for the purposes of the Act, or the impression of any such mark or brand, or sell, or expose to sale, or have in his custody, any goods with a counterfeit mark or brand, knowing it to be counterfeit, or use or affix any such mark or brand to any other goods required to be stamped, other than those to which it was originally affixed, such goods shall be forfeited, and every such offender, and those aiding, abetting, or assisting him, shall for every such offence forfeit and pay £50; the penalty to be summarily recoverable, on legal proof, before any two Justices of the Peace; in default of payment, the party shall be committed to Gaol for a period not exceeding twelve calendar months. False Swearing.—If any wilfully false oath be made, in any case where by the Act an oath is required or authorised, the party shall be guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury, and liable to punishment accordingly. (36.) Counterfeit papers.—If any person shall counterfeit or falsify, or use when so counterfeited or falsified, any paper or document required under the Act, or for any purpose therein mentioned, whether written, printed, or otherwise, or shall by any false statement procure such document, or shall forge or counterfeit any certificate relating to any oath, affirmation or declaration required or authorized by the Act, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited, such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, liable to be punished accordingly. (37.) Goods pretended to be Smuggled.—If any person shall offer for sale any goods under pretence that they are prohibited, or have been unshipped, and run on shore, or brought in, by land or otherwise, without payment of duties, then all such goods (although not liable to any duties, nor prohibited) shall be forfeited, and the persons offering them for sale shall forfeit treble their value, or the penalty of £50, at the option of the prosecutor; which penalty shall be recoverable summarily, upon legal proof, before any one or more Justices of the Peace. In default of payment, on conviction, the offender shall be committed to Gaol for a period not exceeding sixty days. (38.) Prevention of Smuggling.—All officers and others employed in the Customs shall be deemed employed for the prevention of smuggling. In any suit or information, the averment that such party was so employed shall be sufficient, unless the defendant shall prove to the contrary. Their powers.—Every such officer or person shall have full power, upon information or reasonable grounds of suspicion, to detain, open and examine any package suspected to contain prohibited property or smuggled goods, and to board any vessel, boat, canoe, carriage, waggon, cart, sleigh, or other vehicle, or means of conveyance of any description whatever, and to stop and detain them, whether arriving from places beyond or within the limits of the Province, and to rummage and search all parts of them for prohibited, forfeited, or smuggled goods; and if any such be found there, to seize the vessel or vehicle, with all the appurtenances attached to it at the time, and the goods and other things therein, and the same shall be forfeited. The officer in the discharge of this duty is authorised to call in such aid and assistance, in the Queen's name, as may be necessary for securing and protecting the seized vessels, vehicles, or property. Justification of Officer.—If no prohibited, forfeited, or smuggled goods shall be found, the officer or person employed, having had reasonable cause to suspect that such would be found therein, shall not be liable to any prosecution or action at law for any such search, detention or stoppage. Penalty for refusing to stop.—All Masters or persons in charge of any such vessels, and all drivers or persons conducting or having charge of such vehicles or conveyances, refusing to stop when required to do so by such officer or person in the Queen's name; or any person being present at any such seizure or stoppage, and being called upon in the Queen's name by such officer or person to aid and assist him in a lawful way, and refusing to do so, shall forfeit and pay £50; which penalty shall be summarily recovered, on legal proof, before any two Justices of the Peace; and in default of payment, the offender shall be committed to Gaol for a period not exceeding six months. (39.) Punishment for resisting Officers, &c.—If any person shall, under any pretence, by actual assault, force or violence, or by threats of such, in any way resist, oppose, molest or obstruct, any officer of Customs, or person acting in his aid or assistance, in the discharge of his duty, under the authority of this or any other Act of the Province relating to Customs, trade, or navigation; or shall wilfully or maliciously shoot at, or attempt to destroy or damage any vessel or boat belonging to Her Majesty, or in the service of the Province, or maim or wound any officer of the Army, Navy, Marine, or Customs, or any person acting in his aid or assistance, while duly employed for the prevention of smuggling, and in the execution of his duty; or if any person shall be found with any goods liable to seizure or forfeiture, and carrying offensive arms or weapons, or in any way disguised; or shall stove, break, or in any way destroy any such goods, before or after their actual seizure; or shall scuttle, sink, or cut adrift any vessel, or destroy or injure any vehicle, before or after such seizure; or shall wilfully and maliciously destroy or injure, by fire or otherwise, any Custom House, or any building whatsoever in which seized or forfeited goods are deposited or kept, such person, upon conviction, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and punishable accordingly. (40.) Company found with Smuggled Goods.—If any five or more persons in company be found together, and they or any of them shall have any goods liable to forfeiture under the Act, every such person shall be guilty of misdemeanor, and punishable accordingly. (41.) Hiring persons to Smuggle.—Any person who shall by any means procure or hire others, or depute or authorise them to assemble for the purpose of being concerned in the landing, or unshipping, or carrying, or conveying any goods which are prohibited to be imported, or the duties for which have not been paid or secured, shall for every person so procured or hired forfeit £25. (42.) Vessels hovering.—If any vessel shall be found hovering, in British waters, within one league of the coasts or shores of the Province, any officer of Customs may board her, and freely stay on board while she shall remain within the limits of the Province. If the vessel be bound elsewhere, and continue hovering for twenty-four hours after the Master shall be required to depart by the officer of Customs, the latter may bring the vessel into port, and examine her cargo; and if any goods prohibited to be imported into the Province be found on board, the vessel, with her apparel, rigging, tackle, furniture, stores and cargo, shall be forfeited. If the Master or person in charge shall refuse to comply with the lawful directions of the officer, or shall not truly answer such questions as shall be put to him respecting the ship and vessel, or her cargo, he shall forfeit and pay £100. (43.) Harboring Smuggled Goods.—If any person shall knowingly harbor, keep, conceal, purchase, sell or exchange, any goods illegally imported into the Province, whether dutiable or not, or whereon the duties payable shall not have been paid, he shall forfeit treble the value of the goods, as well as the goods themselves. (44.) Vessels, &c., used in carrying forfeited Goods.—All vessels and boats, with their guns, tackle, apparel and furniture, carriages, harness, tackle, horses and cattle, made use of in the removal of any goods liable to forfeiture under the Act, shall be forfeited. Every person who shall assist, or be otherwise concerned in the unshipping, landing or removal, or in the harboring of such goods, or into whose possession they shall knowingly come, shall, besides the goods, forfeit treble their value, or the penalty of £50, at the option of the officer of Customs, or the party who shall sue for the same. The averment in any information or libel to be exhibited for the recovery of such penalty, that the party has elected to sue for the sum mentioned, will be sufficient. (45.) Taking away Goods, &c., seized.—If any person, whether pretending to be the owner or not, shall secretly or openly, with or without force or violence, take or carry away any goods, vessel, carriage, or other thing, which shall have been seized or detained on suspicion as forfeited under the Act, before they shall have been declared by competent authority to have been seized without due cause, and without the permission of the officer seizing them, or of some competent authority, he shall be deemed to have stolen such goods, being the property of Her Majesty, and to be guilty of felony, and punishable accordingly. (46.) Where Goods seized shall be taken.—If any goods, vessel, boat, or carriage, liable to forfeiture, shall be stopped or taken by any Police officer, or other person duly authorised, they shall be carried to the nearest Custom House, or place which shall have been appointed for the purpose by the Governor in Council, and delivered to the proper officer appointed to receive them, within forty-eight hours after they were stopped and taken. (47.) Goods stopped on suspicion of being stolen.—If any such goods shall be stopped or taken by the Police officer on suspicion that they had been feloniously stolen, he shall carry them to the Police Office to which the offender is taken, in order to be produced at the trial; and he shall give notice in writing to the Collector at the nearest port to where the goods are detained, of his having detained them, with the particulars. Immediately after the trial they shall be conveyed to, and deposited in the Custom House, or other place appointed, and proceedings relative to them shall be had according to law. In case any Police officer making detention of such goods shall neglect to convey them to the warehouse, or to give notice of having stopped them, he shall forfeit £25. Such penalty shall be recoverable summarily, before any one or more Justices of the Peace; and in default of payment he shall be committed to Gaol for a period not exceeding thirty days. (48.) Things seized and not claimed.—Articles seized as forfeited shall be deemed to be condemned, and may be dealt with accordingly, unless the persons from whom they are seized, or the owners, shall give notice in writing to the officer of Customs, within one calendar month, that they claim or intend to claim them. Any Judge having competent jurisdiction to try and determine the seizure, may, with the consent of the Collector where the articles are secured, order them to be delivered to the owner, on his giving bond, with two sufficient sureties, to be approved of by the Collector, to pay double the value in case of condemnation. The bonds shall be taken to Her Majesty's use, in the Collector's name, and kept by him. In case of condemnation of the articles seized, their value shall be forthwith paid to the Collector, and the bond cancelled; otherwise the penalty of the bond shall be enforced and recovered. (49.) Defendant to give security.—Upon filing any information for the recovery of any penalty or forfeiture, the Judge may, upon affidavit of the prosecuting officer, that there is reason to believe that the defendant will leave the Province without satisfying the penalty, issue a warrant for his arrest, and detention in the common Gaol of the District, until he gives satisfactory security for the payment, with costs, in case of conviction. The party prosecuting, if they recover the penalty, shall be entitled also to recover full costs of suit; and the whole may be levied on the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of the defendant, in the ordinary manner. (50.) Goods passing the Welland Canal, &c.—With regard to goods conveyed directly through the Welland Canal, or otherwise by land or inland navigation, from one part of the frontier between the Province and the United States to another, without any intention of unloading the goods in the Province; or with regard to travellers passing through a portion of the Province, or coming into it with their carriages, baggage, &c., with the intention of forthwith returning to the United States; or with regard to persons who may have gone to the United States from the Province, and return to it with such articles: though these may be strictly importations, it may, nevertheless, be inexpedient that duties should be levied on them. The Governor in Council is therefore empowered; from time to time and as occasion may require, to make regulations, and to direct under what circumstances the duty shall or shall not be paid; and under what conditions it shall be remitted or returned; and to cause bonds or other securities to be given, or precautions taken, at the expense of the importer, (whether by placing officers of Customs on board of any vessel, or otherwise,) as to him shall seem meet. On the refusal of any importer to comply with these regulations, the duty on the goods imported shall forthwith become payable; and anything so brought in and exempted from duty, shall, if sold or offered for sale without previous payment of duty, be held to have been illegally imported, and shall be forfeited. (51.) Courts of recovery.—All penalties and forfeitures may be sued for and recovered in the Courts of Queen's Bench or Vice Admiralty; if the amount shall not exceed £50, then in the District or Circuit Court of the locality. (52.)

Prosecutions.—All prosecutions shall be, unless other provision be made for the recovery, by the Attorney or Solicitor General, or in the name of some officer or officers of Customs, or other person or persons authorized by the Governor in Council, and by no other party. If brought before an inferior Court, it shall be heard and determined in a summary manner, upon information filed; if before the Queen's Bench or Vice Admiralty, it shall be heard and determined as prosecutions for penalties and forfeitures are dealt with in the Court of Exchequer in England. The forfeiture and penalty, after deducting the expenses of prosecution, shall, unless otherwise provided, belong to Her Majesty, for the public uses of the Province. There is here a special provision that the net proceeds of any penalty or forfeiture, or any portion of it, may be divided between the Collector of the port where the seizure was made, or where the information was given on which the prosecution was founded, and any person giving the information, or otherwise aiding in effecting the condemnation of the goods, or the recovery of the penalty, in such proportions as the Governor in Council shall in any case, or class of cases, direct; but this is not to limit the power vested in the Governor in Council, with regard to the remission of penalties or forfeitures. (53.) Proof of Duties paid.—In case of any question arising as to the duties having been paid, or the goods having been lawfully imported, or laden, or exported, or as to any other thing having been done by which the forfeiture would be prevented or the penalty avoided, the burden of proof shall lie on the owner or claimant of the goods, and not on the seizing officer or prosecutor. (54.) Averment of Offence.—In any prosecution or other proceeding, the averment that the offence was committed within the limits of any port shall be sufficient, without proof of such limits, unless the contrary be proved. (55.) Perishable Articles.—In case of the seizure of cattle, or of any perishable article, the Collector may sell them within such time as to prevent their becoming deteriorated in value, by the expense of keep or decay; the proceeds to be kept until the articles are condemned, or deemed to be condemned, or ordered to be restored to the claimant; in which last case the Court shall order the Collector to pay the claimant the proceeds of the sale, in lieu of awarding restitution. But there is a special proviso, that the Collector shall deliver to any claimant perishable articles seized, upon his depositing in the Collector's hands such a sum of money as will represent their full value, or giving satisfactory security that the value of the seizure and costs shall be paid to the use of Her Majesty, in case of condemnation. (56.) How claims must be entered.—No claim for articles seized and returned into Court for adjudication, shall be admitted as valid, unless entered in the name of the owner, with his residence and occupation, under oath, as to the property, by himself or his agent, knowing the fact. (57.) Security.—To render the claim valid, sufficient security must be given, under a penalty not exceeding £50, for the costs and penalty; and in default of security, the seizure shall be dealt with as if no claim had been made. (58.) Notices.—Notice of information exhibited in Court, for the condemnation of goods seized, must be forthwith put up in the office of the Clerk or Prothonotary of such Court, and in the office of the Collector of Customs of the port where the goods are secured. If the owner shall exhibit a claim to them, and give security, and comply with the other requirements of the Act, then the Court, at its next sitting, after the notice shall have been posted during one calendar month, may proceed to hear and determine the claim, and release or condemn the seizure; otherwise, after the expiration of the month, the goods shall be deemed to be condemned, and may be sold accordingly. But no claim on behalf of any party who shall have given notice of his intention to claim, before the posting of the notices in Court, &c., shall be admitted, unless validly made within one week after such posting; nor shall any claim be admitted, unless notice thereof shall be given to the Collector within one calendar month from the seizure. (59.) Auction.—All sales shall be by public auction, after reasonable public notice, subject to such further regulations as may be made by the Governor in Council. (60.) Notice of Action.—No writ shall be sued out against, nor copy of any process served upon any officer of the Customs, or person employed for the prevention of smuggling, for anything done in the exercise of his office, until one calendar month after notice in writing shall have been delivered to him, or left at his usual place of abode, by the Attorney or agent of the party who intends to sue out such process. The notice must contain, clearly and explicitly, the cause of the action, the name and place of abode of the person who is to bring it, and of the Attorney or agent; and no evidence of any cause of action shall be produced, except what shall be contained in the notice referring to it; nor shall any verdict or judgment be given for the Plaintiff, unless he shall prove on the trial that such notice was given; and in default of such proof, the defendant shall receive judgment and costs. (61.) Amends.—The defendant may tender amends to the complainant, within one calendar month after such notice, and plead such tender in bar of action, with other pleas: if the court shall deem the amends sufficient, judgment shall follow for the defendant, with like costs as if he had pleaded the general issue; and the result shall be the same, in case the plaintiff shall become non-suited, or shall discontinue his action, or judgment shall be given for the defendant upon demurrer or otherwise. The defendant may, by leave of the court, at any time before issue joined, pay money into court, as in other actions. (62.) Time and Place of Action.—Every action must be brought within three calendar months after the cause shall have arisen; and must be laid and tried in the district where the facts were committed: the defendant may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence. (63.) Probable Cause.—If the court shall certify upon the record, that the defendant acted upon probable cause, then the plaintiff shall not be entitled to more than one shilling damages, nor to any costs of suit. (64.) Actions for seizure.—If in any action on account of any seizure, the court shall certify on the record that there was probable cause of seizure, the claimant shall not be entitled to costs, nor shall the person who made the seizure be liable to any other suit or prosecution on account of it; and if any suit or prosecution shall be brought, in which a verdict or judgment shall be given against the defendant, the plaintiff, if probable cause be certified on the record, besides the thing seized, or its value, shall not be entitled to more than one shilling damages, nor to any costs; nor shall the defendant in any prosecution in such case be fined more than sixpence.

(65.) Limitation of Suits.—All actions for the recovery of penalties or forfeitures may be commenced at any time within three years after the offence committed. (66.) Appeals.—An appeal shall lie from the conviction by a Justice of the Peace, to the Quarter Sessions, to be tried by a jury, on furnishing bonds with two sufficient sureties, to the satisfaction of the convicting Justice, to abide the event of such appeal; and also from the District and Circuit Courts, and the Courts of Queen's Bench, in cases where the amount of the penalty or forfeiture shall be such, that if a judgment for a like amount were given in a civil case, an appeal would lie; to be prosecuted in the same way with ordinary appeals. If the appeal be brought by the Attorney or Solicitor General, it shall not be necessary for them to give security. (67.) Restoration of Goods.—

The execution of any decision or judgment for restoring goods to the claimant, shall not be suspended by reason of an appeal, provided the appellant shall give sufficient security, to be approved of by the court, to restore the goods or their full value, (to be ascertained by agreement or appraisement,) to the appellant, in case of a reversal of the judgment on appeal, and the ultimate condemnation of the goods. (68.) False Declaration.—If any declaration required to be made (except in cases otherwise provided for,) be untrue in any particular, or any questions required to be put by any officer of customs, be not truly answered, the guilty party shall, over and above any other penalty to which he may become subject, forfeit £100 currency.

(69.) Writs of Assistance.—Under the authority of a writ of assistance proceeding from a Judge of the Court of Queen's Bench, or of Vice Admiralty, the resident Judge of the District of Three Rivers, the Provincial Judge of the District of St. Francis, or a District Judge of the District of Gaspe, any officer of customs, or person employed for the purpose, may, with the concurrence of the Governor in Council, taking with him a peace-officer, enter in the day time any building or other place within the jurisdiction of the court granting the writ, and search for and seize any goods liable forfeiture; and in case of necessity, break open any doors, chests, or other packages for that purpose. Writs of assistance shall continue in force during the whole of the reign in which they granted, and for twelve months longer. (70.) Permit.—Any person having occasion to remove goods that have been duly entered and the duties paid, from one port to another, the Collector, on the requisition in writing of such person within thirty days after the entry of the goods, specifying the particular goods and packages to be removed, with their marks and numbers, shall give a permit in writing under his hand, for their removal, bearing date on the day it shall be made, containing the like particulars, and certifying that the goods have been duly entered and the duties paid, and stating the port at which they were paid, and that to which it is intended to convey them, and the mode of conveyance, and the period within which they are intended to be so conveyed. (71.) Officers Convicted.—If any officer of customs or person employed for the prevention of smuggling, with the concurrence of the Governor in Council, shall make any collusive seizure, or deliver up, or make any agreement to deliver up, or not to seize any thing liable to seizure, or shall take or accept any promise of any bribe, gratuity, recompense or reward, for the neglect or non-performance of his duty, he shall forfeit for every offence £500, and be rendered incapable of serving Her Majesty in any office whatever; and any person who shall give or offer, or promise to give, or procure to be given, any bribe, recompense, or reward, to, or shall make any collusive agreement with, any such officer or person, to induce him in any way to neglect his duty, or so to conceal or connive at any act, whereby the provisions of this Act or any other relating to Customs, &c., might be evaded, shall forfeit £500.

(72.) Regulations for Boarding and Branding, &c.—The Governor in Council is authorized, from time to time, to make regulations relating to the warehousing and bonding of such cattle and swine as may be slaughtered and cured; and of such wheat, maize and other grain as may be ground and packed in bond; and for branding and marking all duty paid goods, and goods entered for exportation; and for regulating and declaring what allowances shall be made for tare on the gross weight of goods; and for declaring what shall be coasting trade, and how the same shall be regulated; and for appointing places and ports of entry, and warehousing and bonding ports; and respecting goods and vessels passing the Canals, and respecting the horses and vehicles and personal baggage of travellers coming into this Province or returning thereto, or passing through any portion thereof; and for exempting from duty, any flour or meal or other produce of any wheat or grain grown in and taken out of the Province into the United States to be ground, and brought back into the Province, within two days after such wheat or grain shall have been taken out to be ground; or any boards, plank or scantling, the produce of any logs or timber, grown in and taken out of the Province, into the United States, to be sawn and brought back into the same, within seven days after such logs or timber shall have been so taken out to be sawn, and for regulating the quantity to be so taken out or brought in at any one time, by any party, and the mode in which the claim to exemption shall be established and proved; and for authorizing the appointment of warehouses, and regulating the security which shall be taken from warehouse-keepers the forms and conditions subject to which goods are to be warehoused, the mode of keeping goods in warehouse, the allowance for natural waste and deficiency, and the amount of warehouse rent; and upon application, if he shall see fit, either by general regulation or special order, to extend the time for clearing warehoused goods in bond from one port to another; and for regulating the form in which transfers of goods in warehouse or bond, from one party to another, shall be entered; for exempting goods from duty, as provided by the third section of the Act, and regulating the mode of proving such exemption; and for appointing the manner in which the proceeds of penalties and forfeitures shall be distributed; and for any other purpose for which, by this or any other Act or By-Law relating to Customs, trade and navigation, the Governor in Council is empowered to make orders or regulations. He may, should he deem it expedient, make general regulations in any matters in which he may make a special order; and these shall apply, in each particular case, within the extent and meaning thereof, as fully and effectually as if they referred directly to each particular case, within the extent and meaning thereof, and the officers, functionaries, and parties had been specially named therein; and to authorise the taking of such bonds and security as he may deem advisable, for the performance of any condition on which any remission, or part remission of duty, indulgence, or permission, shall be granted to any party, or of any other condition made by such party, in any matter relating to the Customs, or to trade, or navigation; which bonds, and all bonds taken with the sanction of the Governor in Council, expressed either by general regulation or by special order, shall be valid in law, and upon breach of any of the conditions thereof, may be sued and proceeded upon in like manner as any other bond entered into under this or any other Act relating to the Customs. (73.) Penalties, &c.—All goods shipped or unshipped, imported or exported, carried or conveyed, contrary to any regulation so made by the Governor in Council, and all goods or vehicles, and all vessels under the value of £100 currency, with regard to which the requirements of any such regulation shall not have been complied with, shall be forfeited; and if any such vessel shall be of or over the value of £100, the Master shall by such non-compliance incur a penalty of £100. Such forfeitures and penalties shall be recoverable, and may be enforced in the same manner, before the same Court and tribunal, as if incurred by the contravention of any direct provision of the Act; and all general regulations to be made by the Governor in Council, under the Act, shall have force and effect from and after the day on which the same shall be published in the official Gazette, or from and after such later day as shall be appointed for the purpose in such regulations, and during such time as shall be therein expressed; or if no time shall be expressed for that purpose, then until the same shall be revoked or altered. All such regulations may be revoked, varied, or altered by any subsequent regulation; and a copy of the official Gazette containing any such regulation, shall be evidence of it, to all intents and purposes whatsoever. (74.) Copies of Orders.—Any copy of an order of the Governor in Council, made in any special matter, and not being a general regulation, certified as a true copy by the Clerk of the Executive Council or his Deputy, shall be evidence of it, to all intents and purposes whatsoever. (75.) Bonds.—All bonds and securities shall be taken by the Collector or principal officer of the Customs, at the place where the same is to be taken, and to and for the use and benefit of Her Majesty, her heirs and successors; and such bonds shall be taken before the delivery of any goods, &c., and before the performance of any act or matter with regard to which the taking of the bonds may be required. All bonds and securities shall be, as nearly as practicable, uniform; and printed or lithographed forms of bonds shall be kept in each Custom House throughout the Province. (76.) Blank Forms.—All forms and papers necessary for the transaction of any business at the respective Custom Houses or places or ports of entry, in the Province, shall henceforth be printed uniformly, and supplied by the proper officer to all such Collectors or other officers as may be in charge of any Custom House, and other officers of Customs at any port or place of entry within the Province, for the use of persons transacting Customs business thereat. (77.) Duties over-paid.—Although any duty of Customs shall have been over-paid, or although after any duty of Customs shall have been charged and paid, it shall appear, or be judicially established, that the same had been charged under an erroneous construction of the law, it shall not be lawful to return any such over-charge, after the expiration of three years from the date of such payment. (78.) Time of Importation, &c.—Whenever, on the levying of any duty, or for any other purpose, it shall become necessary to determine the precise time of the importation or exportation of any goods, or of the arrival or departure of any vessel, such importation, if made by sea, coastwise, or by inland navigation, in any decked vessel, shall be deemed to have been completed from the time the vessel in which such goods shall be imported, came within the limits of the port at which they ought to be reported; and if made by land, or by inland navigation, in any undecked vessel, then from the time such goods were brought within the limits of the Province. And the exportation of any goods shall be deemed to have been completed from the time of the legal shipment of such goods for exportation, after due entry outwards, in any decked vessel, or from the time the goods shall have been carried beyond the limits of the Province, if the exportation be by land or in any undecked vessel. And the time of arrival of any vessel shall be deemed to be the time at which the report of such vessel shall be, or ought to have been made; and the time of the departure of any vessel, to be the time of the last clearance of such vessel on the voyage for which she departed. The Act, as is customary, contains an interpretation clause, of certain terms and expressions used in it.

THE COPYRIGHT LAW.

The Law of Copyright, as extended last session of the Provincial Parliament, is intimately connected with the Customs Law, and may be said to form part of it; for the works of authors who do not avail themselves of its provisions, may be re-printed and imported into Canada, on the same terms as ordinary printed books. The Act, 4 and 5 Vic. cap. 61, entitled "An Act for the protection of Copyrights in this Province," provides, that any person or persons resident in the Province, who shall be the author or authors of any book or books, map, chart, or musical composition, which may be now made or composed, and not printed or published, or which shall hereafter be made or composed, or who shall invent, design, etch, engrave, or cause to be engraved, etched or made from his own design, any print or engraving, and the executors, administrators or legal assigns of such person or persons, shall have the sole right and liberty of printing, reprinting, publishing and vending such book or books, map, chart, musical composition, print, cut or engraving, in whole or in part, for the term of twenty-eight years, from the time of recording the title thereof, in the manner provided by the Act. If at the expiration of the said term, the author be still living and residing in the Province, or being dead shall have left a widow, or child or children living, the same exclusive right shall be continued to him or them, as the case may be, for the further time of fourteen years: Provided the title of the work secured shall be recorded a second time, and all other regulations prescribed by the Act, in regard to original copyrights be again complied with within six months after the expiration of the first term. In all cases of renewal of copyright, the proprietor shall within two months cause the same to be published in the official Gazette for the space of four weeks. A copy of the work for which the copyright is obtained, must be deposited in the office of the Provincial Registrar, by whom the deposit shall be recorded, he receiving a fee of five shillings. A copy of the work must also be deposited in the Library of the Legislative Assembly. To ensure the benefit of the copyright, the following notice must be inserted on the title-page, or the one immediately following, of each copy published:—"Entered according to the Act of the Provincial Legislature, in the year —, by A. B., in the office of the Registrar of the Province of Canada." The penalty on persons printing, publishing, importing or selling the work, during the continuance of the copyright, without the consent of the proprietor, is the forfeiture of every copy to the proprietor, and a forfeit of ten shillings currency for every sheet found in his possession, to be recovered in any competent court, and one moiety paid to the use of her Majesty, the other to the legal owner. The penalty for persons publishing, &c., prints, &c., in violation of the terms of the copyright, to be the forfeiture of the prints, &c., and the plates, &c., to the proprietor of the copyright; and ten shillings currency for every sheet, to be levied and paid as in the case of books. This penalty applies also to varying prints, &c., by adding or diminishing, so as to evade the law. This act does not extend to works of persons not residing in the Province. Persons printing or publishing manuscript without the leave of the author, to be liable in damages. Persons printing or publishing any work, &c., and falsely pretending to have the copyright thereof, by insertion of such intimation on the title-page, shall incur a penalty not exceeding £15 currency, one moiety to her Majesty, the other to the person suing for the recovery. The right of action for recovery of penalties is limited to two years. The Act applies to works published before its passing, if the authors comply with its provisions.

In the session of the Provincial Legislature, 1847, another Act was passed, "To extend the Provincial Copyright Act to persons resident in the United Kingdom, on certain conditions." It provides, that for and notwithstanding any thing contained in the Act above narrated, the provisions of it shall extend to any person or persons being British subjects, and residing in Great Britain or Ireland, as if such person or persons were resident in this Province: Provided that to entitle any such literary production or engraving, being the work of any person or persons, so residing in Great Britain or Ireland, to the protection of the foregoing Act, it shall be printed and published in this Province, and shall, in addition to the words directed to be inserted by the previous act, and immediately following thereafter, contain the name and place of abode or business in this Province, of the printer or printers, and publisher or publishers, of every such literary production or engraving.

The last recited Act puts British authors on the same footing here, with respect to copyright as authors residing in the Province. It was passed to meet the views of the Home Government, as set forth in a despatch from the Secretary of State, dated 5th November, 1846. (No. 49.) inviting the local Legislatures to pass such enactments as they might deem proper for securing both the rights of British authors, and the interests of the public; and, on the passing of such enactments, the Home Government would submit to the Imperial Parliament a bill authorizing the Queen in Council to confirm any such Colonial law, notwithstanding its repugnancy to the copyright law of the United Kingdom; and that from thenceforward the imperial copyright law shall cease to have any force within such Colony, in so far as it may be repugnant to, or inconsistent with the operation of any such Colonial law. An Act of this nature was accordingly passed, during last session of the Imperial Parliament; so that the copyright law of Canada is now what is contained in the two Provincial Acts before recited; and the works of authors residing in the Province, or in the United Kingdom, for which the benefits are provided by the foregoing Acts shall not be secured in the manner expressly laid down, shall have no privilege or protection whatever; and may be printed, re-printed and sold at pleasure; and the reprints of them imported into the Province, on payment of the same duties, as the custom law provides to be paid, on the importation of ordinary printed books, maps, engravings, &c.

CURRENCY.

The present Provincial Currency is governed by the Act 4 & 5 Vic., Cap. 93, intituled, "An Act to regulate the Currency of this Province," by which all former Acts were repealed, on the ground that the value of the pound sterling had been inaccurately described heretofore, and an erroneous value affixed to the several gold and silver coins current in the Province. By this Act the pound currency is declared to be such, that £1 4s. 4d. currency shall be equal to, and be a legal tender for, the pound sterling, as represented by the sovereign. And it further affixes a value to foreign coins as under:—

EXCHANGE.

This term is used by bankers, brokers and commercial men generally, to designate that species of mercantile transactions, whereby the liabilities of individuals to others resident in another country, or at a long distance from them, are adjusted or acquitted. The large transactions between the merchants of two continents or two kingdoms, of one or the other having imported to an amount far beyond the value of their exports, and for the transmission of what will represent the difference of the two, the merchant has to make provision. Did he send coin, he would have to pay a heavy insurance on the metals, beside the expense of freight, entries, brokers' fees, &c.; he therefore draws a bill on a person indebted to him, who is styled the drawee, forwards it to the party in whose favour it is drawn, known as the remitter, when it is presented for acceptance, which being done, the drawee is known as the acceptor. The bill may now be retained till maturity, or may furnish the means of settling many amounts between various parties removed from each other, by the sale and purchase of the bill, as the balance may be for or against them. The debtor in one place, by these transactions, is substituted for the debtor in another. The only expenditure incurred in these transactions would be the postages and stamps, which in any case deducted from the difference in the price of gold and the cost of freight and insurance, would give the abstract value of exchange. It will be affected by difference in the fineness of coins, by mint regulations, or by a sudden increase of bills drawn on one country by another. Variations in the actual course of exchange, arising from the variation in the the currency, are nominal only, those growing out of trade are real.

In conducting the business of exchange, a direct remittance is not always preferred. Thus, a merchant in Toronto, having to discharge a debt due by him in London, has not only to ascertain the state of the exchange between Toronto and London, but also the state of exchange between Toronto and New York, New York and London, &c., for it may be more advantageous for him to buy a bill on New York, giving his agent directions to invest the proceeds in a bill on London, rather than remit directly to the latter city. If such difference be less than that resulting from the direct exchange, it will obviously be the preferable mode of remitting; but if, on the other hand, that by indirect remittance be more, the direct remittance ought as plainly to be preferred.

BRITISH WEIGHTS AND MEASURES IN USE ON THE SIXTH OF JULY, 1825,

And now in common use in the Province of Canada.

THE YARD, or Ell, is the standard yard of 1760, preserved by the Clerk of the House of Commons.	THE POLE OR PERCH contains $5\frac{1}{2}$ standard yards.
THE FOOT is one-third part of the said standard yard.	THE FURLONG contains 220 standard yards, and THE MILE, 1760 standard yards.
THE INCH is one-twelfth part of the standard foot.	In superficial measure, founded on the above basis, the rood of land contains 1210, and the acre of land $4\frac{1}{4}$ square yards.

The statute of 5 Geo. IV. c. 74, having declared the pound Avoirdupois to be 7000 grains Troy weight; (the difference between the pound Troy and pound Avoirdupois being as 5760 is to 7000), gives the

The Winchester Bushel is 2150.42 cubic inches.

Quarter of Maize, or Indian Corn, 480 pounds.

Ten Winchester Quarters are equivalent to 9.69447 Imperial Quarters.

IMPERIAL WEIGHTS AND MEASURES NOW IN USE IN GREAT BRITAIN.

20 pennyweights .....	1 ounce	= 31.1027
12 ounces.....	1 pound	= 373.2330

Troy Weight is used in the weighing of gold and silver, jewels, &c. It is also used in ascertaining the strength of spirituous liquors; in philosophical experiments; and in comparing different weights with each other.

APOTHECARIES' WEIGHT.

3 scruples.....	1 dram	= 3.888
8 drams .....	1 ounce	= 31.102
12 ounces .....	1 pound	= 373.233

This is used for medical prescriptions. Drugs are bought and sold by Avoirdupois.

DIAMOND WEIGHT.

The Diamond carat weighs  $3\frac{1}{4}$  grains Troy, thus—

Diamond Weight.	Troy Weight.	Decigrammes.

The dram is subdivided into 3 scruples, and each scruple into 10 grains: the pound, or 7680 grains Avoirdupois, equals 7000 grains Troy, and hence 1 grain Troy equals 1.097 grains Avoirdupois. Hence, also,

144 lbs. Avoirdupois	=	175 lbs. Troy, and
192 oz. do.	=	175 oz. "

The stone is generally 14 lbs. Avoirdupois weight; but for butchers' meat, or fish, it is 8 lbs. Hence the cwt. is equal to 8 stone of 14 lbs., or 14 stone of 8 lbs.

A stone of glass is 5 lbs: a seam of glass, 24 stone, or 120 lbs.

Hay and Straw are sold by the load of 36 trusses. Truss of new hay weighs 60 lbs. old hay, 56 lbs.; straw, 36 lbs.

Land is usually measured by a chain of 4 poles, or 22 yards, which is divided into 100 links. Ten chains in length, and one in breadth, make an acre, which equals 160 square perches, or 4.840 square yards.

The dimensions of the English Standard Bushel are, external diameter,  $19\frac{1}{2}$  inches; inner diameter,  $18\frac{1}{2}$ ; depth,  $8\frac{1}{4}$ ; and height of the cone (where heaped measure is permitted), 6 inches.

To convert Wine Gallons into Imperial Gallons, multiply by  $\frac{231}{277\frac{1}{4}}$ , or by .83311; and to convert Imperial Gallons into Wine Gallons, multiply by the reciprocal fraction  $\frac{277\frac{1}{4}}{231}$ , or by 1.20032. For most practical purposes, multiply by five and divide by six, and conversely.

By the Act 5 and 6 Will. IV. c. 63, it was provided that all local or customary measures should be abolished.

The Act further provided that heaped measure should be abolished, except with articles incapable of being stricken, and which could not conveniently be sold by weight,—that coals should be sold by weight,—that all articles, except gold, silver, platina, diamonds, other precious stones, and drugs by retail, should be sold by Avoirdupois. The stone was declared to be 14 lbs.; the hundred-weight, eight such stones; and the ton, twenty such hundred-weights.

SOLEMNIZATION OF MARRIAGE IN UPPER CANADA.

By the Act of the Provincial Parliament, passed in 1847, any Clergymen or Minister of any Religious Denomination of Christians whatever, is authorised to solemnize the ceremony of marriage, in Upper Canada, between any two persons, neither of whom is under any legal disqualification to contract matrimony. To entitle any such Clergyman or Minister to such privilege, he must be a subject of her Majesty, and have taken the oath or affirmation of allegiance, before the Registrar of the County in which he officiates as such Clergyman or Minister; and at the time of his taking such oath or affirmation, he must produce to such Registrar evidence of his being a recognized Clergyman or Minister of the Religious denomination to which he professes to belong, in the shape of a certificate from the Bishop, Moderator of Presbytery, Clerk of Conference, Church Wardens, Trustees, or Managers (as the case may be,) of such body; whereupon the Registrar is to grant him a certificate of his having conformed to the provisions of the Act. The Registrar is to keep a record of such oaths, affirmations and certificates, and for each case he shall receive a fee of 5s. This Act is not to affect the rights of Ministers or Clergymen, who were previously authorized by law to solemnize marriage; and from henceforward, it shall not be necessary for any Clergyman or Minister of any denomination, to go before the Court of Quarter Sessions, to give proof of his ordination, &c., as required by a former law, or to obtain from such court any certificate: his compliance with the provisions of this Act, is declared to be to all intents and purposes equivalent to the other, and all that is necessary to be done, to entitle any Clergyman or Minister in Upper Canada to solemnize the ceremony of marriage.

NOTES AND EXPLANATIONS,

TO THE TABLES ON THE PRECEDING PAGE.

1842.—a. £8000 remained to be paid on account of 1842.

1843.—b. The deficiency of £41,977 11s. 9½d., caused by over-trading in the previous years. c. A portion of this revenue is retained in the hands of the Commissioner to meet expenses. d. The payment in 1842 was the last instalment due by the Company. e. The chief increase was on the Welland Canal Tolls, which previously went for repairs. f. No monies have been paid on this account since the death of Sir J. Caldwell, but the rents and profits are accumulating in the hands of a Curator appointed to the Estates, who cannot pay the monies until an order of the Court is made to that effect. g. The deficiency is caused by depression of Trade, in consequence of over-trading in 1842. h. A portion of the amount drawn in 1843 was on account of expenditure in 1842.

1844.—i. Increase of Trade, and new duties on live stock and agricultural produce. j. Increase on Shop and Inn Licenses and sales by auction. k. The accounts of the Land Office for the latter six months of 1844, furnished too late, as well as a balance of £11,835—a debt of £14,705 paid to the Clergy Fund out of these revenues. l. The public monies are now deposited in the Chartered Banks, for which some interest is allowed. m. A balance of £1400 from 1843 was paid in 1844. n. Two years blended.

1845.—o. The three items, viz., Excise Duties, Licenses E. and W., had previously been considered as Excise Revenue; but, by an Act of the Legislature, the duties on Tavern Licenses in C. W. were appropriated to pay Rebellion Losses, and those of C. E. for municipal purposes. p. Includes a balance from 1844 of £13.150 2s. 10d. only paid in 1845. q. Tolls on New Works completed. r. Fluctuation of Trade. s. Re-payment of Loan to Trinity House, Quebec, for Light Houses. t. Only a balance of Guaranteed Loan to be drawn in 1845. u. Payment of sums due by the late Sir J. Caldwell. v. Large amount of arrears paid in 1844.

1846.—w. Fluctuation of Trade, increase of home manufactures, particularly Leather, and a very considerable over-importation in 1845. x. The division of the Excise Revenue may cause some confusion. The actual Excise Duties for 1845 were £18,249 16s. 5d., and in 1846 £16,776 7s. 2d.; to 1845 are to be added two sums, viz. £6347 2s. 5d. for Tavern Licenses, C. W., and £4626 for C. E. [See Note o.] The Tavern Licenses in C. W. for 1846 amount to £ 0.68 17s. 2d. The Return for 1845 includes only three quarters of the year. No credit appears in 1846 for Tavern Licenses for C. E.; but since the accounts were made up, several sums have been paid in. y. Increase in the number of vessels. z. Completion of the works and increased trade. * Increase in consequence of the increase in the Lumber and Corn Trade. † Deficiency caused by payment of loans £6000 in 1845, and £4000 in 1846. ‡ Deposits at the Banks were less in 1846, as the expenditure for Public Works was reduced, and the sums to be raised under the guaranteed loan were nearly expended this year. [§ See Note †.] ¶ A considerable sum was recovered in 1845 from the Estates of the late Sir J. Caldwell. † and ** Reasons of increase evident. †† Some arrears were paid up in 1846. [‡‡ See Notes o and x.]

Master and Servant.

THE ACT TO REGULATE THE DUTIES BETWEEN MASTER AND SERVANT IN UPPER CANADA, passed in 1847, was intended to supply a grievous want, and to promote, by a definition of duties, the general interests of society. It enacts that verbal as well as written agreements between master and servants or laborers, for the performance of duties, are binding, provided the verbal agreement shall not exceed one year. Persons having entered upon service, who refuse to go to work, leave the employ, or disobey the commands of those they have engaged to serve, or their representatives, or injure the property of their employers committed to their care, are liable to punishment by one or more Justices of the Peace, by fine or imprisonment. The Act provides for the regulation of taverns and lodging houses, in connection with servants; and declares that any tavern keeper persuading laborers to confederate to secure high wages, shall be deprived of his license, and liable to be fined; and any boarding-house keeper guilty of a like offence, shall be subject to fine or imprisonment. Tavern and boarding house keepers have no power to detain the wearing apparel of any servant or laborer in pledge for any expenses incurred, for an amount exceeding 30s.—upon tender of which sum, or any less sum due, they must be given up. This provision does not apply to other property of the servant. Informations of contraventions of the provisions of the Act, must be taken on oath by one or more Justices of the Peace, who are empowered to punish by fine or imprisonment, and costs; such fines to be applied to the purposes of the District, Town, or City, and not to exceed in amount £5, or in duration one month, and not be less than one day. Should a fine be inflicted and remain unpaid, the offender may be committed for the time limited by the conviction. For the summary punishment of offences, it is further provided that parties committing breaches of the Act, may be punished in any District in which they may be found.

The servant is protected by a provision, giving the Justices power, where there has been

TOWNS AND VILLAGES OF U. C.

An Act to confer limited Corporate Powers on the Towns and Villages of Canada West, not specially Incorporated.—[Passed by the Legislature in 1847.]

It being considered expedient for the well being of the inhabitants of Towns and Villages that limited Corporate powers should be conferred on them, it is by this Act enacted: That inhabitant householders, where there are thirty in a town or village, and if they think fit, shall on the first Monday in October, in each year, at a place to be appointed by a Justice of the Peace,—such time and place of meeting to be published for not less than eight, nor more than twelve days previously, by a public notice to be posted in at least three of the most frequented places in the Town or Village,—and having elected a Chairman, proceed to the election of Trustees,—three where the number of householders does not exceed fifty, and five where they exceed that number. The Trustees so chosen, are directed to choose one from among themselves, as Inspector, who is to put in force certain rules laid down by the Act. The Trustees remain in office one year from the day of their election, or until others shall be chosen in their stead. The Act then fully sets forth the rules and regulations by which such local Government is to be carried on as follows:—Proprietors of houses, being more than one story in height, are bound to place a ladder from the ground to the roof of their house, as well as one from the roof to the chimneys thereof, under penalty of five shillings, and ten shillings for every week such neglect continues. Each householder is to provide himself with two buckets, for carrying water, in case of fire, under the penalty of five shillings for each deficient bucket. Any person entering a barn or out-buildings, with a light unenclosed, or carrying a lighted pipe or cigar, not properly secured, is liable to a penalty of five shillings, for each offence. No persons can light a fire in any wooden house or out-house—unless in a brick or stone chimney, or metal stove—without rendering themselves liable to a penalty of five shillings. The carrying fire or fuel on fire,

NOTE.—The deficiency in the Exports in 1846, of £131,318 16s. 1d., is in great part accounted for by the very low price of our staple articles, during the greater part of the year. The American "Drawback Law," is severely felt, too, in the ports of Montreal and Quebec; in addition to which the articles exported in 1845, were declared at a singularly high value, when compared with those of 1846. In the latter year the increase in the quantity of Flour and Timber is very great, while their values decrease. Returned goods also shew a fallacious surplus of £40,000 in the exports of 1845.

LOCK-UP HOUSES.

Comparative Statement of the Gross Amount of Duties collected at the several Ports, 1841, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6.

AN Act to Establish Lock-up Houses in the Unincorporated Towns and Villages of Canada West was passed by the Legislature in 1847.

It seeming requisite for the safe keeping of prisoners, under examination, and disorderly characters, to provide places of confinement other than the Gaols, it is provided, That District Councils may hold land for the purpose of establishing, and may erect thereon Lock-up Houses in Towns and Villages. The Act further empowers them, on petition of two-thirds of the inhabitants of such Town or Village, to authorize an expenditure for the purchase of land and erection of the building, under the direction of two Justices residing in, or within three miles of such Town or Village. The power of the Council to establish such Lock-up Houses is confined to Towns or Villages having not less than 100 adult inhabitants; and when established, they are to be placed in the charge of a Constable resident in the said Town or Village, and specially appointed for the purpose by the District Magistrates in Quarter Sessions, who are empowered to allow him such salary or fee as they may think proper. District Councils are authorized to levy an additional assessment on the inhabitants of the Town or Village to meet the expense consequent upon the erection of any Lock-up House and the site; and the expenses of maintaining the same are to be provided for from the District funds, as incurred in the administration of Justice, and power is delegated to the Council to direct how such expenditure shall be accounted for : it being provided by the Act that the assessment shall be imposed in the same manner as taxes for local purposes, and now collected by the by-laws of the several District Councils. Justices of the Peace residing where, or near to the spot where such Lock-up Houses may have been established, (being nearer thereto than to the District Town,) may, by verbal or written order, direct the confinement therein of any person charged on oath with the commission of any criminal offence, until he or they are committed for trial, or dismissed, so as such confinement or detention shall not exceed two days. They have also the power to commit vagrants, disorderly characters, parties desecrating the Sabbath, and all persons convicted of any offence cognizable by the law of Upper Canada, and confine them in such Lock-up House, so as such detention does not exceed twenty-four hours; and to authorize the detention of any person committed to the Common Gaol, until he can be conveyed to Gaol. The expense of conveyance to, detention, and support of the offender in such Lock-up House, is to be defrayed in the same manner as those incurred in conveyance to, and support in the Gaol of the District.

Vessels of from 300 to 350 tons burden may navigate the Welland and St. Lawrence Canals.

The distance from Lake Erie to Montreal, the head of navigation for Atlantic vessels, is 367 miles; and the total fall from Lake Erie to tide water, is 564 feet.

• This Canal has two entrances into Lake Erie—one at Port Maitland, about 38 miles West of Buffalo; and the other at Port Colborne, about 20 miles from Buffalo. At both places the Lake is generally open in spring from one to two weeks earlier than at Buffalo. This Canal also communicates with the Grand River Navigation at Dunnville. Two of the large class of Locks are situated below St. Catharines, and steamboats may ascend to that place.

† These Canals were all to be completed in 1847. As steamers will always descend the Rapids outside of these Canals, they will not have to pass each other in them; and, consequently, the width of bottom is reduced 50 feet.

‡ Completed, and in full operation.

§ Completed. The Royal Mail Steamers now descend from Lake Ontario to Lachine, within nine miles of Montreal.

¶ Will be completed for opening of navigation, 1848.

¶ These are the dimensions of the old Canal, capable of passing boats not exceeding 75 tons burden.

* Completes the navigation by the Rideau and Ottawa Canals, and connects Lake of Two Mountains with Lake St. Louis. Is now in full operation.

† Will be completed in 1848; and steamboats from Quebec and Montreal may then ascend to the Chambly Basin; and vessels from the Upper Lakes, with produce, may descend the St. Lawrence, and ascend the Richelieu and Chambly Canal, to Lake Champlain.

‡ Was constructed under the direction of Local Commissioners.

The Act has since been assented to by the Queen in Council, and the Royal assent thereto promulgated by Proclamation bearing date at Montreal, 14th October, 1847. The Civil List granted to Her Majesty, by the Act in question, is contained in the two following Schedules marked A. & B. The contents of Schedule A., amounting to £33,031, Currency, are granted to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, and payable in every year, out of the Consolidated Revenue of this Province, for defraying the several charges named in the Schedule; and the contents of Schedule B., amounting £37,450 15s. 3d., Currency, are granted to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, during the life of Her Majesty, and for five years after the demise of Her Majesty, in every year, out of the Consolidated Fund. The Common School Law of Lower Canada, 9th Vic. Cap. xxvii, provides: That in each City, Town, Municipality and Village, there shall be one or more Common Schools for the elementary instruction of youth, to be managed by five School Commissioners, elected for that purpose. No failure to elect any Officer, or to assess or levy any rate, shall affect the working of the Act. It shall be enforced by the Department, with the concurrence of the Governor in Council. The election of Commissioners to be held yearly, a minority to retire each year. No Commissioner shall be a Common School Teacher. The Chairman to report the proceedings of any General Meeting to the Superintendent of Education. In default of an election, certain School Commissioners, Visitors, and Representatives of the Religious Denominations, may submit to the Superintendent of Education the names of persons to be School Commissioners for the ensuing year. Commissioners to elect their own Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer. Questions to be decided by a majority of votes. Commissioners to divide the Municipality into School Districts. No District to contain less than twenty children of School age, except in one instance in each Municipality; this to be discretionary. Commissioners are authorized to take possession of all Common School property; to acquire and hold for the Corporation all moneys or income for the purposes of Education; to build, repair, and keep in order all Common School property; to engage Teachers; to regulate the course of Study; to provide that no Books be used but those approved by the Board of Examiners; to establish General Rules for the management of the Schools; to fix the time of the annual public Examination;—the Curé, Priest, or Minister to have the exclusive right of selecting the Books having reference to Religion or Morals; to decide disputes; to nominate two or more Visitors from among themselves, who shall visit the Schools, and report at least once in six months; to report yearly to the Superintendent of Education; to keep registers and account; to cause to be levied a sum equal to that allowed out of the Common School Fund for each Municipality; to allow, if they think proper, a sum not exceeding £20, yearly, for the support of any Superior or Model School, in the most thickly settled part of the Municipality; to fix the School Fees; to exempt indigent persons; and to prosecute delinquent parties. The money accruing to any School District may be placed in a Savings' Bank for a certain period, to be then applied to the erection of a School-house, &c. School Commissioners shall be a Corporation, under certain limitations; shall not alienate any property without the express authority of the Superintendent of Education. The Corporation shall not cease. Fabrique Schools may be united upon certain conditions. Separate or Dissentient Schools may be established. A School, to be entitled to a share in the School Fund, must be under legal management for at least eight months, and be attended by at least fifteen Children—the return to be certified to the School Commissioners or Trustees by the Teacher, and at least two Commissioners; and a Report to be transmitted every six months to the Superintendent of Education—a sum equal to the Legislative grant must be also raised. Penalties for false returns to be enforced. A Girl's School may be established in each Municipality. Secretary and Treasurer to receive an allowance of two and a-half per cent on all moneys received. The resident Clergy, Judges, Members of Parliament, Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Wardens, Militia Colonels, Lieut. Colonels, Majors and Senior Captains, to be Visitors of Common Schools in each Municipality. The Superintendent of Education to be ex-officio Visitor General of Public Schools. No ecclesiastic to visit any School not of his own persuasion. The Superintendent of Education to receive a salary of £500 currency, per annum; to be allowed £175 for a Secretary; £60 for a clerk; and the contingent expenses of his office. To give security to the amount of £2000. Is authorised to receive from the Receiver General all sums of money appropriated by this Act, and to distribute the same; to prepare all necessary Forms, &c., to keep correct Books and distinct Schedules which may be referred to by the Governor General in Council, the Legislature or School Visitors; to examine and control all accounts of monies appropriated by any Corporation, under this Act; and to lay annually before the three branches of the Legislature a detailed Report of the actual state of Education in Lower Canada. Assessments to be laid equally, according to valuation, and, if not paid, to bear hypothèque—stateable real property and immovable property to be alike rated. Unconceded lands in Seigniories to be free from assessments. The Seigniors to pay, on account of their lucrative rights, one fortieth part of the sum assessed in the Municipality, in proportion to their Seignioriness in the same. Religious Educational and Charitable buildings to be exempt. The cities of Quebec and Montreal to have two sets of Commissioners—of six each—Roman Catholic and Protestant, to be appointed by the Corporations respectively. No School rate to be levied therein, but the funds to be forthcoming from the City Treasury. In consideration of the possession by Quebec and Montreal of a number of Educational Institutions, each city shall receive a fixed sum—less than that they would otherwise receive. The School Fund to be paid by the Superintendent of Education to the School Commissioners in two semi-annual payments. The balance of the yearly Legislative grant to be appropriated by the Superintendent of Education, under the authority of the Governor in Council, in aiding to finish School Houses, or to make extensive repairs in old ones. A Board of Examiners to be appointed for the cities of Quebec and Montreal, composed of fourteen persons chosen from among the different religious persuasions—one half to be Roman Catholics. The Boards are authorized to examine and grant certificates of qualification to Teachers; to meet once in three months on the application of one or more Teachers, through the Secretary of the Board. Fees for diploma or certificate to be five shillings. To give notice to the Superintendent of Education of the admission of Teachers. To divide Teachers into three classes, viz: of Elementary, of Model Schools, and of Academics. Ecclesiastics and females to be exempt from examination. Commissioners and Trustees to engage Teachers at their discretion. The Board to have a seal. Qualification of a School Commissioner to be £250.

PUBLISHERS' NOTICE.

THE PUBLISHERS of the Canadian Almanac for 1848, beg leave to tender their respectful acknowledgments to those Gentlemen who have supplied them with information for its pages. The quantity of matter collected far exceeded what could be comprized within the limits assigned for the work; but, in order to avoid, as far as possible, the exclusion of any portion that was deemed to be of essential importance, the Almanac has been considerably enlarged, without any corresponding increase in price. The Publishers trust that those Gentlemen to whom they are indebted for contributions, which do not appear in the pages of the Almanac for 1848, will, under the circumstances, excuse the omission.

The Publishers of the Canadian Almanac respectfully solicit contributions for 1849, not only from all parts of the Province of Canada, on subjects of local interest, in a condensed form, suitable for such a publication, but also from the sister Provinces. They are anxious to render the work as extensively useful as possible, and applicable to the whole of British North America. They expected to have been able to furnish in the present volume, some general information regarding the Provinces of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward, and Newfoundland, but were disappointed in receiving the returns they had applied for, with the exception of one from New Brunswick. They invite contributors to send forward their favors as early as possible, in order to afford the compilers ample time to collate the materials for the Canadian Almanac for 1849. As a general rule, as far as may be consistent with the arrangement of the work, contributions will have precedence, according to the order of date in which they are received by the Publishers.

ADELAIDE BUILDINGS, KING STREET,

On TUESDAY and FRIDAY MORNINGS, in each week, and transmitted by the earliest mails, or other conveyance, at $5 per annum,

(Less the Postage to Country Subscribers.)

THE rates of Advertising are 4d. per line for the first insertion, and 1d. per line for each subsequent insertion.

Subscriptions and Advertisements are payable in advance; and letters to the Editors must, in all cases, be post-paid.

The British Colonist, having enjoyed the confidence of the Canadian Public for the past ten years, while each day adds to the many proofs already held of its influence, the Publishers are encouraged in their exertions to render it yet more serviceable, than its many testimonials show it has already proved.

As its name implies, this journal will, in all cases, seek to advance the interests of this great Colony concurrently, and in connection with those of the Imperial Kingdom. Repudiating colonial servility, it will ever advocate British Connection. To inform Canadians, and those numbered among Her Majesty's subjects in British North America, what is passing among themselves, will be the first duty of those who have its conduct. The proceedings of the Provincial Parliament, and the movements at the Seat of Government, will be reported comprehensively, and chronicled with the utmost care and attention. Agriculture, and any intelligence that can advance this interest, will ever be a prominent feature in the columns of the British Colonist; while the latest and most correct intelligence in Maritime and Commercial affairs will be confidently relied on. The Markets will be carefully scanned. European intelligence will form an important feature. The "glad tidings" borne by each packet from the shores of Britain, will be handed to the subscribers to the Colonist, within comparatively a few minutes after the arrival of the Packets.

Added to the ordinary channels of information, the Publishers have secured the services of a gentleman resident in London, whose literary acquirements, and commercial experience, entitle his communications to the highest consideration.

To Advertisers, the Publishers need say but little; the number this journal already commands, is the best evidence of the advantages conferred on those who avail themselves of its circulation; and in any future, as in all past occasions, a due regard will be had to the claims of those who shall confide their interests to its advertising columns, while every exertion will be made to satisfy those whose patronage has placed the British Colonist in its present flourishing position, that their countenance has not been bestowed in vain.

Every advantage that the Magnetic Telegraph, and the new Weekly Line of Packets, from Liverpool to the New Continent can make available, will be enjoyed by the Subscribers to THE BRITISH COLONIST FOR 1848.

The British Colonist, having enjoyed the confidence of the Canadian Public for the past eleven years, while each day adds to the many proofs already held of its influence, the Publishers are encouraged in their exertions to render it yet more serviceable, than its many testimonials show it has already proved.

As its name implies, this journal will, in all cases, seek to advance the interests of this great Colony, concurrently and in connection with those of the Imperial Kingdom. Repudiating colonial servility, it will ever advocate British Connection. The "glad tidings" borne by each packet from the shores of Britain, will be handed to the subscribers to the British Colonist within comparatively a few minutes after the arrival of the Packets.

Added to the ordinary channels of information, the Publishers avail themselves of the exclusive services of a gentleman resident in London, as a regular "London Correspondent," whose facilities for procuring and supplying the earliest information, combined with literary acquirements, and commercial experience, entitle his communications to the highest consideration.

To Advertisers, the Publishers need say but little; the advertising patronage which this journal already commands, is the best evidence of the advantages conferred on those who avail themselves of its circulation; and in any future, as in all past occasions, a due regard will be had to the claims of those who shall confide their interests to its advertising columns, while every exertion will be made to satisfy those whose patronage has placed the British Colonist in its present flourishing position, that their countenance has not been bestowed in vain.

The arrangements for the British Colonist are such as to afford, at all times, the earliest information, Domestic and Foreign. During the Sessions of the Provincial Parliament, the proceedings will be reported daily, by Magnetic Telegraph, and these reports will be followed up, in regular succession, by ample details, derived through the most expeditious channels of communication. In like manner European intelligence will be reported by Telegraph, immediately on the arrival on this Continent of each and every transatlantic Steamship, and these reports will be forthwith followed up, by ample details of European news, derived from London Correspondence and British papers, forwarded by Express from New York and Boston, several days in advance of the arrival of the British Mails from Halifax. The readers of the British Colonist are thus secured, not only in the possession of the earliest information, but they have the satisfaction of knowing that that information is derived from the best sources, and entitled to the fullest reliance. In short, every advantage that the Magnetic Telegraph, the Montreal, New York, Boston and Buffalo Expresses, and the Weekly Line of Packets, from Liverpool to this Continent, can make available, will be enjoyed by the Subscribers to THE BRITISH COLONIST FOR 1849.

GRATEFUL for the encouragement and support which have been heretofore extended to them, in the various departments of their business, beg leave respectfully to solicit a continuance of public confidence and favor. With the growing extent of their business, they are better enabled to meet the public wants, and to make corresponding reductions in prices.

Their Stocks of BOOKS and STATIONERY are at all times varied and extensive, being regularly replenished with fresh supplies, obtained in the best markets, and on the most favorable terms. Books, &c., obtained from England, New York, &c., to the special order of parties, when desired.

In the PRINTING DEPARTMENT, care is taken to add regularly to their Stock the best and newest descriptions of type; and they are at all times prepared to execute orders for Plain and Ornamental Printing, in all their branches, with neatness and expedition, and on the most reasonable terms.

Attached to the Bindery is a superior RULING MACHINE, by which Books and other blank work are executed, to any pattern, on the shortest notice, and on the most reasonable terms.

The LITHOGRAPHIC DEPARTMENT is particularly worthy the attention of all requiring this description of Work. Maps, Plans, Charts, Diagrams, Landscapes, Portraits, Circulars, Bank Cheques, Notes, &c., can be executed on the shortest notice, at a price far below that of Engraving on Copper or Steel, and in many instances not perceptibly inferior in execution.

Orders, in every department of the business, will be at all times promptly attended to; and it will, moreover, be the constant aim of the Subscribers, to merit a continuance of the very extensive and daily increasing support with which they have been honoured, by the due observance of promptitude and economy, in all their transactions.

Explanation of the Articles in the Calendar.

THE DAY OF THE YEAR, reckoned from the first of January, is useful for ascertaining the interval in days between two given dates.

SUN RISING AND SETTING.—The mean time of the Sun rising and setting is given for every day for Toronto and Montreal, and for every tenth day for Quebec, Halifax, and Fredericton. If the time is wanted for any intermediate day, enter the table of Semi-diurnal Arcs (page 30), with the Sun's declination for that day, the value given, subtracted from, or added to, the mean time of apparent noon, will give the hour of rising or setting.

APPARENT NOON, SHEWING THE EQUATION OF TIME.—This column contains the hour which should be shewn by a clock or watch at Toronto, when a Sun-dial marks twelve o'clock. Its error at any other place in the British Provinces will rarely amount to one second. The Equation of Time is the difference in time between the real place of the Sun, and its supposed or mean place. The actual interval between the successive arrivals of the Sun on the meridian, or the length of successive solar days, is variable, owing to the different rapidity of the motion of the earth in different parts of its orbit, and to the difference in the inclination of the successive parts of the ecliptic to the equator. But, as time-keepers cannot be made to measure an interval which varies every day, a clock or watch is made to mark twenty-four hours in the average of all the days. In other words, it is made to keep pace with an imaginary or mean Sun, having a motion exactly equal to the average motion of the real or apparent Sun. Hence, when it is twelve o'clock by the real Sun, it may be before or after twelve by the mean Sun. The true Sun and the mean or imaginary Sun coincide four times in each year, viz., about the 15th of March, the 15th of June, the 1st of September, and the 24th of December. The difference between them, or the Equation of Time, is never more than sixteen minutes. A Sun-dial gives apparent time, and the equation of time must be applied before setting a watch by it, whatever be the hour of the day.

THE SUN'S DECLINATION is given for mean noon at Toronto, for every day: the difference for mean noon for any other place in the British Provinces, will rarely amount to one minute.

THE MOON'S AGE is given for mean noon at Toronto.

THE MOON'S RISING or SETTING is given for every day at Montreal and Toronto: the time of rising being given when she sets during daylight; and the time of setting, when she rises during daylight. The time given for Montreal will never be more than four minutes in error for Halifax, three minutes in error for Fredericton, and five minutes in error for Quebec; and it is, therefore, near enough for ordinary reference at those places.

THE MOON'S DECLINATION, when on the meridian at Toronto, is given for every day.

TWILIGHT begins in the morning, when the Sun is about eighteen degrees below the horizon, and ends in the evening, when it is eighteen degrees beyond it. The mean time of beginning and ending is given for every tenth day.

THE PLANETS.—The hour of meridian passage, right ascension and declination of each of the Planets, is given for the 1st and 15th of each month. (m signifies morning.)

THE POLE STAR.—The time when the Pole Star is on the meridian, is given for the 15th of each month, being the hour when it is due north. U. signifies Upper Culmination—L. signifies Lower Culmination. The greatest elongation of the Pole Star from the meridian, varies with the latitude of the place: it is about  $2^{\circ} 4'$  at Toronto,  $2^{\circ} 8'$  at Montreal, increasing at the rate of about  $1' .5$  for every degree of latitude between  $40^{\circ}$  and  $50^{\circ}$ . To find the hour when it is on the meridian on any other date, multiply 3m. 55. 9s by the interval in days,—add the product, if for a date before the 15th; subtract it, if for a date after the 15th.

ECLIPSES OF JUPITER'S SATELLITES, visible in Canada, are given. A telescope with a magnifying power of forty, is sufficient for observing these phenomena.

SEMI-DIURNAL ARCS.—This table is useful for determining the times of rising and setting of the heavenly bodies. Enter the table with the declination of the object: under the proper column for the locality will be found half the time which the object remains above the horizon, which is to be subtracted from the time of its meridian passage, if the time of rising is required, or added, for the time of setting.

Example.—Required the time of rising for the Planet Jupiter, at Montreal, June 1st, 1849. Declination of Jupiter,  $17^{\circ} \text{ N}$ .

METEOROLOGICAL.—On the first page of each month is given, the approximate mean value of the principal Meteorological elements for Toronto, Upper Canada, and Greenwich, England. To which are added certain values for Nicolet, on Lake St. Peters, in Lower Canada.

The data for Toronto are derived from the records of Her Majesty's Magnetical Observatory, for eight years, 1840–1847, inclusive, by permission of the Director, and are the means by observations made every 2 hours, from 1st January, 1840, to 30th June, 1842, and every hour from 1st July, 1842, to 31st December, 1847. The data for Greenwich are derived from the published records of the Royal Observatory, for four years, 1840 to 1843, and are the means by observations made every 2 hours. It should be remarked that the quantity of rain which falls at Greenwich appears to be less than the average for all England. The average at sixteen stations in 1845 was 31.6 in.; at Toronto the average is 36.1 inches. The mean temperature for Nicolet, in Latitude  $46^{\circ} 14'$ , Longitude  $72^{\circ} 19'$ , are derived from the register of the Rev. Francois Desautiers, for nine years, 1838–1846, published in the British American Journal of Medical and Physical Science, vol. III.; but as the observations were made at 6 A. M., and 3 P. M. only, they are above the mean of the 24 hours to the amount of about  $0^{\circ} .7$ .

We would gladly extend the interest of the Meteorological Table, by adding the particulars for Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and the Island of Newfoundland, if in possession of authentic materials.

Variation of the Compass.

FROM THE RECORDS OF H. M. MAGNETIC OBSERVATORY.

The mean variation at Toronto, for the year 1847 was  $1^{\circ} 36'$  west (nearly); it increases about  $3'$  every year. The variation undergoes a daily change, being least from 7 to 8, A. M., and greatest from 1 to 2, P. M. The difference between the values at 8 A. M., and 2 P. M. in the several months, by the average of eight years (1840 to 1847) is as follows:

January, ..... 5.4	April, ..... 10.5	July, ..... 12.3	October, ..... 7.0
February, ..... 5.8	May, ..... 11.3	August, ..... 13.2	November, ..... 6.1
March, ..... 9.6	June, ..... 12.0	September, .... 9.0	December, ..... 4.4

The variation is least liable to fluctuations in the afternoon; it is near its mean value at 10 A. M., and 6 to 7 P. M.

Inclination or Dip of the Needle at Toronto, 1847, .....  $75^{\circ} 15' .3 \text{ N}$

Horizontal intensity in absolute measure, 1847, ..... 3.5285.

FARMERS' AND GARDENERS' CALENDAR.

FARMING operations during this month are almost exclusively confined to the barn, farm-yard, and workshop. If at a convenient distance from a town, and roads permitting, manures of various descriptions may be procured, such as fresh stable manure, lime, gypsum, refuse of various manufactories, &c. &c. Grain may be thrashed, produce disposed of, materials for fencing prepared, harness and implements mended. Observations respecting the weather and appearance of the crops should be made and recorded. The housing and feeding of cattle particularly demand the farmers' attention at this usually inclement season of the year. It will be found most advantageous to attend to the proper ventilation and cleanliness of stables, stalls and sheds for cattle, to observe a strict regularity in the administration of food, both with respect to time and quantity. Cattle, during the winter, ought to have access to water several times a-day. The food of milch kine should consist, if possible, of sound hay or oat straw, together with some sliced succulent root, as Swedes, Jerusalem Artichokes, Mangel Wurtzel, &c. &c. They should be milked at regular hours, and as dry as possible, or the quantity will soon be considerably diminished; if in good condition, the milking may be continued until within a few days of calving.

GARDEN operations are almost at a stand still. Apple trees, however, may be carefully pruned with a sharp knife or handsaw; Pea and Bean rods cut and prepared, Seeds selected, &c

FARMERS' AND GARDENERS' CALENDAR.

The occupations of the Farmer during this month are similar to those of January. He should continue to give attention to the feeding of his cattle, and may derive much profitable information by pursuing a certain system relative to the food of milch kine. Let a known quantity of Hay and sliced Jerusalem Artichokes be given to one, of Hay and Swedes to another, of Oat Straw and Swedes, or Artichokes, to a third; the ration may be varied according to the number of cattle kept, and the food which lies within the reach of the farmer. The quality and quantity of the milk given by each cow should be accurately ascertained, as well as the time between her becoming dry and calving, and these results carefully registered in the book of experiments. If the weather prove very inclement, and little or no snow lie upon the ground, the young Wheat plants should be protected by strewing stable litter over them—an operation under any circumstances attended with benefit, and possibly to the saving of a large portion of the crop from being thrown out and winter-killed. After the thaws which sometimes occur during this month, the farmer should walk over his fields, and note where the water lies, planning therefrom the course of the drain to be made when the ground is sufficiently thawed to admit of being penetrated by the spade or plough.

At the close of this month Scions for grafting may be procured, and either labelled and placed in a dry cellar, or immediately grafted upon roots previously collected, and stowed away until spring opens.

FARMERS' AND GARDENERS' CALENDAR.

During this Month, working cattle and horses should be more particularly attended to, in order to bring them into good condition for Spring operations. All necessary farming implements ought now to be looked after and prepared for immediate use. Calves should be allowed to suck for a few days, and then taught to drink, a little warm water being added to the milk. At about a month old, Calves should be served with chopped hay, mixed with some succulent roots cut into small pieces, and as the season advances, treated with clover and grass. Clover Seed may be sown with advantage at the close of this month upon the snow: the process of alternate thawing and freezing will gradually work it into the soil. The farmer should again walk over his fields, and note well the spots where the water lies. A single furrow, judiciously made, at the commencement of Spring, may be the means of greatly increasing the value of the crop.

THE GARDEN, at the close of this month, begins to attract the Farmer's attention. Raspberry and Gooseberry trees may be pruned; manure laid upon the asparagus beds, to be dug in at the first opportunity. Seeds selected for the vegetable garden, hotbeds made for forcing early cabbages, tomatoes, &c. &c. Onion may be sown with advantage upon the snow, grafting plasters prepared by melting together one part of bee's-wax, two parts of rosin, and one part tallow, and spreading the mixture upon strong brown paper.

FARMERS' AND GARDENERS' CALENDAR.

About the middle of April the regular work of the Farmer frequently commences in Canada. His first care ought to be the removal of the surface water from his fields. The greater attention he has given to the draining of his land, the sooner will he be enabled to prepare the soil for the seed, and the more rapid will be the growth of the vegetables he desires to cultivate. If, upon careful examination, he discover much of his Wheat thrown out, as soon as the soil permits, he should roll it. Spring Wheat, Oats and Barley may frequently be sown about the middle of the month, Peas and early Potatoes at the close, but before the farmer decides which field he will devote to Wheat, or Oats, or Barley, let him remember the vast benefits to be derived from a proper rotation of crops, and not be alone guided by what was grown upon his land during the past year, but also by what he intends to sow during the next two or three years. A proper rotation is of incalculable value, and by attaching due importance to green crops, and especially root crops, he will be enabled to vary his rotation advantageously, and at the same time provide a suitable supply of food for his cattle during the succeeding winter.

THE KITCHEN GARDEN demands particular attention at the close of this month. The soil round young fruit trees should be loosened, beds prepared for various vegetables; and if the season is sufficiently advanced, radishes, turnips, early potatoes, onions, beans, peas, spinach, &c., sown.

FARMERS' AND GARDENERS' CALENDAR.

MAY is decidedly the busiest month of the year to the farmer in Canada. The climate of this country does not often permit the important operations of sowing and planting to be performed in April. "The frost is now, however, out of the ground." The seed of Sugar-beet and Mangel Wurtzel which has been previously soaked in water should be sown; the sowing of Swedes may proceed at once, or be deferred until the first week in June. In the middle of the month, Indian Corn may be planted in hills, manured with farm-yard manure and wood-ashes. Jerusalem Artichokes thrive in any soil, but when once planted, are difficult to eradicate. Farm-yards ought to be cleaned, and the manure piled in heaps, so that the water draining from them may be collected in a tank provided for the purpose, and from time to time thrown upon a compost heap near at hand. Too much care cannot be taken of the contents of the farm-yard. At the close of the month, gypsum may be sown upon clover and meadow lands.

THE KITCHEN GARDEN.—Sow beans, peas, and plant out young cabbages, celery plants, &c. raised in the hot-bed. Sow turnips, carrots, parsnips, potatoes, radishes, spinach, &c. Let the beds be kept free from weeds, and attend to the grafting and pruning of fruit-trees in the early part of the month. If the fly attack the young turnip or cabbage plants, strew them with the refuse lime of the gas-works, or with ashes and soot. At the close of the month, melons and cucumbers may be transferred from the hotbed to carefully prepared hills.

FARMERS' AND GARDENERS' CALENDAR.

No labour should be spared during this month in clearing fields of weeds. The spots where the crops appear to have failed ought to be examined, the cause of the failure ascertained if possible, and a note made of it in the memorandum book. Inefficient drainage will probably prove to be the source of the evil. Let the root crops be well thinned—the young plants ought not to be less than ten or twelve inches apart, if Mangel Wurtzel, Sugar Beet or Turnips. Swedes and Buckwheat may be sown about the middle of the month. Indian Corn may be earthed either by the hoe or with a one-horse plough passing between the rows, and throwing the earth upon each side. When the dew is still on the leaf, sow Gypsum. Let the small drains from hollows in the fields be kept well open, or the heavy rains of this season may injuriously affect the crops if permitted to lodge. The manure heaps in the farm yard require attention: they should be covered with a thin coating of earth, mixed with lime or the refuse charcoal of the blacksmith. The Hay season is fast approaching. Every farmer should procure or make himself a horse-rake; much time, labour and expense will thereby be saved.

THE KITCHEN GARDEN.—Early potatoes may now be earthed, and if side shoots appear, let them be immediately cut off with the hoe. Plant succession beds of cabbages, brocoli, kidney beans, lettuces; weed, thin and sow onions; earth up celery, thin spinach, tie up lettuces, earth up peas, and sow fresh supplies; loosen the soil round melons and cucumbers, and water the former with liquid manure. Destroy weeds as they appear.

FARMERS' AND GARDENERS' CALENDAR.

The farmer is now supposed to have all implements for hay-making provided and in good order. A revolving rake is preferable to a horse rake—one or the other is indispensable in this country. The mowers should commence their work as early in the morning as possible, selecting that part of the field where the grass is thin, and leaving the thicker portion until the dew is evaporated. In harvesting grain, it is better not to wait until the grain is completely ripe,—a little exposure to the air in shocks will complete the process of ripening during the time in which the straw is drying, and thereby save the waste which would otherwise inevitably result from “shelling.” Clover is sufficiently ripe when two-thirds of the heads are of a brown color; and if cut in that state, it may be stacked the following day, weather permitting. During this busy season, the farmer should not forget the weeds—thistles of various descriptions, the dock and the wild camomile, will flower and scatter their seeds, if not cut down. If chess be found among the wheat, the spot where it grows should be noted, and drained as soon as possible.

THE KITCHEN GARDEN.—Loosen the earth round the roots of potatoes with a common garden fork—continue to hoe about the roots of Indian corn, artichokes, &c. Cabbages may be planted, being well shaded from the sun; water in the evening if required; keep garden free from weeds; thin fruit trees; gather flowering herbs, and dry in the shade; collect seeds as they ripen, &c. &c.

FARMERS' AND GARDENERS' CALENDAR.

The root crops should be particularly attended to during this month, and no pains spared to destroy weeds with the hoe, as soon as they appear—the operation of hoeing round the roots exercising a beneficial influence upon the crop. Indian corn may again be hoed, and the side shoots of potatoes cut off as they appear. If the soil be not too dry, underground draining may be commenced; the drain ought to be cut to the depth of three feet, being fifteen inches in breadth at the top, and four inches at the bottom. A wooden box, four inches square, may be laid along the bottom of the drain, in preference to pebbles or brush, being more durable than the latter substitute, and cheaper than the former. In place of a square box, a triangular box resting with its apex inverted upon a four-inch board may be used, and will probably be found less liable to choke with fine earthy particles, than the square box drain. On swampy lands, and lands infested with underground springs, the farmer must exercise great care in determining the course of the drain. As soon as possible let the land be ploughed for fall wheat.

THE GARDEN.—Budding may be performed during this month with success; onions gathered and hung in some shady spot to dry; celery earthed up; melons watered and the earth loosened about their roots; weeding, watering and gathering of fruits carefully attended to; nasturtiums and small cucumbers may be gathered for pickling as they attain the proper size.

FARMERS' AND GARDENERS' CALENDAR.

The one important operation to the Canadian farmer, during this month, is the sowing of fall wheat. Above all other considerations the draining of the land should be attended to, and no hollows left in the field without some outlet for surface water to escape. Six or seven inches is the least depth to which the plough should be made to penetrate, if the soil will admit of it. In good husbandry wheat is never sown after wheat, oats or barley; peas, clover, &c., and the root crops, are the proper precursors of wheat. Manure sparingly with farm-yard manure and lime, abundantly if possible with wood or peat ashes. If the soil be of a clayey or sandy nature, or a vegetable mould, marl strewn over the field will have a very beneficial effect, under ordinary circumstances. Great care ought to be taken in selecting Seed, and every precaution used to have it free from the seeds of weeds and smut, by careful sifting, and steeping in strong brine, rolling it immediately afterwards in lime, and sowing as soon as possible. Indian Corn may be harvested during this month, the leaves and stalks being preserved for fodder.

THE KITCHEN GARDEN.—Finish gathering pot herbs; earth up celery; take up Jerusalem Artichokes as wanted; take up potatoes for storing in a dry cellar or root house where the frost cannot penetrate, hoe advancing turnips; apples, &c. may be gathered as they ripen, care being taken not to bruise them.

FARMERS' AND GARDENERS' CALENDAR.

Root crops ought now to be secured, and protected in such a manner that, while the frost does not affect them, decomposition may not set in. This can be conveniently accomplished by piling them when dry in heaps, and strewing a layer of straw over them, covering the whole with earth; two small orifices should however be left, one at the bottom and the other at the top of the heap, in order to permit the occasional access of fresh air, and allow the escape of moisture, and whatever impure air may be created by the slow decomposition, which invariably takes place to a greater or less degree. The small orifices should be loosely covered with straw. Jerusalem Artichokes may remain during the Winter in the ground without fear of injury. Whatever ground is to be devoted to spring crops, should be ploughed during this month.

THE KITCHEN GARDEN.—Gathering of apples should now be completed; all bruised and unsound fruit given to hogs. In packing apples care must be taken to prevent bruising, a single bruised apple may destroy the contents of a barrel; the season for transplanting trees is now arrived; a careful selection is a great object, and requires much judgment and caution. Vacant ground should be spaded and trenched, in order that the frost may pulverize the soil. Seeds gathered and labelled; asparagus beds cleared, and a coating of farmyard manure thrown over them.

FARMERS' AND GARDENERS' CALENDAR.

Preparations ought now to be made for the winter. All farming implements may be well dried, cleaned and carefully stowed away. Fences put into good order; sheds prepared for sheep and cattle; feeding troughs provided, and as soon as the frost sets in, and the snow falls, a systematic course commenced with reference to the rations of food given to different varieties of stock, to be continued throughout the winter. If the farmer have more stock than he can conveniently supply with proper food during the ensuing five months, let him seize the first opportunity to dispose of those he cannot well provide for. Stables and stalls should be carefully cleaned and ventilated, and means provided for supplying cattle with a fresh supply of water several times during the day. Examine cuts for the drainage of surface water, providing an immediate escape for whatever may be in furrows and hollows in the fields.

THE KITCHEN GARDEN.—Gather whatever vegetables and herbs are still to be found; Cabbages when well dried may be hung in a warm cellar where frost will not be liable to injure them. Parsnips, Carrots and Onions may be sown with much advantage just before the frost sets in; they will begin to vegetate early in the spring. Clear away leaves and put the garden in winter order. Examine stored fruit, carefully taking out decayed and bruised apples, &c., and giving them to Hogs, &c. &c.

FARMERS' AND GARDENERS' CALENDAR.

Among the great variety of occupations calling for the farmers attention, at different periods of the year, few are so little appreciated as farming accounts. Accurate information respecting every item of income or outlay is of the greatest importance. With the account book should also be associated a book of experiments and observations, wherein as occasion offers, every circumstance respecting the operations of the farm may be recorded. Ample time offers itself during the long winter evenings for reviewing the course pursued, and the results arrived at during the past year, from which valuable information with reference to future proceedings may be derived. Good husbandry implies not only an accurate knowledge of what has been done during the past three or four years, but it also requires that the proceedings of the next three years should as far as possible be marked out. Proper application of certain necessary manures, and the adoption of a profitable rotation of crops can then be pursued; without such foresight it is impossible that a farmer can make his farm produce within one third, and in many cases one half, of what it is capable of yielding in the hands of a careful husbandman. The feeding of cattle, thrashing of grain, sale of produce, &c. &c., will constitute the occupations of the farmer during the day time, while the balancing of accounts, a review of operations during the year that is nearly past, and the laying out of a plan for future action, will afford ample occupation during the long evenings of December.

British Weights and Measures, in use on the 6th day of July, 1825.

By the Customs' Act of the Province of Canada, 10 and 11 Vic. cap. 31, sec. 4, it is provided, that all sums of money granted or imposed by that Act, either as duties, penalties or forfeitures, shall be Provincial Currency; and that all duties shall be paid and received under that Act, according to British Weights and Measures in use on the 6th day of July, 1825.

THE YARD, or Ell, is the standard yard of 1760, preserved by the Clerk of the House of Commons.

THE FOOT is one-third part of the said standard yard.

THE INCH is one-twelfth part of the standard foot.

THE POLE OR PERCH contains 5 $\frac{1}{2}$  standard yards.

The statute of 5 Geo. IV. c. 71, having declared the round Avoirdupois to be 7000 grains Troy weight; (the difference between the pound Troy and pound Avoirdupois being as 7600 is to 7000), gives the ## Measures in use in Lower Canada.

The Measures used in the Seigniorial parts of Canada are those of France, while, in the Townships, the Standard Measures of England are adopted. The relation these measures, respectively, bear to each other, is generally but little understood, and indiscriminate reference to them in legal instruments, and even in Acts of the Legislature, has often caused much inconvenience, and many cases of litigation in the country; to remedy (as much as possible) those evils, the following Tables have been constructed.

In assuming the relation the Pied de Paris or Paris Foot bears to the English foot, that given in the "Philosophical Transactions," vol. 5th, page 326, has been taken as the best authority. By this it appears that 1000 French are equal to 1065.75 English feet. In this Province, for some years, the difference was accounted still greater than the above analogy gives it, 1008 English feet being considered as equal to 1000 feet of Paris. This last proportion, however, was found to be decidedly incorrect, and the care with which that was ascertained, as given in the Philosophical Transactions, can leave no doubt of its superior exactness.*

The denominations of French measures of distance, introduced in the Tables are Leagues, Arpens, Perches, Feet, and Inches; in Superficial or Square Measure, the only French Measures are Arpens and Perches, as applied to Land Measure, with decimal parts of the lesser denomination used in the Equivalents in all cases where they may occur, in the measures of either species.

The Toise, although much used by practical Geometricians in France, is seldom referred to in Canada, except in Solid or Cubic Measure, and is therefore not included among those used in the Tables. It consists of 6 French Feet or one-third of a Perch, and its value may thence be easily obtained from the Tables, by taking its equivalent in any other given denomination.

The following Table may be useful to those not familiar with French measures.—

50 leagues	=	132	47	68.14
70 arpens	=	2	43	46.11

Answer, 135 12 88.68

* The well known property of different metals to expand or contract in increased or diminished temperature as compared with those at which the measures of the standard feet of London and Paris are respectively taken has caused some to apply a further correction to the above relation between their values, by which 1065.79 nearly of English feet, would be equal to 1000 feet of Paris. The extreme smallness of this correction, amounting to less than a unit in 26000, seemed to render it unnecessary to depart from the general authorities in the compilation of the Tables.

Imperial Standard Measures.

In the Imperial system, adopted in the United Kingdom, January 1, 1826, the legal measures of extension and weight are continued as before; but a variety of corn, wine, and beer measures, previously in use, are superseded by a new measure of capacity called the "Imperial standard gallon," containing 277,274 cubic inches, or 10 lbs. avoirdupois, of distilled water, at 62° Fahrenheit, the barometer being at 30 inches. The following tables exhibit the Imperial standards, and their usual multiples and divisions.

I.—MEASURES OF LENGTH.

12 Inches	=	1 Foot.
3 Feet	=	1 Yard.
5½ Yards	=	1 Pole or Perch.
40 Poles	=	1 Furlong.
8 Furlongs or } 1760 Yards }	=	1 Mile.

The hand = 4 inches; the English ell = 45 inches; the pace = 5 feet; and the fathom = 6 feet. The geographical degree = 20 nautical leagues, or 09,121 miles. In land measure, the chain of 100 links = 66 feet.

II.—MEASURES OF SURFACE.

144 Square inches	=	1 Square foot.
9 Square feet	=	1 Square yard.
30½ Square yards, or } 272½ sq. feet }	=	1 Square Pole.
40 Square poles	=	1 Rood.
4 Roods, or 4-10 } square yards }	=	1 Acre.

And 640 acres make 1 square mile.

III.—MEASURES OF CAPACITY.

1.—GENERAL MEASURES OF SOLIDITY.

1728 Cubic inches	=	1 Cubic foot.
27 Cubic feet	=	1 Cubic yard.
The ton measurement	=	8 barrel bulk, or 40 cubic feet.

II.—MEASURES FOR LIQUIDS, CORN AND DRY GOODS.

8,665 Cubic inches	=	1 Gill.
4 Gills	=	1 Pint.
2 Pints	=	1 Quart.
4 Quarts	=	1 Gallon.
2 Gallons	=	1 Peck.
4 Pecks	=	1 Bushel.
8 Bushels	=	1 Quarter.

The peck, bushel, and quarter, are used for dry goods only; there are besides, the coom = 1 bushels; the wey or load = 5 quarters; and the last = 2 loads or 10 quarters.

In Beer Measure, the barrel contains 4 firkins or 36 gallons; and the hogshead 1½ barrel or 54 gallons.

In Wine Measure, besides the gallon and its subdivisions, various denominations are used, as the butt, pipe, &c., which are given below, but these are now to be considered rather as the names of casks than as expressing any definite number of gallons. The standard gauges in trade are as follow:—Pipe of Port, 115 imp. galls.; pipe of Lisbon, 117 do.; pipe of Cape of Madeira, 92 do.; pipe of Teveriffe, 100 do.; butt of Sherry, 108 do.; hogshead of Claret, 46 do.; aum of Hock, 30 do.

Herrings are measured by the barrel of 26½, or cran of 37½ galls.

IV.—MEASURES OF WEIGHT.

I.—VOIRDUPOIS OR COMMERCIAL WEIGHT.

27.34375 Troy grains	=	1 Dram.
16 Drains	=	1 Ounce.
16 Ounces, or 7000gr.	=	1 Pound.
14 Pounds	=	1 Stone.
2 Stones, or 28lbs.	=	1 Quarter.
4 Qrs., or 112lbs.	=	1 Cwt.
20 Cwts.	=	1 Ton.

Flour Weight.—1 stone = 14 pounds; 1 boll = 140 pounds; 1 sack = 280 pounds, or 2½ cwt.; 1 barrel = 190 lbs.

II.—TROY WEIGHT.

24 Grains	=	1 Pennyweight.
20 Dwts	=	1 Ounce.
12 Ounces	=	1 Pound.

The use of this weight is confined to the precious metals.

The fineness of gold is expressed in carats and grains, the unit of reference being divided into 24 carats, and the carats into 4 grains. The standard of gold coin is 22 carats; that is, the pound or other weight should contain 22 parts pure and 2 alloy. The mint price of gold is £3 17s. 10½d. per ounce; and hence the full weight of a sovereign is 5 dwts. 3.274 troy grains; but the sovereign of 5 dwts. 2½ grains, and the half sovereign of 2 dwts. 13½ grains, are allowed currency (Proclamation, June 7, 1842). Wrought gold has two legal standards; one is 22 carats, the same as the coin, and the other 18 carats. The latter, instituted in 1798, is used chiefly for watch-cases and rings.

The fineness of silver is expressed in ounces and pennyweights; the standard fineness is 11 oz. 2 dwts of pure metal and 15 dwts. of alloy, making together one pound troy. Prior to the re-coinage in 1816, a pound of standard silver was minted into 62 shillings, and was thus issued at 5s. 2d. per oz.; but although the market price of standard silver bullion has for many years varied little from 3s per ounce, the new coin is minted at 5s. 6d. per oz., as 60 shillings are coined from a pound of bullion. The act of 1816, however, declares "that silver coins shall be a legal tender for 40s. only at one time," and "that gold coins shall be in future the sole standard measure of value and legal tender for payment, without any limitation of amount."

Wrought silver has two legal standards; one is the same as that of the coin, and the other 8 dwts. better, or 11 oz. 10 dwts. But the latter, called new sterling, is seldom used.

Diamond Weight.—Diamonds are weighed by carats, 15½ of which make one ounce troy; this carat is therefore equal only to 3 1-6 troy grains.

Pearl Weight.—The troy ounce contains 600 pearl grains, and hence one pearl grain is 4-5ths of a troy grain.

Apothecaries' Weight.—20 troy grains make 1 scruple; 3 scruples make 1 dram; and 8 drams make 1 ounce. The ounce and pound are the same as in troy weight. This weight is used in medical prescriptions only.

EQUALISATION TABLE.

English Wine Measure.—32 gills = 8 pints = 4 quarts = 1 gallon. And 252 galls. = 6 tierces = 4 hhds. = 3 puncheons = 2 pipes or butts = 1 tun.

1 wine gall. = .8311 imp. gall.; or 6 wine galls. = 5 imp. galls. nearly.

English Ale Measure.—8 pints = 4 quarts = 1 gallon. And 216 galls. = 24 firkins = 6 barrels = 4 hhds. 3 puncheons = 2 butts = 1 tun.

Surface.—Hectare of 100 ares = 2.471143 acres, or 2 hectares = 2½ acres nearly. Solidity.—Decastere of 10 steres = 13.9-92 cubic yards. Liquids.—Litre = 0.220069 imp. gallons; or 160 litres = 22 imp. gallons nearly. Grain.—Hectolitre of 100 litres = 0.3439009 imp. quarter, or 2½ imp. bushels nearly; boisseau usuel = ½ hectolitre. ### [CIRCULAR.]

I. G. O. CUSTOMS DEPARTMENT,
Montreal, 12th July, 1848.

SIR,—A question having arisen as to the rate of duty properly leviable on bound and unbound Books, respectively, under the provisions of the Act 10 & 11 Vic. cap. 31, intituled "An Act for repealing and consolidating the present Duties of Customs in this Province, and for other purposes therein mentioned."

I am to acquaint you, for your information and government, that Books, into the composition of the binding of which there is leather, are to be considered as Bound, and will be properly chargeable with the duty of Seven Pounds, Ten Shillings, currency, on every one hundred pounds of the value thereof.

Books, in cloth and boards simply, without leather, are not rated as Bound Books, and will be chargeable with a duty of Five Pounds on every one hundred pounds of the value thereof.

(Signed) J. W. DUNSCOMB.

American Vessels, under the authority of an Order of Council, are now permitted to pass through the Champlain Canal to Quebec, Montreal, or any other Ports in the Province, in ballast, or with cargo, and in like manner to return.

By a late decision of the Law Officers of the Crown, parties naturalized by a Provincial Statute are permitted to register Vessels, under the Act 8 Vic. ch. 3, intituled "An Act to secure the right of property in British Plantations, Vessels navigating the Inland Waters of this Province, and not registered under the Act of the Imperial Parliament of the United Kingdom, passed in the third and fourth years of the reign of his late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled 'An Act for the Registering of British Vessels, and to facilitate transfers of the same, and to prevent the fraudulent assignment of any property in such Vessels.'"

AD VALOREM DUTY.—In computing the ad valorem duty on Importations via the United States, the same rule is adopted as in the computation of the duty upon goods imported by sea direct to Quebec or Montreal, i. e., on the Invoice value of the goods, at the place of purchase by the importer.

HARDWARE.—Stoves are rated as Castings; but Church Bells, being composed of other material than Iron, are charged as non-enumerated articles.

GOODS FOR CANADA WEST.—Goods in transitu for Canada West are now permitted to be trans-shipped at the Port of Montreal, without constructively Warehousing or giving any Bonds, the Vessel on which the same are to be conveyed being simply required to Enter Outwards and take a Clearance.

I. G. O. CUSTOMS DEPARTMENT,
Montreal, 19th Aug. 1848.

SIR,—I have it in command to direct you to charge duty on all goods ex warehouse on the re-usage or re-weight when taken out for home consumption, upon application of the parties to that effect, and where you are satisfied that the deficiency has arisen from natural causes, and that no abstraction or improper interference has taken place.

All expenses attending the carrying of this order into effect, must be borne by the owner of the goods, in conformity with the 33rd sec. 10 and 11 Vic. cap. 31.

To the Collector of Customs, Quebec.

(Signed) J. W. DUNSCOMB.

It has been ruled, that Women's and Children's Boots and Shoes, not leather, (such as prunella, &c.), are liable only to a duty of  $7\frac{1}{2}$  per cent. ad valorem.

Memoranda, on the Canada Customs Act, 10th & 11th Vic. cap. 31, imposing the foregoing Duties on Imports into the Province.

[The old Wine Gallon and Winchester Bushel, instead of the Imperial Gallon and Imperial Bushel at present in use.]

DIVISIONS OF THE PROVINCE OF CANADA.

The Province of Canada formerly consisted of two Provinces. Although these are now united, there are still, in many respects, distinct divisions, maintained in a great degree by the dissimilarity in the laws, customs and manners prevailing in the respective sections, which formerly constituted Lower and Upper Canada, and which are now commonly called Eastern and Western Canada. The form of Government is popular, being an imitation of that enjoyed in the United Kingdom. The Constitution is embodied in an Act of the Imperial Parliament. The Executive power is wielded by the Governor General, who is appointed by the Crown, and is assisted in his administration of affairs by an Executive Council, the members of which are appointed by the Governor, and the tenure of their offices depends upon their receiving the support of the Provincial Parliament, in the same manner as the tenure of office, by the Imperial Cabinet, is dependent upon the support of the Imperial Parliament. The Governor and Executive Council thus hold a position within the Province similar to that which is held by the Queen and Her Majesty's Cabinet Ministers in England. The members of the Executive Council must hold seats in either branch of the Provincial Parliament. The Provincial House corresponding with the House of Lords, is called the Legislative Council, the members of which are summoned by the Queen, and hold their seats for life, unless forfeited by resignation or absence without permission of the Queen or Governor, for two successive sessions, or by acknowledgment of allegiance to any foreign Prince or Power, or by becoming Bankrupt or taking the benefit of any Insolvent law, or becoming a public defaulter, or by being attainted of Treason, or convicted of Felony or of any infamous crime. The Provincial House corresponding with the House of Commons, is called the Legislative Assembly, and consists of 84 members, elected by the people, one-half of whom are chosen in the Counties, Cities and Towns enjoying electoral privileges in Lower Canada, and the other half in the Counties, Cities and Towns enjoying electoral privileges in Upper Canada. In Counties a forty shilling sterling freehold confers a vote, and in Cities and Towns the payment of a yearly rent of £10 sterling. The forms of procedure in the Provincial Parliament are identical with those of the Imperial Parliament. Bills passed by both Houses of the Provincial Parliament must receive the Queen's assent before they acquire the force of law, and this the Governor is authorized to grant in Her Majesty's name, or to reserve the Bills for the signification of the Queen's pleasure thereon.

Upper or Western Canada,

Is divided into Districts and Counties. The several Districts comprise the limits of the respective Shrievalties, within which Courts of Assize and Nisi Prius, Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery are held, by the Judges of the Court of Queen's Bench on Circuit; and Courts of Quarter Sessions are also held within the like limits, by the Justices of the Peace, appointed for the several Districts; besides which, there are District Courts for Civil business, possessing limited jurisdiction, Surrogate, Bankrupt and Insolvent Debtors' Courts, and Division Courts for the recovery of Small Debts. The Courts (with the exception of the Division Courts) and the meetings of the District Municipal Councils afterwards noticed, are held in the several District Towns. The Division Courts are held at some place named by the District Judge, within the limits of each Division. The Court of Queen's Bench, Court of Chancery, Court of Appeal, Court of Probate, and the Heir and Devisee Commission, sit at Toronto. The Judges of the Court of Queen's Bench are, the Chief Justice of Upper Canada, and four Puisne Judges. The Vice Chancellor presides in the Court of Chancery. The laws and juridical forms of procedure, Civil and Criminal, are in general the same as in England. Each District is incorporated into a Municipality, for the furtherance of local improvements. The District Council of each is composed of Councillors chosen by the people, in their respective Townships. The Councils hold two sessions each year, in their respective Districts, and they may assemble oftener if necessary. Each Council is presided over by a Warden, chosen by the Council from among its members; and they also appoint the District Treasurer, Clerk, Surveyor, School Superintendent, &c. The Councils possess limited powers of Taxation, for effecting necessary improvements within their several Districts; and they are further empowered to levy taxes, at discretion, for Common School purposes. The Incorporated Cities and Towns manage their own affairs, irrespective of the District Councils.

The several Counties indicate the political divisions, for Parliamentary representation, and the limits within which Records are kept, for the registration of Titles to property,—there being a Registrar for each County.

1. TOWNSHIP MEETINGS.

Any Township containing thirty inhabitant freeholders and householders may hold a Township Meeting, [1 Vic. 21, § 6.] and any Township not having that requisite number of inhabitants shall be taken to be part of such adjoining Township as the Magistrates granting the warrant for calling the meeting may deem most convenient.

Two Justices of the Peace [§ 2] must issue a warrant to the Township Clerk, [see form,] at least ten days before the time of meeting, requiring him to assemble the inhabitant freeholders and householders of his Township, on the first Monday in January, at 12 o'clock at noon, or if a Councillor is to be elected, at 10 o'clock before noon. 9 Vic. 49, § 1.

FORM OF JUSTICE'S WARRANT TO ASSEMBLE THE INHABITANTS OF — DISTRICT.

"To the Township Clerk of the Township of — in said District."

"By virtue of the power for such purposes granted by an Act of the Legislature, made and passed in the first year of the Reign of Queen Victoria, cap. 21, to us — and — two of her Majesty's Justices of the Peace in and for the said District. These are to authorise and require you, giving at least eight days' previous notice, by affixing the same in at least three public places within the said Township, to assemble the inhabitant freeholders and householders living within your Township, to meet at, [inserting place named in By-law,] on the first Monday in January next, being the — day of January, 184 —, at the hour of — for the purpose of choosing and nominating certain fit and proper persons to serve as Township Officers for the ensuing year, according to the directions in said Act contained.

"Given under our hands and seals, at — on — 184 —"

At least eight days before the first Monday in January, [1 Vic. 21, § 3,] the Township Clerk must give public notice of the time and place of meeting; but if the Township Clerk neglects to issue the notice, the inhabitants may, nevertheless, assemble at the legal place of meeting, and having chosen a chairman, may proceed to business.

If there be an incorporated town, or town having police regulations, in any township, the township meeting shall not be held within the limits of such town. § 5.

All township meetings shall be held at such place as may be appointed by a By-law of the District Council. 9 Vic. 40, § 2.

The Township Clerk presides at the meetings, until a chairman is chosen. 1 Vic. 21, § 2.

It is the duty of the Chairman to commence the proceedings by reading publicly the notice whereby the meeting was called. 7 Vic. 7, § 10.

If the notice is in conformity with the provisions of the Public Meetings' Act, [§ 11,] the Chairman may cause any person interrupting or disturbing the meeting to be removed; and may, by an instrument under his hand, on his own view, adjudge such person to be guilty of such disturbance, upon which conviction a magistrate may commit the offender. 7 Vic. c. 7.

The Chairman may command the assistance of Justices of the Peace, Constables, and other persons, to preserve good order. § 12.

All questions at a Township Meeting are decided by a majority of the freeholders and householders present, above the age of twenty-one, and any person offering to vote, not being duly qualified, is liable to a fine of one pound. 1 Vic. 21, § 4.

The Township Meeting shall first elect a Councillor, or Councillors, if there be a vacancy; and if a Poll be demanded, it may be kept open until 4 o'clock the same day. 4 and 5 Vic.; 10 § 7; 9 Vic. c. 40.

2. ELECTION OF COUNCILLORS.

The township meeting, at which a Councillor is to be elected [9 Vic. 40, § 1,] shall commence at 10 o'clock, before noon.

Every township holding a township meeting [4 and 5 Vic. 10, § 10,] is enabled to elect one Councillor, and if there be three hundred persons assessed in the township, they may elect two Councillors.

A Poll may be demanded by any candidate, [§ 7,] or by three electors present, and such Poll shall not be kept open longer than four o'clock in the afternoon. 9 Vic. 40, § 1.

It is the duty of the Collector to furnish the township clerk, [4 and 5 Vic. 10, § 6,] at least six days before the election, with a certified list of all the inhabitants entered on the last assessment roll, and no person, not on the roll is entitled to vote [§ 7]; but if there be an equality of votes, the presiding officer, although he may not be otherwise qualified, may give his casting vote.

Before proceeding to poll the votes, [§ 8] the presiding officer shall take and subscribe the following oath before a Justice of the Peace of the District:—

"I, A. B., do swear, (or solemnly affirm) that I have not, directly or indirectly, by myself, or any other person, received any fee, gift, gratuity, or reward, either in money or otherwise, or promise of any, as a consideration for my returning, or effecting the return of any person as a Member of the District Council of the District; that I will, to the best of my skill and ability, fairly, honestly, and faithfully conduct the present election for the choice of a member [or members] of the said Council, and truly return the candidate [or candidates], who, at the final close, shall appear to have a majority of votes; and that I will use my best endeavours to preserve peace and order at such election, and to give all persons, entitled to vote, free and unmolested access to and from the Poll;" which oath must be returned to the Clerk of the Council.

The township Clerk may administer to any person [§ 6.] offering to vote, the following oath:—

"I swear, (or solemnly affirm) that I am A. B., whose name is entered on the Assessment Roll of the Township of — and that I have not already voted at this election."

The township Clerk, or presiding officer, [§ 7.] shall keep a poll list in the following form, and deliver the same to the Clerk of the Peace, immediately after the conclusion of such election. And in case of there being no poll, the town clerk should return to the Clerk of the Peace his report of the township meeting as soon after as possible, as the District Council meets on the third Tuesday in January.

A Councillor need not reside in the township which he represents.

The form of oath of qualification to be written and subscribed before whom to be made, and the time; (see District Council Act); the oath of allegiance also to be subscribed and returned to the District Clerk, before a member can take his seat. Councillors before leaving their townships to attend the Council, after their election, should inquire of the town clerk if he has made his proper return to the Clerk of the Peace, or bring the necessary papers and documents with them.

Any two Magistrates may appoint officers in lieu of those who have not subscribed the declaration, or in lieu of the Township Clerk and Assessor, if they have failed to make the return to the Clerk of the Peace required by law; and officers so appointed are invested with the same powers, and subject to the same penalties as those chosen at the township meeting. § 8, 9, 13.

5. TOWNSHIP CLERK.

He must make personal application to each rateable inhabitant in the township, and demand from him a true list of all his land, tenements, and rateable personal property, which, together with his own property, he must enter correctly on his assessment Roll. § 14.

If he has reason to believe that any person is giving him a false or incorrect return of his property, he must, nevertheless, take the return as given to him; but he is, in that case, bound to report such person to a Magistrate at least fourteen days before he returns his roll to the Clerk of the Peace. § 14.

He must affix, at some conspicuous place in the township, a correct copy of his Roll. § 14.

He must make out a list of all lands in the township, which are not included in the Assessment Roll. § 41.

He must return to the Clerk of the Peace his Assessment Roll, signed, and verified upon oath, and the list Remuneration fixed by District Councils.

7. GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS OF ASSESSORS.

The list of lands not included in the roll should be made in the following form:

Lots or part of lots.	Concessions.	Number of Acres.
-----------------------	--------------	------------------

They are in all cases to obtain directly from the owners or occupants of farms, lists of their rateable property, and not from other sources.

When lands or houses are in the occupation of tenants, such tenants are to be assessed, unless the owners reside in the township, and give such lands or houses with their other property.

Lands are to be inserted in consecutive order, beginning with No. 1, and so on.

Each lot or part of lot to be entered on a separate line, though belonging to one person, taking care to mention in townships where there are lots of the same number, as well as concessions, to mention east or west, &c.

The following instructions will be a guide in doubtful points:

A house with two rows of windows in the front is a two-storied house.

A house must be taken to be built of such materials as the principal part of such house is built of.

A log-house clap-boarded or plastered is, nevertheless, only a log-house.

All fire-places above two are additional fire-places, and must be counted, whether in use or not. 59 Geo. III. 7, § 2.

A stove in any room without a fire-place is counted an additional fire-place. § 2.

A store and dwelling-house in one building are to be both rated separately.

A house occupied as a dwelling-house must be rated, whether it be finished or not.

8. COLLECTOR.

The Collector must lodge his bond with the Treasurer before the July Quarter Sessions. 1 Vic. 21, § 15.

Having lodged his bond, he must apply to the Clerk of the Peace for the assessment roll. § 17.

The District Council may authorize the Collector to collect the arrears of the previous year. 1 Vic 21, § 40. 4 & 5 Vic. 10.

Collectors whose rates shall be in arrears, and not paid over by the time of meeting of the Quarter Sessions in January, are liable to have their goods, as well as those of their sureties seized, and sold for the amount of such arrears. 1 Vic, 21, § 35.

If any person rated in the assessment roll shall refuse or neglect to pay his rate for fourteen days after demand duly made, the Collector may obtain a distress warrant from a magistrate, at any time after the first Monday in November. 1 Vic. 21. § 46 and 49.

The Collector is authorized to execute the warrant and sell the goods and chattels, giving eight days' notice of the sale in three public places in the township, and he may retain out of the money arising from the sale, besides the amount of the rate, the sum of three shillings and ninepence, as his fee for making the distress, advertising and selling. § 46 and 51.

If the occupant of any house, farm or tenement shall have left the township, the Collector may recover from the owner such part of the rate as is assessed upon the house or land, provided it is demanded fourteen days before the second Monday in December. And he may recover from the tenant the whole rate, although such tenant have left the township. § 19.

If the Collector has not demanded the rate from any person assessed at least fourteen days before the second Monday in December, he is liable himself for the amount, and cannot claim abatement by reason of his inability to collect the rate; but he may, nevertheless, recover the amount from the person so rated. § 19.

If any person shall bring a stone horse, covering mares for hire, into a township, after the assessment for the year has been made, the Collector may, nevertheless, demand the rate for such horse, as if it had been duly returned on the assessment roll, unless the owner satisfy him that the rate has been paid elsewhere. 59 Geo. III. 7, § 2.

The Collector must receive a certificate for the killing of a wolf, at the rate of thirty shillings, in the payment of rates. 6 Wm. IV. 29.

District Councils may fix the per centage to be retained by Collectors.

When an election for Councillor is to take place at any approaching township meeting, the Collector is required to furnish the Township Clerk, at least six days before such meeting, with a certified list of all the inhabitant householders and freeholders entered on the last assessment roll, with a view to determine who have a right to vote. 4 & 5 Vic. 10, § 6.

(See also Oath to Voters.)

9. POUND-KEEPERS.

A Pound-keeper must provide himself with proper enclosures. He must impound any cattle unlawfully running at large, or trespassing, which may be brought to him, and he must furnish them with necessary food and drink. 1 Vic. 21, § 32.

If within twenty-four hours the person impounding the cattle shall not give to the Pound-keeper in writing his demand for damages, the Pound-keeper may release them, upon payment of his fees. § 34.

If within forty-eight hours after the animal is impounded the claim and costs be not paid, the Pound-keeper shall immediately notify three disinterested farmers, resident in the township, to appraise the damages and judge of the lawfulness of the fence. § 35.

The farmers so notified must give in their award in writing to the Pound-keeper within twenty-four hours, under a penalty of five shillings. § 35.

If, before the award is made, the owner shall tender for the damage an amount equal to what is afterwards awarded, the party claiming extravagant damages is liable for all costs incurred after such tender. § 31.

If, within forty-eight hours, the animal impounded be not claimed, and his lawful charges and the amount of damages awarded paid, the Pound-keeper shall affix in three public places in the township, for at least fifteen days, a notice of the time and place at which he will sell it, giving in such notice a description of the animal. If the costs and damages are not paid before, he shall then sell the animal, and, after deducting the costs and damages, he shall return the overplus, on demand, to the owner. But if no owner appears within three months, he shall pay the overplus to the Township Clerk, to be expended upon the roads of the township. § 32.

If the animal is not claimed at or before the time of the sale, and the owner is unknown, the Pound-keeper shall postpone the sale for forty days, at the expiration of which time, if not before redeemed, he shall proceed to sell, and dispose of the proceeds as before provided. § 33.

The owner of any animals which may not lawfully run at large, shall be liable for any damage done by them, whether the fences be lawful or not. § 35.

If an animal is impounded for running at large, contrary to the township regulations, the fine imposed is to be paid to the Pound-keeper; and as to the method of deciding in disputed cases, and of levying the fine and costs by the sale of the animal, the Pound-keeper must be guided by the same directions as are laid down in the case of a claim for damage; but the amount of the fine is to be paid by the Pound-keeper to the Township Clerk, to be expended upon the roads.

A Pound-keeper is entitled to a charge to be fixed by the District Councils.

10. OVERSEERS OF HIGHWAYS.

An Overseer of Highways shall, with the statute labour or money which may be placed under his control, superintend and keep in repair the roads in the division to which he may have been appointed by the Councillors of the township in special sessions. 1 Vic. 21 & 24.

He must make out from the Township Clerk's list an account of the number of days labour which each person in his division is liable to perform, and he must notify to each personally, or either verbally or in writing, at his usual place of residence, the day, hour and place where he requires him to work, giving at least three days notice. § 20, 21.

He shall similarly call out any person above twenty-one years of age residing in the division, although such person be not on the assessment roll, or the Township Clerk's list. 3 Vic. 10.

He shall, if required, give a certificate to each person who has performed statute labour. 1 Vic. 21, § 20.

He may direct persons performing statute labour to destroy weeds hurtful to good husbandry. § 20.

He shall by the labour under his direction, cause rails or fences to be erected at dangerous parts of the roads, and erect finger posts where he judges it necessary. § 21.

He may, whilst laying out statute labour or money in the repairs of the roads, make use of any growing timber or stone upon the unenclosed and unimproved land, doing no unnecessary damage. § 24.

He may direct any person under him to bring such tools and implements, yoke of oxen, or team, cart, or waggon, as such person may be possessed of. § 25.

If any labourer or driver shall refuse or neglect to work faithfully, or to carry sufficient loads, the Overseer may discharge such person, and the person so discharged is liable to the same penalty as if he had not attended. § 25.

It is the duty of the Overseer to make a complaint to a Magistrate, if any person duly warned has failed to perform his labour. § 27.

An Overseer is not exempt from his own labour by reason of his holding that office, but any day on which he superintends the labour of others will count as a day's work, and he may also be allowed one day's work for attending Special Sessions.

The Overseer must give in to the Township Clerk on or before the first of September, a list verified upon oath of all the persons liable to perform statute labour in his division, and of what part of such labour has been performed, together with an account of all monies which have come into his hands by virtue of his office. A blank form for making the above return will be given him by the Township Clerk at the April Special Sessions. § 31.

In case of any sudden obstruction or damage to a road, or for the purpose of putting up marks to guide travellers over any frozen waters, the Overseer is requested to expend any money in his hands, or to call out statute labour under his direction, at any other time than between the tenth of May and the twenty-fourth of July. And if he has no money or labour unexpended, he shall nevertheless call out persons residing in his division, apportioning such labour as equally as may be amongst the inhabitants, and he shall immediately give in an account of the labour so performed to the Township Clerk. § 30.

11. TOWNSHIP WARDENS.

The Township Wardens shall report to the Magistrates of the District, any person of unsound mind going about the Township to the danger of the inhabitants. 1 Vic. 21, § 13.

They may exempt any person, not assessed at more than £25, from statute labour, on account of age, sickness, or other misfortune. § 29.

12. FENCE VIEWERS.

If two parties, occupying adjoining tracts of land, have any dispute, as to what part of the dividing fence, or of any drain, or water-course, each party shall make and keep in repair, they may call in three Fence-viewers to make an award. 8 Vic. c. 23. (For the manner of proceeding in which case, see the Act.)

13. HIGHWAYS AND BRIDGES.

No Overseer or other person may remove any fence enclosing any part of a concession line or allowance for road, unless authorised to do so by an order of the District Council. At least eight days notice must be given to the party in occupation; and in case of dispute as to the boundary line of said allowance, if not amicably arranged, can be decided only by an action at law, to be brought in the Court of Queen's Bench, &c. 9 Vic. 8.

Any person wilfully stopping up a road, or destroying any railing, guard, or finger post, is liable to a fine of £5. Vic. 21, § 28.

Any person neglecting, after twenty-four hours notice, to remove the obstruction in a road arising from any tree having fallen, or been cut down from the land in his occupation, is liable to a fine of ten shillings for every day the obstruction remains. Vic. 21, § 28.

Any person riding or driving across any bridge above thirty feet in length, faster than a walk, is liable to a fine of £1. 8 Vic. 44.

Any person maliciously destroying any bridge, or rendering it impassable or dangerous, is guilty of felony. 1 and 5 Vic. 26, § 13.

11. STATUTE LABOUR.

Every person included in the Assessor's roll shall work on the highways in proportion to such assessment, [39 Geo. III. c. 2.] after the following rate, viz:—
If his property is rated at more than £25, he shall work 2 days

" 500 " 3500 " 1 day.

Every person possessed of a waggon or cart, or a yoke of oxen, or a team of horses, used to draw the same, shall work not less than three days. § 2.

Every person above twenty-one years of age is liable to perform two days statute labour, whether he be on the assessment roll or not, and liable to imprisonment if he refuses. 3 Vic. c. 10.

Any person assessed under £25, who, by reason of age, sickness, or other misfortune, may be in indigent circumstances, may be relieved from statute labor by the Town Wardens. 1 Vic. 21, § 9.

A day's statute labor consists of eight hours faithful work, exclusive of the time coming and going. § 25.

The work of a yoke of oxen, or team, with a driver, counts as two days and no more. § 25.

Any person neglecting, after due notice, to perform statute labour, or to send a sufficient substitute, or to furnish such carriage, team, or implements as he may be possessed of, when duly called upon for them, shall forfeit five shillings for each day he shall so neglect, and he shall, nevertheless, be still subject to perform the labour at any time in the current year. § 7.

NOTE.—The said Act repeals clauses XXIII and XLII of the Township Officers' Act, in regard to the commutation of statute labour, and provides that the District Council may, by a By-law, empower landlords to compound, to whom the money shall be paid, for such composition, and to regulate the manner and the divisions in which the statute labour shall be performed.

Persons failing to perform their agreement for compounding, are liable to the same penalty as those who neglect to perform statute labour. 1 Vic. 21, § 43.

Heir and Devisee Commission.

This Court, as now organised, is constituted by the Act 8 Vic. cap. 8, and is confined in its operation to Upper Canada, its object being for determining claims to lands in Upper Canada, for which no patent hath issued, and for ascertaining the parties in whose favor the patents for such lands ought respectively to issue. Any party claiming any lands in Upper Canada, for which no patent hath issued, as being the Heir, Devisee or Assignee, of the original Nominée of the Crown, or as having derived a title or claim to such lands, from or through any such Heir, Devisee or Assignee, is authorized to bring his claim before the Commissioners, at their sittings, personally, or by Agent or Attorney, for adjudication. The Commissioners, under the Act, are appointed by the Governor, under the great seal of the Province, and must include the Chief Justice of the Queen's Bench, the Vice Chancellor, and the Puisne Judges of the Queen's Bench of Upper Canada, and as many other persons as the Governor shall think fit. Those at present associated in the Commission, with the high functionaries named, are Robert E. Burns, John G. Spragge, and James G. Chewett, Esquires. Any three Commissioners (of whom the Chief Justice or the Vice Chancellor, or one of the Puisne Judges must be one,) constitute a quorum for the transaction of business under the Act. The sittings of the Commissioners are at Toronto, on the first Monday in January and the first Monday in July, in each year; at each of which periods the Court is held, by adjournment, for the space of fourteen days. The decisions of the Commissioners shall be final, except that no letters patent shall issue upon any decision until after the lapse of one calendar month, in case anything should, in the meantime, be brought to the knowledge of the Commissioners to show that justice requires that the issuing of the letters patent should be staid, until they shall have an opportunity of rehearing and reconsidering the case. The Act lays down rules for proceedings before the Commissioners. Clerk to the Commissioners—William H. Lee, Executive Council Office, Montreal.

Limits of the Districts and Counties in Lower Canada.

Lower Canada is divided into five Districts or Districts of Quebec, Montreal, Three Rivers, and St. Shrievalties, possessing distinct Juridictories. In each Francis.

The Courts of Queen's Bench, sitting in inferior term, in the several Districts of Quebec, Montreal, Three Rivers, and St. Francis, have cognizance of, and try independent and superior civil and criminal jurisdiction. The Judges are, at Quebec, the Chief Justice of Canada, and determine in a summary manner, civil cases, in and three Puisne Judges; and at Montreal, the Chief Justice of Montreal, and three Puisne Judges. There is also a Court of Appeal in each of those Districts. There are, besides, inferior Indictories within each of them. In the Districts of Three Rivers, St. Francis and Gaspé, there are also independent Juridictories established. The Court of Vice Admiralty sits at Quebec. The Courts of Bankruptcy are presided over in the Districts of Montreal and Quebec by the Circuit Judges, and in the other Districts by Commissioners of Bankrupts appointed by the Governor. There are three Circuit Judges for the District of Quebec, and four for the District of Montreal. At Three Rivers there is a resident Judge for the District of that name, and at Sherbrooke a Provincial Judge for the District of St. Francis; while at Percé, in the District of Gaspé, there is a resident District Judge, and another at New Carlisle, in the County of Bonaventure, of the same District; but the District, notwithstanding, constitutes only one Sheriffdom.

Terms or Sessions of the Court of Queen's Bench, in Superior Term, for the cognizance of all crimes and criminal offences, and of all suits or actions of a civil nature, are held at stated periods yearly, in each of the

There is a Special Juridicture Act for the District of Gaspé (7 Vic. Cap. 17.) The Courts are held by the District Judges in their respective counties, and are similar to those in the other Districts.

There are also tribunals established in Lower Canada for the summary trial of small causes, affording an easy and expeditious mode of recovering petty debts. These are called Commissioners' Courts, formed under the authority of the Act 7 Vic. cap. 19, and are held in the several parishes or townships, upon petition of the inhabitants to the Governor to appoint Commissioners. The Circuit Judges in Quebec and Montreal are, ex officio, Commissioners of these Courts in their respective Districts. The jurisdiction of the Courts is limited to £6 5s. currency. For the cities and parishes of Quebec and Montreal, the Courts are held weekly, every Monday, not being a holiday, and if so, then on the following day; and for all other places they are held monthly, on the first Monday of every month, not being a holiday, and if so, then on the following day,—the Commissioners having power to adjourn to any other days they may deem necessary, for hearing witnesses and determining suits. The Act makes provision, in detail, for the mode of procedure, &c., in the Commissioners' Courts.

The civil laws of Lower Canada are of French origin, and based upon the old feudal system. They are those which prevailed at the time of the conquest of the country by England,—the laws, language and customs of the people having then been guaranteed under the Treaty of Capitulation of Quebec. The criminal law of England, however, is in force in Lower Canada, as well as in Upper Canada, with such alterations as may have been introduced into it by subsequent Acts of the Provincial Legislatures. These have generally been, the adoption of those modifications of the criminal law, which have been from time to time made by imperial legislation in England, since the introduction of the English criminal code into the Province. The tenure of property is also feudal, with the exception of that of lands in the Townships. These lands have been laid out for settlement, of late years, in the District of St. Francis, and partially in other Districts, where new townships have been surveyed, and are held in free and common socage. In order to remove, in some measure, the inconveniences and difficulties attending the feudal system in the seigniories, and to render more secure and satisfactory the Titles to property, a system of Registration has been recently established, which, in process of time, must produce beneficial effects, the more its advantages are understood and availed of. A system of local municipal government has also been introduced which cannot fail to prove advantageous, when the people learn by experience the value of the privileges thus conferred on them, and the superiority of the system over that which formerly prevailed. The municipal law has already been acted upon, to a considerable extent, and, each year, we shall no doubt witness its more extensive spread in every county. The Act regulating the municipal authorities in Lower Canada is the 10 and 11 Vic. cap. 7.

The Districts of Lower Canada are divided into Counties. In Montreal there are 16 Counties; in Quebec 11; in Three Rivers 5; in St. Francis 2, and in Gaspe 2,—in all 36 counties, each of which returns a representative to the Provincial Parliament. There are, besides, the cities of Montreal and Quebec, returning two members each to Parliament, and the towns of Three Rivers and Sherbrooke, returning one member each; making the whole number of Parliamentary representatives for Lower Canada 42, the same as for Upper Canada.

The District of Montreal is very extensive. Montreal is the capital, where the Courts, &c., are held. The District lays partly along the Banks of the Ottawa River, and the River St. Lawrence, the latter running through its centre. On the Ottawa and the north side of the St. Lawrence are situated the Counties of Ottawa, Two Mountains, Montreal, Terrebonne, Leinster and Berthier; and on the south side of the St. Lawrence the counties of Vaudeuil, Beauharnois, Huntingdon, Rouville, Missisquoi, Chambly, Vercherres, Richelieu, St. Hyacinthe and Shefford. These 16 Counties form the District of Montreal.

Next in geographical order is the District of Three Rivers, which is also divided by the River St. Lawrence. The District town is also named Three Rivers. On the north side of the river are situated the Counties of St. Maurice and Champlain; and on the south side those of Yamaska, Nicolet, and Drummond. These five counties form the inferior District of Three Rivers.

To the eastward of the Districts of Three Rivers and Montreal lays the District of St. Francis, which consists of the two Counties of Staudstad and Sherbrooke. The District Town is also called Sherbrooke.

The District of Quebec is very extensive, having the city of Quebec for its capital. The River St. Lawrence divides the District. On the north side of the river are situated the Counties of Port Neuf, Quebec, Montmorency, and Saguenay; and on the south side Lotbinière, Megantic, Dorchester, Bellechasse, L'Islet, Kamouraska, and Rimouski; making the 11 Counties of which the District of Quebec is formed.

The inferior District of Gaspe, partially bordering on the Gulf of St. Lawrence, is composed of the two Counties of Gaspe and Bonaventure.

The members composing the Rural Municipal Councils of Lower Canada, under the Act 10 and 11 Vic. cap. 7, are chosen by the people in their respective parishes or townships; and in case of any parish or township refusing or neglecting to elect Councillors, the Governor in Council shall appoint them. The presiding officer of each Council is styled the Mayor of the Municipality, and is chosen by the Councillors from among themselves. Each Council also appoints its Secretary, Treasurer, and a Deputy Grand Voyer for the superintendence of Roads and Bridges in the Municipality, and three Assessors for the valuation of property liable to assessment; also Collectors, Surveyors, &c. &c. The Councils are authorized to raise monies by assessment, to a limited extent, for the purposes of the several Municipalities. The powers and objects of the Councils are set forth with much fulness and precision in the Act, which provides also for the division of certain Counties, into distinct Municipalities, the local limits of each division to be defined by the Governor in Council, and numbered one, two or three, as the case may be, in proportion to population. The Council of each Municipality shall hold its meetings at the parishes, villages, or places following, viz:—

BONAVENTURE County—Division first at New Carlisle; Division second at New Richmond.

Making in all thirty-six Counties; and those of them which are required by the Act to be divided into two or three distinct Municipalities, are indicated with sufficient clearness in the foregoing table. Each Council must hold four quarterly meetings each year, on the second Monday in June, September, December, and March, and they are at liberty to meet oftener, if necessary.

The Act makes separate provision for the incorporation into distinct Municipalities of Villages, Towns and Boroughs not already incorporated, containing forty houses or upwards, within a space of thirty superficial arpents or acres. The powers and duties of these Municipalities are set forth at length in the Act, and they appear to have been carefully framed, as well as those relating to the Rural Municipalities, for the purpose of providing good and sufficient local self government within the respective bounds of each, for protecting property, promoting necessary improvements, and assuring the inhabitants in a full measure of such material progress, safety and protection as institutions of this description, properly directed, are so well calculated to afford.

Rochester, about 105 miles; Cobourg to Oswego, about 90 miles; Hamilton to Rochester, about 124 miles; Hamilton to Oswego, about 169 miles. The Steamers above alluded to, connect with the lines of Railroad at Queenston, Lewiston, Rochester and Oswego, and with the Steamers on the River St. Lawrence, and the Rideau Canal at Kingston. The following are ascertained distances:

(Steamboat.)		(Steamboat.)

Showing the Oswego route to be 77 miles less than that by Lewiston, and 24 miles shorter than that by Rochester direct; and the Rochester route to be 53 miles shorter than that by Lewiston. In consequence of there being no daily steamer between Toronto and Rochester, and no regular steam communication between Toronto and Oswego, and the speedy and regular transit of passengers by Railroad, the Buffalo and Lewiston route is generally taken by travellers.

New York to Toronto, via Oswego, . . . . . 469

Sault Ste. Marie, via Penetanguishene, . . . . . 469

The distance, by Railroad, between Albany and Boston is 200 miles.

On the River St. Lawrence there is a daily line of Steamers between Kingston, Montreal, and intermediate places, 198 miles; and a continuous daily line between Montreal, Quebec, and intermediate places, 180 miles.

Between Kingston, Bytown, and intermediate places, about 120 miles, on the Rideau Canal, Steamers ply four times a week; and between Montreal, Bytown, and intermediate places, about 120 miles, on the Ottawa River, there is daily communication by Steamboat,—the distance of nine miles, from Montreal to Lachine, being performed by Railroad. There is also daily communication, by Stages and Steamboats, between Bytown and Portage du Fort, on the Ottawa, about 60 miles.

These routes are thoroughfares for travellers, and it will be observed that they are all so arranged that parties can not only travel through Lake Ontario, the River St. Lawrence, the Rideau Canal, and the Ottawa, at a moderate expense, but also pass from one to the other of these, with the greatest comfort and expedition, viewing the whole of the magnificent country and scenery traversed by them.

From Toronto, by Lake Huron, the Northern route deserves more particular notice. Travellers proceed in Coaches along the Macadamized Road to Lake Simcoe, where they cross by Steamboat, and having passed the portage of about 14 miles, from Lake Simcoe to Sturgeon Bay, on Lake Huron, (which is done in Coaches,) they again embark on board a Steamboat, which brings them through Lake Huron to the Sault Ste. Marie, at the foot of Lake Superior,—the distance from Toronto to the Sault, by the route thus travelled, being only 460 miles.

From Montreal to the United States, the Summer route is across the St. Lawrence to Laprairie, thence by Railroad to St. Johns, and thence by Steamboat, through Lake Champlain to Whitehall, from whence the traveller proceeds by Coach to Saratoga Springs, or Troy, at his option. From Saratoga to Albany by Railroad; and from Troy or Albany to New York by the Hudson River Steamers; and to Boston by Railroad.

The Winter route is by Stages from Montreal via Laprairie and St. Johns, to Highgate, Vt., thence via Burlington to Troy, or by Plattsburg to Saratoga, and from thence by Railroad to Albany and Boston. And from Albany to New York, by the Hausatonic Railroad as far as Bridgeport, and from thence, a distance of 60 miles, by Steamboat to New York. The distance between Montreal and New York is about 340 miles; and between Montreal and Boston about 432 miles.

On LAKE ERIE there are daily Steamboat communications to all points. (1.) From Chippawa [Canada] to Buffalo, about 18 miles. (2.) Buffalo to Chicago, through Lake Erie, the Detroit River, Lakes St. Clair, Huron and Michigan.

(3.) Steamers also ply between Buffalo and Detroit, along the Canada shore of Lake Erie; and they connect with a Steamer that runs from Brantford, (a town 17 miles distant from Hamilton, in the interior of the Province,) down the Grand River, by Caledonia to Dunnville, at its mouth, on Lake Erie. They connect also with another Steamer that runs from Chatham, (an inland town in the Western District,) down the River Thames, to Windsor, Detroit, Sandwich, and Amherstburgh, on Lake Erie.

To enumerate further, or to enter upon the many interesting subjects which suggest themselves, in connection with this magnificent portion of British North America, would require very much more space than the little volume, for which it is our privilege to write, affords us. We must, therefore, bring these memoranda to a close, by briefly drawing attention to the additional facilities for travelling,—particularly the cheap and easy transmission of Immigrants and Merchandise,—which is now afforded by the recent construction of the St. Lawrence Canal, and enlargement of the Welland Canal. Steam Propellers now load at Quebec, and proceed to Chicago direct, or to any port on Lakes Ontario, Erie, Huron, and Michigan, with far greater ease, and even less risk than is usually encountered between Leith and London, or Glasgow and Liverpool. This fact need only be known to induce Emigrants from Europe, destined for the Western parts of America, to choose the route of the St. Lawrence; for they will not only be sure of having cheap passage, and comfortable vessels in which to proceed to their destination, but they will also escape from becoming the victims of the wholesale system of plunder and robbery, which is practised every year upon unfortunate Immigrants, at New York, Albany, Buffalo, and other places, on their passage up the Hudson River and the Erie Canal, in the State of New York.

Electro-Magnetic Telegraph.

Lines of Magnetic Telegraph are established in Canada, which afford the means of instantaneous communication, between all places so united. They are extensively used for private correspondence, and by the Press for News Reports. Between Toronto, Montreal, and Quebec, there is a continuous line, on which Corresponding Offices are established, at Toronto, Oshawa, Port Hope, Cobourg, Belleville, Kingston, Brockville, Prescott, Cornwall, Montreal, Three Rivers, and Quebec. An extension of the line is in progress of construction, from Quebec to Halifax, which is already completed and in operation upwards of 200 miles below Quebec, having Corresponding Offices at Riviere du Loup and Trois Pistoles. From Montreal the Telegraph is extended to the United States via Troy, there being a Corresponding Office at St. Johns, on Lake Champlain.

From Toronto there are Telegraphic lines Westward, on which there are Corresponding Offices established at Toronto, Hamilton, St. Catharines, Queenston, Niagara, Falls of Niagara, Chippawa, Brantford, Woodstock, and London; and these are in immediate connection with the United States, via Buffalo.

The connection with the United States Telegraphs affords the advantage of communicating with all parts of the Union, where Telegraphs are established, Eastward to New York, Boston, &c., Southward to New Orleans, and Westward to Detroit, and places intervening between those severally named, with the prospect of further extension.

EASTERN PROVINCES.

The Eastern Provinces of British North America comprise Nova Scotia, including the Island of Cape Breton; New Brunswick, and the Island of Prince Edward. These are nominally comprised, along with Canada, in the General Government of British North America, and are presided over by the Governor General, who resides in Montreal, administering the Government of Canada, while each of the other Provinces has a resident Lieutenant Governor, by whom their several affairs are respectively administered. In each Province the Lieutenant Governor is assisted in his administration by an Executive Council, similarly composed with that of Canada; and there is also a local Legislature, or Parliament in each, consisting of three branches, viz., the Lieutenant Governor representing Her Majesty, a Legislative Council—the members of which are appointed by the Sovereign for life, and a House of Assembly chosen by the people.

Nova Scotia.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR—Lieutenant General Sir John Harvey, K.C.B. and K.C.H. Private Secretary, H. J. Harvey.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL—Honourables James B. Uniacke, Attorney General; Michael Tobin, Hugh Bell, Joseph Howe, Provincial Secretary; James McNab, H. Huntington, William F. Desbarres, Solicitor General; L. O. C. Doyle, and George R. Young.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL—Hon. Michael Tobin, President, and twenty other members, including the Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY—Hon. William Young, Speaker, and 50 other members, of whom 27 are returned for counties and 24 for townships. Clerk of Assembly, John Whidden.

COURT OF CHANCERY—Chancellor, the Lieutenant Governor; Master of the Rolls, the Hon. Alex. Stewart; Registrar and Examiner, N. W. White.

SUPREME COURT OF JUDICATURE—Chief Justice, the Hon. Brenton Halliburton; Assistant Judges—there is a vacancy on the Bench by the late demise of the Hon. Wm. Hill; Wm. B. Bliss, Thomas C. Halliburton, and E. M. Dodd, Clerk of the Crown and Prothonotary, James W. Nutting.

COURT OF ERROR—The Lieutenant Governor and Executive Councillors.

COURT OF MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE—President, the Lieutenant Governor; Vice President, the Chief Justice, and the Executive Councillors.

COURT OF VICE ADMIRALTY—Vice Admiral, the Governor General of British North America; Judge and Commissary, the Hon. and Worshipful Alex'r Stewart; Registrar, James S. Tremain.

COMMISSIONERS FOR THE TRIAL OF OFFENCES COMMITTED ON THE HIGH SEAS—President, the Judge of Vice Admiralty; Members, the Lieutenant Governor and Executive Councillors, the Admiral of the Squadron, the Chief Justice and Judges of the Supreme Court, the Provincial Secretary and Treasurer, and the Flag Officers of the Squadron in Port.

The Area of Nova Scotia, including Cape Breton, is about 18,000 square miles. Halifax is the capital, and the only Incorporated Town in the Province. The last census, taken in 1877, gives the population of the Province at 199,906. The population of the towns has never been officially ascertained; and there has been no account kept of the increase of population by Immigration.

(For Nova Scotia Tariff see page 48.)

New Brunswick.

Lieutenant Governor—Sir Edmund W. Head, Bart.: Provincial Secretary—The Hon. John R. Partelow.

The Executive Council usually consists of about seven members. The Legislative Council, of a President, and about fifteen members; and the House of Assembly of thirty-nine members, including the Speaker, all of whom represent counties, with the exception of two, who are returned for the city of St. John.

The Courts consist of a Court of Chancery, having the Lieutenant Governor for Chancellor, and a Master of the Rolls; a Supreme Court of Judicature, presided over by the Chief Justice, and three other Justices; a Court of Vice Admiralty, and other Judicatories, analogous to those established in Nova Scotia. Master of the Rolls—Hon. N. Parker; Registrar—D. L. Robinson; Chief Justice—Hon. W. Chipman, LL.D.; Justices—Honourables James Carter, Robert Parker, and George F. Street; Clerk of the Crown—J. A. Prince Edward Island.

Lieut. Governor—Sir D. Campbell, Bart.; Provincial Secretary—The Hon. T. H. Haviland. Charlottetown is the capital of the Island.

Newfoundland.

The Island of Newfoundland is under a distinct Government, unconnected with the British North American Colonies. A few years ago its constitution was abrogated by the Imperial Parliament, and a new one conferred, yielding them only one Legislative Branch, the members of which are partly appointed by the Governor, and partly elected by the people. Governor and Vice Admiral—Sir John Caspard Le Marchand; Commandant—Lieut. Col. Law; Colonial Secretary—James Crowdy; Attorney General—E. M. Archibald. Capital of the Island—St. Johns.

PUBLISHERS' NOTICE.

The Compilers of the Canadian Almanac for 1849 have endeavoured to improve upon the work of the previous year, and they trust that the present volume bears evidence of perseverance in the attempt, and of success attending their exertions.

Notwithstanding that the work contains an unusually large quantity of information, and that by the compression of matter, and the use of small type, every effort has been made to include in the foregoing pages the whole

The Publishers beg leave to tender their most respectful and cordial acknowledgments to the several parties to whom they are indebted for returns for the Canadian Almanac for 1849, and they trust that, seeing the useful purpose to which the information so obtained is applied, an application for similar assistance for next year will be as cheerfully responded to by all.

The edition of the Canadian Almanac for 1848 consisted of 15,000 COPIES, which were not only very generally circulated in the Province, but also in the sister Provinces and neighbouring States, and a considerable number found their way to various parts of the United Kingdom. The demand was such that the whole edition of 15,000 was very soon exhausted, and many applicants for copies to transmit to Europe and elsewhere, were disappointed. Encouraged, therefore, by the very flattering reception which the Canadian Almanac for 1848 met with on all hands, the Publishers have printed 30,000 COPIES of the present one for 1849, feeling assured that, if anything, even this large edition may possibly fall short of the great demand for the work.

The Publishers, in soliciting contributions for the Canadian Almanac for 1950, beg respectfully to request that parties may be pleased to send in their intended favours as early as possible, in order to afford the Compilers ample time for arrangement.

TORONTO, 21st October, 1848.

SCOBIE & BALFOUR.

SUPPLEMENTARY.

In a portion of the Almanac "John Moberly" is erroneously printed, instead of "Ed. A. Walker," as Inspector of the Revenue District of Simcoe, p. 32.

The vacant Judgeship has been filled up, by the appointment of the Hon. Robert Baldwin Sullivan thereto, p. 33.

The following reads in connection with p. 47, but was not received in time to secure its proper place:

Extract from a Circular to Collectors of Customs, dated I. G. O. Customs Department, April, 1848.

"For the present and pending the consideration of regulations for establishing the allowance to be made for draft and tare, you will deduct from the gross weight of goods the tare according to the original Invoice, the correctness of which has been declared to you; and in the absence of such Invoice, or the omission of tare in the Invoice, you will cause the medium tare to be ascertained, by weighing a few packages of the importation and adopting the result as the standard of the whole."

[Signed]

J. W. DUNSCOMB.

The Newfoundland Tariff should have followed that of New Brunswick, p. 50, but came to hand too late for that purpose.

In a portion of the Almanac "J. T. Gilkison" has been inserted as Agent for Crown Lands in the Niagara District. The Crown Lands Agency for the Niagara District is vacant.

This Company, established for the purpose of extending the knowledge and practice of Life Assurance in British North America, offers to the intending Assurer the combined advantages of local management, and a most important reduction of cost consequent upon the local investment of its funds at a high rate of Compound Interest. The Directors are prepared to effect Assurances or grant Annuities in any of the great variety of methods usually employed by other Companies, or to purchase Reversionary Interests. On single lives Assurances can be effected with or without participation in the profits of the Company,—the premiums may be paid in half-yearly or quarterly instalments—and on the Half Credit System credit will be given for one-half of the first seven premiums secured upon the Policy alone.

Annual Premiums to Assure £100 for the whole Term of Life.

The above rates for life without participation and half credit, will, upon comparison, be found to be lower than the similar tables of any other office at present offering to Assure in Canada, the former being about 15 per cent. below the average British rates. This reduction of the annual cost of Assurance, is most fully justified by the increased rate of Interest which the Directors are able to obtain by investing the funds of the Company in Canada. Should the experience of the first few years satisfy the Board that they may safely depend upon the British Tables of Mortality which they have temporarily adopted, these rates will be yet further reduced—an advantage in which all existing Assurers will be permitted to share. The rates with participation, although higher in immediate cost, (being about equal to the rates of the majority of British offices,) are most strongly recommended for adoption, as the assured becomes entitled to a return of three-fourths of the profits of this branch of the Company's business, thus fully participating in the important advantage of a high rate of Interest and the economical system of expenditure adopted; while the full amount of the capital is liable to him for the punctuality of the payment of the engagements of the Company. These profits cannot be estimated very exactly; but upon an average they will exceed 20 per cent., and not improbably reach 40 per cent. upon the gross premiums paid. Each Assurer has the choice to receive his share of profits, either in cash, reduction of all his future premiums, or by bonus addition payable at death. The residence and travelling limits are very liberal—no fee is required for crossing the Atlantic, and no medical fee or STAMP DUTY charged.

The first Annual Report, explaining the highly flattering position of the Company, Prospective Tables of Rates, Forms of Application, and any further information can be obtained from the Agents of the Company in all the chief cities and towns in the Province, or of the undersigned at the Office of the Company.

To render Saturn's Ring visible to the Earth, it is necessary that the Sun and the Earth be elevated on the same side of it, which is the case during the whole of 1850. It will attain its greatest apparent diameter in August.

Explanation of the Articles in the Calendar.

THE SUN'S DECLINATION is given for mean noon at Toronto, for every day: the difference for mean noon for any other place in the British Provinces, will rarely amount to one minute.

APPARENT NOON, SHEWING THE EQUATION OF TIME.—This column contains the hour which should be shown by a clock or watch at Toronto, when a Sun-dial marks twelve o'clock. Its error at any other place in the British Provinces will rarely amount to one second. The Equation of Time is the difference in time between the real place of the Sun, and its supposed or mean place. The actual intervals between the successive arrivals of the Sun on the meridian, or the length of successive solar days, is variable, owing to the difference in the rapidity of the Earth in different parts of its orbit, and in the inclination of the successive parts of the ecliptic to the equator. But, as time-keepers cannot be made to measure an interval which varies every day, a clock or watch is made to mark twenty-four hours in the average of all the days. In other words, it is made to keep pace with an imaginary or mean Sun, having a motion exactly equal to the average motion of the real or apparent Sun. Hence, when it is twelve o'clock by the real Sun, it may be before or after twelve by the mean Sun. The true Sun and the mean or imaginary Sun coincide four times in each year, viz., about the 15th of March, the 15th June, the 1st of September, and the 24th of December. The difference between them, or the Equation of Time, is never more than sixteen minutes. A Sun-dial gives apparent time, and the equation of time must be given before setting a watch by it, whatever be the hour of the day.

SUN RISING AND SETTING.—The mean time of the Sun rising and setting is given for every day for Toronto and Montreal, and will be found given for every tenth day at Quebec, Halifax, and Fredericton, by referring to the Table at page 4. If the time is wanted for any intermediate day, enter the table of Semi-diurnal Arcs (page 4) with the Sun's declination for that day, the value given, subtracted from, or added to, the mean time of apparent noon, will give the hour of rising or setting.

THE MOON'S RISING OR SETTING is given for every day at Montreal and Toronto: the time of rising being given when she sets during daylight; and the time of setting, when she rises during daylight. The time given for Montreal will never be more than four minutes in error for Halifax, three minutes in error for Fredericton, and five minutes in error for Quebec; and it is, therefore, near enough for ordinary reference at those places.

THE PLANETS.—The hour of meridian passage, right ascension and declination of each of the principal Planets, is given for the 1st and 15th of each month. (m signifies morning.)

THE POLE STAR.—The time when the Pole Star is on the meridian, is given for the 15th of each month, being the hour when it is due north. U signifies Upper Culmination—L signifies Lower Culmination. The greatest elongation of the Pole Star from the meridian, varies with the latitude of the place: it is about  $2^{\circ} 4'$  at Toronto,  $2^{\circ} 8' .5$  at Montreal, increasing at the rate of about  $1' .5$  for every degree of latitude between  $40^{\circ}$  and  $50^{\circ}$ . To find the hour when it is on the meridian at any other date, multiply  $3m\ 55^s\ 9s$  by the interval in days, —add the product, if for a date before the 15th; subtract it, if for a date after the 15th.

TWILIGHT begins in the morning, when the Sun is about eighteen degrees below the horizon, and ends in the evening, when it is eighteen degrees beyond it. The mean time of beginning and ending for every tenth day will be found at page 4, together with the time of the Sun's rising and setting at Quebec, Fredericton and Halifax.

SEMI-DIURNAL ARCS.—This table is useful for determining the times of rising and setting of the heavenly bodies. Enter the table with the declination of the object: under the proper column for the locality will be found half the time which the object remains above the horizon, which is to be subtracted from the time of its meridian passage, if the time of rising is required, or added, for the time of setting.

Example.—Required the time of rising for the Planet Jupiter, at Montreal, June 16th, 1850, Declination of Jupiter  $7^{\circ}$ .

METEOROLOGICAL.—On the first page of each month is given the approximate mean values of each of the principal Meteorological elements for Toronto, Upper Canada, and Greenwich, England. To which are added certain values for Montreal, Lower Canada.

The first Meteorological Observations that were published in Upper Canada were made "by an ingenious gentleman of this city" (York, now Toronto,) in 1801, and are to be found in the Upper Canada Gazette or American Oracle for that and the following year. Although extremely imperfect, it may be interesting to refer to them, for the purpose of discovering, whether, so far as a single year is any criterion, they shew any material change to have taken place in the climate in the space of nearly half a century. The thermometer was observed at sunrise, noon, and sunset, taking the means and reducing them approximately to the true means for 24 hours. The following are the results:

(a) a Southern exposure. (b) Northern exposure in March and following months.

Omitting January and February, in which months the Thermometer had a Southern exposure, the mean is still  $2^{\circ} .4$  higher than that given by the recent observations, but no safe conclusions can be drawn from observations in which the precautions essential to accuracy were probably never known or regarded.

The data for Toronto given in the Almanac for each month are derived from the Records of Her Majesty's Magnetical Observatory, for nine years, 1840—1848 inclusive, by permission of the Director, and are the means by observations made every two hours, from 1st January, 1840 to 30th June, 1842, and every hour from 1st July, 1842 to 31st December, 1847. The data for Greenwich, are derived from the Records of the Royal Observatory for seven years, 1841 to 1847, and are the means by observations made every two hours. It should be remarked that the quantity of rain which falls at Greenwich, appears to be less than the average for all England. The average at sixteen stations in 1845, was 31.6 inches; at Toronto the average is about 34 inches. The mean temperature for Montreal is derived from the Registers published monthly in the British American Journal of Medical and Physical Science, for four years, 1845-1848; but as the means there given, are derived from observations at 7 A. M., and 6 P. M., only, they are higher than true means, to an amount which is different for every month of the year; the appropriate correction for this difference has been here applied.

We would gladly extend the interest of the Meteorological Table, by adding the particulars for Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and the Island of Newfoundland, if in possession of authentic materials.

Variation of the Compass.

From the Records of H. M. Magnetic Observatory.

The mean variation at Toronto, for the year 1845, was 19° 34' west (nearly); it increases at an average, about 2, every year. The variation undergoes a daily change, being least from 7 to 8 A. M., and greatest from 1 to 2 P. M. The difference between the values at 8 A. M., and 2 P. M. in the several months, by the average of eight years (1840 to 1847), is as follows:—

January.....	5.4
February.....	5.8
March.....	9.6
April.....	10.5
May.....	11.3
June.....	12.0
July.....	12.3
August.....	13.2
September.....	9.0
October.....	7.0
November.....	6.1
December.....	4.4

The variation is least liable to fluctuations in the afternoon; it is nearer its mean value at 10 A. M., and 6 to 7 P. M. Inclination or Dip of the Needle at Toronto,

ABSTRACTS OF LATE PROVINCIAL ACTS.

Public Schools, Upper Canada.

Act 12, vic. cap. 83, comes in force on 1st January, 1850, and repeals all former Common School Acts. The office of Superintendent of Schools for Upper Canada is continued, that of District Superintendents abolished, and Township, Town, and City Superintendents substituted, who are to be appointed by the several local councils. The present District Superintendents shall continue in the exercise of their powers, and the performance of their duties until March 1, 1850, when they shall deliver over to their successors all school papers and moneys in their possession, under penalty of twice the amount which may be involved in each case of refusal, with costs. The same person may be appointed Superintendent over different Townships, by the several Municipal Councils, to each of whom he must give security for the due performance of his duties. The present School Sections shall continue, until altered by the local municipalities. The present Trustees shall also continue, until successors are appointed. The Trustees for each Section—three in number—shall be a corporation, under the name of The School Trustees of Section number, in the Township, Town, or City of, in the County of. At the first meeting in any new School Section, the resident landholders and householders present, shall elect three Trustees, who shall continue in office till the second Tuesday in January following. One of the Trustees shall retire annually, and on the second Tuesday of January in each year, a meeting shall be held in each School Section, when a Trustee shall be chosen by the landholders and householders present, in place of the one who retires. A retiring Trustee, if willing, may be re-elected, but no Trustee shall be re-elected, except by his own consent, during the four years next after his going out of office. A penalty of £5 is imposed on any Trustee for refusing to serve or to do his duty. In the case of a new School Section, the meeting for the election of Trustees, shall be called by persons to be appointed for the purpose, by the Council of the Municipality, who shall, within twenty days of their appointment, give notice, describing the Section, and appointing the time and place for the meeting. The notices to be posted in at least three public places in the Section, at least six days before the time of holding the meeting. The yearly meetings for the choice of Trustees, on the second Tuesday in Jan., shall be held at such place in each School Section as the majority of the Trustees shall appoint, who shall post notices of the same, in at least three places in the Section, at least six days before the time of meeting. A penalty of £2 for neglecting to give notice of meeting. Vacancies are to be filled up at a special meeting, to be called by the surviving Trustees—should there be none surviving, then the Council is to fill up the vacancies. Each Corporation of Trustees shall appoint one of themselves, to be Secretary-Treasurer. The details of the duties devolving on Councils, Superintendents, Trustees, Teachers, Boards of Education, &c., are too voluminous to be inserted here.

Municipal Corporations, U. C.

An Act was passed last Session of Parliament, (12 Vic., cap. 81,) to provide by one general law, for the erection of Municipal Corporations, and the establishment of Regulations of Police, in and for the several Counties, Cities, Towns, Townships and Villages in Upper Canada. The former Municipal Acts are repealed. The new Act is very voluminous.

I. TOWNSHIP MUNICIPALITIES, U. C.*PREPARATORY ARRANGEMENTS BY DISTRICT COUNCILS.

(§ 2.) The inhabitants of each Township, in Upper Canada, having 100 or more resident Freeholders or Householdors on the Collector's Roll shall be a Body Corporate, with the usual powers to be exercised in name of municipality.

(§ 3.) Townships having less than 100 freeholders and householders on such roll, shall be attached to some other adjacent Township in the same county, and be known as the junior township of the union thus formed, and the other as the senior Township. The united townships shall be represented in one municipality.

Unions may consist of two or more townships, as convenience may require, and shall be called "the United Townships of ——" The duty of attaching junior townships to others, devolves on the Municipal Council for each District, at a special meeting on the 2nd October, 1849, to be continued by adjournment, if necessary, till 2nd November. (§ 4.) Empowers the District Council to divide each township and union of townships into rural wards, (§ 13, five in each), for the election of Township Councillors. The ward divisions to be as nearly as practicable, equal, with respect to numbers, regard being also paid to convenience and compactness. (§ 5.) The District Council also to appoint in each ward, a convenient place for holding the election and a fit and proper person to hold the first. (§ 6.) By-Laws when passed by District Councils, for the foregoing objects, to be published at least twice in the Official Gazette, and four times in some newspaper in the county. Copies, moreover, to be posted up in the four most public places in each township in the county. (§ 7.) A copy to be also furnished each Returning Officer, a month prior to the election. Any Returning Officer appointed, and failing to hold the election, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than £10.

ARRANGEMENTS BY TOWNSHIP MUNICIPALITIES.

(§ 11.) Whenever the number of resident freeholders and householders in any junior township shall, according to the Collector's Roll, reach 100, the Municipal Council of the county, may, within the first nine months of the following year, divide such township into rural wards, fix the place for holding the first election of Councillors therein, and appoint Returning Officers for the same. (§ 12.) Such junior township, from 1st January in the year next but one, after the requisite increase appears on the Roll, shall be incorporated by itself.

AS TO SENIOR OR REMAINING TOWNSHIPS.

(§ 13.) In case of such increase, the municipality of the Union to which such junior township belongs, may within the first nine months of the following year, divide the senior or remaining township or townships, anew, into rural wards, fix the place for the first election of Councillors in each of them, after the dissolution of such union, and appoint Returning Officers for holding the same.

(§ 14.) Should the Township Municipality fail to comply with these requirements, and the Senior or remaining Township or Townships, after the dissolution of the Union, be thus left without the requisite number of wards, then the election of Councillors shall be made by general vote of the qualified Freeholders and Householdors of the whole of such Senior Township, in general meeting, and not by rural wards, until redified by the Municipality.

JUNIOR TOWNSHIPS,—WHEN INCORPORATED.

(§ 16.) * A Junior Township having fifty resident Freeholders and Householdors on the Collector's Roll, shall, for the year following the making up such roll, and thenceforth, be incorporated by itself.

INCORPORATED CITIES, TOWNS, AND VILLAGES.

(§ 17.) No part of any Incorporated City or Liberties, Town, or Village, although lying within the boundaries of a Township, shall, for the purposes of this act, form part of such Township; and no election of Township Councillors shall be held within their limits.

AS TO PRESENT OFFICERS.

(§ 18.) Existing officers in Townships, to continue in office, without exception, until the fourth Monday in January, 1850, and until their successors shall be elected and sworn.

* This clause is at variance with sec. 111 & 12.

WHEN TOWNSHIP NOT DIVIDED INTO WARDS.

(§ 19.) Failing the division of any Township into Wards, by the District Council; then, and until it is so divided by the Township Municipality, the election of Councillors shall be by the votes of the electors of the whole Township, in general meeting, at the place where the last Annual Township Meeting was held; provided it was not within the limits or liberties of any City, Town, or Incorporated Village, in which case the District Council, at its special meeting, must appoint some other place for holding it. (§ 20.) In all such cases the Township Clerk shall be the Returning Officer.

ELECTION OF COUNCILLORS.—WHEN HELD.

(§ 21.) Commencing in 1830, an Election shall be held, on the first Monday in January in each year, either by general Township Meeting, or by Wards, for Township Councillors, for each Township in Upper Canada.

QUALIFICATION OF VOTERS AND COUNCILLORS.*

(§ 22.) The Township Collector shall produce, at the opening of such Township or Ward Election, a fair copy of his Roll, duly verified, so far as it contains the names of the Freeholders and Householders of the Township or Wards respectively, and the amount of the assessed value of real property, for which they are severally assessed. Those whose names are upon the copy of the Roll, and who are then resident in the Township or Ward, as the case may be, shall be entitled to vote at the election. The holder or occupier of any separate portion of a house, having a distinct communication with a road or street, by an outer door, and assessed therefor, shall be deemed a householder. Should the meeting not be then held, it shall take place on some subsequent day. The Clerk or Councillor shall notify the members of the Municipality of it. The Councillors, so assembled, shall elect from amongst themselves, a Townreeve, and in Townships which shall have 500 resident Freeholders and Householders on the Collector's Roll, a Deputy Townreeve, for the year.

ADJOURNMENT.—PLACE.—PRESIDING OFFICER.

(§ 30.) Provides for the permanent establishment of boundaries of Townships, under the authority of the Act 38 Geo. 3, or of any other Act to be passed for that purpose, upon the application of the Municipality of each Township, or as such other Act may direct, and not upon that of the Quarter Sessions.

All Corporations existing immediately previous to 1st January, 1850, their members, officers and servants, shall continue until the fourth Monday of the same month, notwithstanding this Act.

OLD QUALIFICATION OF VOTERS AND COUNCILLORS CONTINUED AT PRESENT.

(§ 208.) That no provision in the foregoing enactments of this Act which requires that any person be possessed of any property qualification, or be assessed for any particular amount, in order to his having a right to vote, or to be elected at any election to be held under the authority of this act, shall have any force or effect, unless or until some Act be passed by the parliament of this province in the present or some future session thereof, to provide for the regulation of assessments, and the levying and collecting of local taxes in Upper Canada, and to repeal the general provisions of the acts heretofore in force for that purpose, but all such persons as have heretofore had the right to vote or to be elected at the annual elections of parish and township officers, for the several Townships in Upper Canada, shall have the right of voting and being elected for the Township and Village Councillors to be elected under this act, and such persons as have heretofore had a right to vote or be elected at the municipal elections of any city, town or village heretofore incorporated, or having a Board of Police established by law for the same shall have the right of voting and being elected for the city, town or village, aldermen and councillors to be elected under this act for such city, town or village respectively; and the persons entitled to vote or be elected at the municipal elections of every town and village not incorporated as aforesaid, before the passing of this act, shall be the resident male inhabitants, being either householders or freeholders of such town or village, of the age of twenty-one years or upwards, being subjects of Her Majesty by birth or naturalization, and who shall have resided in such town or village for six calendar months next previous to the holding of the said election, and who shall have been rated on the assessment roll of the said town or village as householders or freeholders for the year previous to such election. Provided also, that where the system of the registration of votes exists at the passing of this act in any city or town, the same shall continue under the act or acts providing such registration, until altered by any act as aforesaid: and provided also, that whether any such new act for regulating assessments in Upper Canada, shall or shall not be passed prior to this act coming into force, the persons hereinbefore described as entitled to elect, and be elected under this act (until such new assessment law shall have passed as aforesaid) shall be those entitled to elect and be elected respectively, at the first elections to be held under this act.

All acts, and parts of acts and provisions of law inconsistent with this act are repealed.

County Divisions, U. C.

By an Act passed in 1849, known as the "County Division Substitution Act," and by two other Acts then passed, to divide the District of Huron, and to supply certain Legislative provisions, not included in certain other Acts, the old territorial division of Upper Canada, into Districts, is abolished, and that of Counties substituted, for judicial, municipal, and all other purposes. They provide for temporary unions of certain counties, for all purposes, except Representation in Parliament, and the Registration of Titles; and they also provide for the future dissolution of such Unions as the increase of wealth and population, may from time to time require. These Acts come into operation on 1st January, 1850.

COUNTY COURTS, &c.

§ 3. The Courts, Court-Houses, and Gaols, Grammar Schools, and all offices and officers, heretofore appertaining to Districts, shall henceforward be denominated as appertaining to the several Counties; and all laws applicable to Districts, shall in future apply to Counties.

WHERE HELD.

§ 4. The Courts of Assize, and Nisi Prius, and Oyer and Terminer, Gaol Delivery, Sessions of the Peace, and District Courts, shall henceforth be held in and for the Counties, as they have been heretofore held for the several Districts, and the name "County" shall be used in designating them, and also in all legal proceedings, where "District" was formerly used.

UNIONS OF COUNTIES.

§ 5. For Judicial, Municipal, and all other purposes, except representation in the Provincial Parliament, and Registration of Titles, the following Counties are formed into Unions, under the name of the United Counties of—

1. Essex, Kent and Lambton.
2. Frontenac, Lenox and Addington.
3. Lanark and Renfrew.
4. Leeds and Grenville.
5. Lincoln, Haldimand and Welland.
6. Northumberland and Durham.
7. Prescott and Russell.
8. Stormont, Dundas and Glengary.
9. Wentworth and Halton.
10. Huron, Perth and Bruce.

These Counties, so long as they shall continue united, shall have all Courts, Offices and Institutions, formerly pertaining to Districts, in common between them, with the exception of Representation and Registration.

HALDIMAND COUNTY.

There are, moreover, these further temporary exceptions to be noted, viz.—(§. 25 and 26.) that for judicial purposes only, the Townships of Onetida and Seneca, in the County of Haldimand, shall remain attached to, and form part of the County of Wentworth; and the Townships of Rainham and Walpole, in the County of Haldimand, shall remain attached to, and form part of the County of Norfolk, so long as the County of Haldimand shall remain united to the County of Lincoln, and no longer.

PERTH AND WATERLOO.

In the general act the township of Mornington is set down as part of Waterloo County, and in the act to divide Huron, it is set down as part of the county of Perth. It is difficult to determine to which of them it shall in the meantime belong.

COUNTY PROPERTY.

§ 6. The county property of such united counties, while the union lasts, shall be the common property of such union.

THE VENUE.

§ 7. In judicial proceedings, with respect to united counties, the venue shall be laid in the particular county to which it shall specially apply, describing it as one of the united counties of — and — (inserting them); and for the trial of the cause, the jury shall be summoned from the body of the united counties, as if the same were one county.

LAWS APPLICABLE TO UNIONS.

§ 8. All laws applicable to Districts or Counties, shall apply to every union of counties, as if such union formed but one county, except as regards representation and registration.

SENIOR AND JUNIOR COUNTIES.

§ 9. In all unions, the county within the limits of which, the Court-House and Gaol are situated, shall be deemed the senior county, and the other county or counties, the junior county or counties of such union.

MODE OF SEPARATION.

§ 10. So soon as it shall appear by the census, that any junior county contains a population of 15,000 souls, the Governor, by an order in Council, upon the petition of two-thirds of the townreeves, for the time being, of such junior county, if he shall deem the circumstances such, as to call for a separate establishment of Courts, and other County Institutions, may issue a proclamation setting forth the same, naming a place for a County Town, within such junior county, and erecting the Townreeves thereof into a provisional Municipal Council therefor, until the dissolution of such union of counties. It is expressly provided, that no such petition shall be presented or acted upon, unless adopted and signed, by such two-thirds, in the month of February after their election or appointment, nor until a resolution declaratory of the expediency of presenting such petition, shall have been adopted by a majority of such Townreeves, for the time being, present at two several meetings, to be called by a like majority, for that purpose, the one to be held in February, in the year next but one preceding that in which such petition shall have been so adopted and signed, and the other in February in the year next preceding such last mentioned year. Also, that every such provisional Municipal Council, shall, from time to time, and at all times during its continuance as such, consist of the Townreeves for the several townships, villages and towns in such junior county.

KENT, LAMBTON, HALDIMAND, WELLAND AND PERTH.

The county of Kent being already provided, by a former act of the Legislature, to be set apart as a separate District, and the public buildings therein being in the course of erection, at Chatham, the County Town, it does not therefore come within the operation of the foregoing clause; and by a subsequent provision of this Act, (See Sec. 30 and 31), the Townreeves of this county form a Provisional Council, for the performance of the necessary duties, preparatory to the separation of Kent from Essex. Special provision is also made in this Act,—(See Sec. 33 and 34), exempting the counties of Haldimand and Welland, from the operation of the foregoing clause. The Townreeves of these counties respectively, are constituted a provisional Municipal Council, for each such county, with authority to proceed at once to determine the place for the county town, in their respective counties, to purchase the necessary property there, and to erect the necessary public buildings, preparatory to a separation of the united counties of Lincoln, Haldimand and Welland.

The county of Perth is also specially exempted, by the Huron Division Act, from the operation of the foregoing clause. Stratford is declared the County Town, and the Townreeves of the several townships, &c., are at once constituted a Provisional Council, for the county of Perth, to exercise all the powers vested in them by law, until the dissolution of the union of Perth with Huron and Bruce.

Similar privileges are extended to the County of Lambton, by the Act of last Session, cap. 79.

ERECTING GAOL AND COURT-HOUSE.

§ 11. Provisional Councils may purchase property, and raise money by assessment, for the erection of Court-Houses and Gaols, and for remunerating Provisional Officers. This shall in no way interfere with the powers of the Municipal Council of the union, but all monies to be raised by the Provisional Council, shall be independent of, and in addition to, any monies that may be directed to be raised, by the Municipal Council of such union.

PROVISIONAL OFFICERS.

§ 12. Provisional Council may appoint provisional Warden, Treasurer, and such other provisional officers as they may deem necessary, for performing the requisite duties.

CORPORATE POWERS.

§ 13. Provisional Council to be a Corporation, for the sole purpose only, of carrying into effect the objects of their erection.

LEVYING MONIES.

§ 14. All monies to be levied by any By-law of the Provisional Council, shall be assessed, levied and collected, by the same persons, and in the same manner, as is done by the Municipal Council of the union to which the junior county shall belong, and shall be paid over by the Collector to the Provisional Treasurer. The Collector to deduct for his trouble and responsibility,  $\frac{2}{3}$  per cent. on the sum paid.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The succeeding clauses provide among other things for the apportionment of the debt of the united counties, when a separation takes place; and for the appointment of Sheriff, Judge, and other officers, for the junior county, when set apart &c. When an union is dissolved the public property lying within the limits of the respective counties, shall belong to the particular county within which it is situated.

Road Companies, &c.

In Upper Canada, several roads and other works have been constructed by Joint Stock Companies, specially incorporated for the purpose. The advantage of the system was proved by experience, but the delay and expense incident to obtaining a special Act of Incorporation from the Legislature, for each separate Company, operated as a great discouragement to persons desirous of embarking capital in such undertakings. It was therefore deemed "expedient to encourage the construction of sawed, hewed or split plank, Macadamized or gravelled roads, and also bridges, piers, wharves, slides and dams connected therewith, in Upper Canada, by Companies who may be disposed to subscribe the necessary capital for the completion thereof," and, therefore, in 1849, an Act was passed by the Legislature, (which was introduced by the Hon. H. J. Boulton, M. P. P. for Norfolk,) to authorise the formation of Joint Stock Companies for these purposes. The mode of procedure, as laid down in the Act, is easy and convenient, as the following synopsis will show:—

HOW TO FORM COMPANY.

Any number of persons, not less than five, may form themselves into a Company. When they shall subscribe stock adequate, in their judgment, to the construction of the work to be undertaken by them, and execute an instrument of the following tenor, and pay to their Treasurer six per cent. on their stock, and register the instrument and a receipt from the Treasurer for the instalment of six per cent. paid, with the Register of the County, they shall thenceforth become a Chartered and Incorporated Company, with the usual privileges.

THE INSTRUMENT

The following is a copy of the requisite instrument:—
Be it remembered, that on this _____ day of _____, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____, we, the undersigned Stockholders, met at _____, in the County of _____, in the Province of Canada, and resolved to form ourselves into a Company, to be called (here insert the Corporate name intended to be taken by the Company,) according to the provisions of a certain Act of the Parliament of this Province, intituled, "An Act to authorize the formation of Joint Stock Companies for the construction of roads and other works in Upper Canada," for the purpose of constructing a Plank Road (or Macadamized or Gravelled Road, or both, as the case may be,) from (the commencement of the intended road) to (the termination thereof,) or a Bridge, Slide, Wharf, Pier, (or other such work as aforesaid, describing the nature, extent and situation thereof,) and we do hereby declare that the Capital Stock of the said Company shall be _____ pounds, to be divided into _____ shares, at the price or sum of five pounds each; and we, the undersigned Stockholders, do hereby agree to take and accept the number of shares set by us opposite to our respective signatures, and we do hereby agree to pay the calls thereon, according to the provisions of the said in part recited Act, and of the Rules, Regulations, Resolutions and By-laws of the said Company, to be made or passed in that behalf; and we do hereby nominate (the names to be here inserted) to be the first Directors of the said Company.

Name.	No. of Shares.	Amount.

OPPOSITION TO COMPANY.

Any twelve freeholders, resident within a mile of any line of road proposed to be made, may oppose its construction, by giving notice to the President or Chairman of any Company, or meeting convened to form such Company, of their intended opposition to the work; and no further action shall be had towards its prosecution, until after the next sitting of the Municipal Council of the locality; provided such notice shall be given before the work is commenced. The Municipal Council is empowered to hear and decide upon such opposition, by prohibiting, varying or altering the intended line of road. The Municipality is also empowered, when any new road shall be opened, or the line of an old road changed, to direct or permit the old road to be closed up, and embraced within the enclosure of the party from whom the ground shall have been taken for the new road; provided it shall not exclude any person residing in or near the old road from a convenient access to the new one.

MANAGEMENT OF COMPANY.

The affairs of each Company shall be managed by five Directors, to be annually chosen by the Stockholders, each Stockholder having a vote for each share he holds,—the share to be five pounds. A majority of Directors to be a quorum for the transaction of business. One of their number to be elected President. They shall appoint officers and servants, at their discretion, for performing necessary duties.

MAY INCREASE CAPITAL.

Should the Directors be of opinion, at any time after the formation of the Company, that the original capital will not be sufficient to complete the work, they may borrow a sufficient sum, upon the security of the Company, or they may increase the number of shares in the Company, to make up the deficiency. The Municipal body of the locality may lend money to such Companies.

RESTRICTIONS ON COMPANIES.

The length of road to be undertaken by any Company must not be less than two miles; and no road shall be made of a higher grade than one foot elevation to twenty feet along the road, without the sanction of the Chief Engineer superintending public works in the neighborhood. Companies are prevented from bringing roads through private property, or property of the Crown, without permission, except as provided by the Act. They are also restrained from going within the limits of any city, or incorporated town or village, except by special permission of the authorities; and a special prohibition is enacted against the formation of any Company to interfere with Companies already chartered; provided the stock is subscribed by such Companies, and the work is in course of being completed by them, within a year from the passing of this Act. As regards private property, the owner shall supersede a Company, should he commence the work within a year, and complete it within two years, from the time he shall be notified, that a Company has been formed for constructing it on his property. The sanction of the Governor in Council is required to permit the appropriation of Crown property to the purposes of any Company. No road or other work shall be made through any pleasure ground, garden, yard, or orchard, or materials taken therefrom, nor shall any timber be taken from any enclosed lands, without the consent of the owner.

PRIVILEGES OF COMPANIES—ARBITRATION.

Companies are empowered to explore, and take lands and materials for their undertakings, making compensation to the owners. In case of difference as to the value, or the sum to be paid, arbitrators are to decide the matter. The Company is to name one, the owner of the property a second, and these two are to choose a third. Should the proprietor neglect to appoint an arbitrator, for twenty days after being notified by the Company, or should the two arbitrators not agree upon a third, within twenty days after the appointment of the second, then the Judge of the District Court, on the application of either party, shall nominate one of the Councillors, of one of the Townships next adjacent, to be the second or third arbitrator. Should the proprietor be absent, or unknown, or the title in dispute, or the lands mortgaged, &c., the District Judge is to appoint an arbitrator. In the case of lands belonging to the Indians, the chief officer of the Indian Department is to appoint an arbitrator, and otherwise act for them. The arbitrators, in computing damages, are to pay due attention to the benefits to accrue to the party requiring compensation, by the construction of the contemplated improvement. Eight days' notice of meeting must at least be given by the arbitrators. The concurrence of a majority of them in the award is sufficient. The award shall be final, and it must specify the sum to be paid, and the costs, and on whom the costs shall fall, according to this rule:—Should the Company, before the appointment of their arbitrator, have tendered an equal or greater sum than that awarded by the arbitrators, the costs shall then fall on the owner of the property; and otherwise on the Company. The award must be registered.

TOLLS.

The Act authorises the levying of tolls, at the discretion of the President and Directors, from all persons passing and repassing with horses, carts, carriages and other vehicles, and for cattle driven upon, over and along any road, or from all persons passing over any bridge, with or without any carriages or animals, or using any work constructed, made, and used by any Company, under and by virtue of the provisions of the Act. So soon as two or more miles of a road shall be completed, tolls may be taken therefor; but on no other work shall tolls be taken, until the same shall be completed. The tolls to be levied, for each time of passing, must not exceed an aggregate sum, calculated at the rate of 13d. per mile, from the gate required to be passed, to the last gate in the direction whence the person may have come, for any vehicle drawn by two horses or other cattle; and for any vehicle drawn by more than two cattle, 3d. per mile for every additional one; for every vehicle drawn by one horse, 1d. per mile; for every score of sheep, or swine, or neat cattle, 3d. per mile; for every horse and rider, or led horse, 3d. per mile. No toll shall be exacted for merely crossing a road. Persons going to, or attending, or returning from funerals, or Divine service on the Lord's day, are not to be charged toll.

REPORT YEARLY TO THE MUNICIPALITY.

The Directors of the Company are required to report, in the month of January in each year, to the Municipality, under the oath of their Treasurer, the cost of the work, the amount of all money expended, the amount of their capital stock, and how much paid in; the whole amount of tolls expended on such work, the amount received during the year for tolls, and from all other sources, stating each separately: the amount of dividends paid, and the amount expended for repairs, and the amount of debts expended by such Company, specifying the objects for which such debts respectively were incurred. Every Company must keep regular books, to be at all times open to the inspection and examination of those who may be appointed for that purpose by the Municipality.

TO COMPLETE WORK IN TWO YEARS.

Companies formed under this Act shall be bound to complete every road, not more than five miles in length, and any other work undertaken by them, for the completion of which they shall have become incorporated, within two years from the date of their incorporation, in default of which they shall forfeit all their corporate and other powers and authority, which shall thenceforth cease and determine, unless further time be granted by a By-law of the Municipality.

MUNICIPALITIES MAY HOLD STOCK.

Municipalities may acquire stock in Companies formed under this Act, within their jurisdiction. They may also, after twenty-one years from the time of the completion of any road or other work, purchase the stock of the Companies, for the benefit of the locality.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Act contains provisions for enforcing payment of instalments of stock, by suing, or by demand, under penalty of forfeiture, within ninety days after a personal application, or notice for six successive weeks in the nearest newspaper. Also, for investing the works and materials in Companies and their successors: for the erection of toll gates: for imposing penalties on persons injuring roads, &c.; and on persons turning out of road to evade toll, or assisting others to evade tolls; and for compelling Companies to keep the roads in proper repair, under pain of forfeiture, &c. The Legislature, moreover, reserves the right to make such additions or alterations to the Act as they may think proper, for affording just protection to the public or to individuals, in respect to property that may be affected by any of the powers given by the Act to any Company.

RECOMMENDATION TO FARMERS.

The advantages conferred by the Act are very obvious. We shall merely direct the attention of the inhabitants of the rural districts to the privileges it confers on them, by enabling them to form themselves into Companies, of not less than five persons in each, for the construction of roads in the vicinity of their residences, where they can not only perform the principal part of the work themselves, but also supply materials from their lands, which will be repaid them in stock and tolls. Stock in these Companies will form an excellent Savings Bank for the farmers to invest their spare money in. The sums so invested will confer upon them great benefits, by their being employed in the improvement of the roads in the vicinity of their residences, and by producing a yearly return, in the shape of a handsome dividend arising from the tolls. 'This is surely far preferable to the money being allowed to lie idle and unproductive in the farmers' trunks. It will be observed that the Act is not confined to the improvement of the ordinary public highways, but that it contemplates the opening of new roads, wherever necessary, irrespective of the roads usually laid out by the authority of Government, and which are known as concessions, side lines, town lines, &c. The necessity for such new roads, in any direction, is to be decided by the inhabitants of the locality.

Inspection of Butter in Quebec and Montreal.

Dairy husbandry must increase with the growth of the country, and embrace no inconsiderable part of the profitable labor of the farm in Canada. A ready market for the produce of the dairy will have its effect in encouraging the extension of that branch of rural industry and economy; and proper care must be taken in the preparation of the article, so as to render it worthy the attention of dealers, for exportation as well as for local consumption. We shall therefore furnish a brief sketch of the requirements of the existing law, "To regulate the packing of Butter, and to provide for the inspection of the same at the Ports of Quebec and Montreal, such inspection being nevertheless optional with the parties interested." The Act from which we quote was passed by the Provincial Legislature in 1842, and it shall remain in force until 1st May, 1850, and thence until the end of the then next session of Parliament. The probability is that it will be then renewed. It provides for the appointment of sworn Inspectors of Butter, at Quebec and Montreal. It also establishes regulations for branding and packing, and prescribes the descriptions of casks to be used, as well as the mode of inspection, &c. The following are the clauses of the Act regulating these important points:—

VI. And be it enacted, That upon, from, and after the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, no Inspector of Butter shall brand, mark or certify any Butter as inspected, unless it be packed in the manner hereinafter required: but that upon, from, and after the said day, any Butter not so packed, which shall be submitted for inspection, shall, by the Inspector to whom it shall be submitted, be repacked in the manner hereby required, and the Inspector shall receive the actual cost of such new packages as may be required for such repacking, and the further sum of three pence for each firkin or keg of Butter so repacked, as compensation for his time and labor; and all Butter branded, marked or certified as inspected, shall be packed in firkins or kegs, made of the best seasoned white ash timber, and each bound with at least twelve wooden hoops, and being of the following sizes and dimensions, that is to say: the firkin to contain as nearly as possible fifty-six pounds of Butter, the length of the staves from eroc to eroc, to be fourteen inches and a half, the diameter of the head to be eleven inches and a half, the thickness of the staves to be, as nearly as may be, three-quarters of an inch, and the thickness of the head, as near as may be, half an inch, the package to weigh as nearly as possible, but in no case to exceed ten pounds when dry; the keg to contain, as nearly as possible, eighty-four pounds of Butter, the length of the stave, from eroc to eroc, to be seventeen inches, the diameter of the head to be thirteen inches, the thickness of the staves to be, as nearly as may be, three-quarters of an inch, and of the head, as nearly as may be, half an inch, and the package to weigh, as nearly as possible, but in no case to exceed thirteen pounds when dry; and the weight of each package shall be branded on the outside of the firkin or keg, at the centre of the stave or bilge, with the name of the maker thereof, under a penalty of five shillings currency per package, upon any cooper who shall contravene the requirements of this Act, as aforesaid: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall apply to any packages other than those containing Butter submitted for inspection.

VII. And be it enacted, That in inspecting Butter, the Inspector shall take out the head of each firkin or keg, and shall pass the taster through the Butter, from end to end, and shall empty out and throw aside all salt or pickle which, in his judgment, shall not be necessary to the preservation of the Butter, and after he shall have ascertained the quality of the Butter, he shall replace so much thereof as he may have taken out, and if there shall in his judgment be a deficiency of loose salt, so that he shall think the preservation and condition of the Butter would be promoted by an additional quantity of salt, he shall add such quantity: he shall then have the package securely headed and coopered, and shall scribe or brand on the head of the package the gross weight thereof in pounds avoirdupois, excluding fractional parts of a pound, and the tare which shall include one pound weight for each firkin, and two pounds weight for each keg, for soakage over and above the cooper's tare: and he shall then brand on the head his own name, the month, year and place of inspection, and the quality of the Butter as "First," "Second," "Third" or "Fourth," or as "Grease," according to the quality of the Butter, and adopting the standard of quality and system of classification in use in that portion of the United Kingdom called Ireland; first, removing all such marks (the distinguishing mark of the owner of the Butter excepted) on the package as may interfere with the brands or marks of the Inspector.

VIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be further the duty of each of the said Inspectors to provide himself with suitable and convenient premises for the storage and inspection of Butter, and to keep all packages of Butter delivered to him for inspection, while they remain in his possession, in some place safe from the injuries of the weather or of floods, and under a tight roof; and any Inspector contravening this provision, shall forfeit and pay to the owner the sum of five shillings, currency, for every package not stored as aforesaid, besides the actual damages that may be sustained by such owner.

IX. And be it enacted, That for all the services to be performed as aforesaid, including unheading, weighing, salting, heading, tightening hoops, marking and branding, and ten days' storage, each Inspector shall be entitled to receive six pence, currency, of this Province, for every package of Butter by him inspected as aforesaid,—and if reinspected, four pence, together with the actual cost or charge of any package by him furnished, or for extra cooperage or repairs done to packages containing Butter by him inspected, and no more: the charge for which said extra cooperage and repairs shall not in any case exceed three pence per package; and in consideration of which all packages shall be delivered in good shipping order, and such charges shall be paid by the person or persons offering such Butter for inspection, or his or their Agents; and each Inspector shall further be entitled to receive one penny half-penny currency, per month, per firkin, and one penny per keg, per month, for the storage of each package of Butter, which shall remain stored with him as aforesaid more than ten days after the date of the Invoice, Weigh-Note or Inspection Bill, and such storage shall be paid by the person or persons receiving or shipping the said Butter, his or their Agent; but in no case shall any storage be paid or required when the Butter shall not have remained stored as aforesaid during ten days from the date of the Inspection Bill; and all the charges of inspection and storage shall be payable before the Butter shall be re-delivered by the Inspector; and the Inspector shall furnish a Bill of Inspection signed by him, and specifying neatly and legibly the quantity and quality of the Butter, the charges thereon, and the owner's name.

XV. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall counterfeit any of the aforesaid marks or brands of any Inspector of Butter, or shall impress or brand the same knowing the same to be counterfeit, on any package or packages of Butter, or any other mark or marks purporting to be the mark or marks of the Inspector or of any Manufacturer of Butter, either with the proper marking tools of such Inspector or Manufacturer, or with counterfeit representations thereof, or shall empty any package or packages of Butter marked or branded as aforesaid by an Inspector or Manufacturer in order to put therein other Butter for sale or exportation, without first cutting out the said brand-marks, or shall fraudulently pack therein any other substance than the Butter packed in the same by the Inspector or Manufacturer, and if any person in the employ of any Inspector or Manufacturer of Butter, shall hire or loan out the marks of his employer to any person whatsoever, or shall connive at or be privy to any fraudulent evasion of the provisions of this Act, such person or persons shall for every such offence, incur a penalty of fifty pounds, current money of this Province.

Preserving Butter in Switzerland.

"The pastoral life of the Swiss peasantry forces itself strongly on the attention of the Alpine traveller, from the numerous herds of cattle which he meets with on every pasturage in the mountains, and from the frequent Dairy-Chalets or Sennhutte, with their plentiful produce, which greet him in the loneliest spots. The great staples of Swiss pastoral wealth are cows and the produce of the dairy. Sheep are comparatively rare; and even goats are seen in a proportion very inferior to that of cows.

"Although some of the great mountain dairies and herds that supply them, are the property of one or more individuals, by far the most common source of such establishments, is the union of smaller properties of any particular hamlet or parish into one, with the view of economising labour; a large portion of the Alps or mountain pasturages being common lands appertaining to the commune or parish. One or more cowherds is appointed and paid in common; and the dairy staff, proportioned to the extent of the flock, is constituted in like manner. All the milk is kept in common, as well as the butter and cheese produced from it; the apportioning of their share to the individual proprietors, being regulated by the award of the inspectors appointed by the body of proprietors or by the commune.—These inspectors attend the milkings occasionally, so as to ascertain the exact average produce of each individual cow; and a division of the butter, proportioned to the number of cows and their respective amount of milk, is made at the end of the season.

"It is a singular fact, and one I could not bring myself to believe, until I had it confirmed to me by repeated testimony, that the whole of the butter produced in one of these Alpine pastures, is preserved sweet, or least, perfectly fit for use, through the whole season, without any admixture of salt. The following is the way in which it is treated:—A narrow deal board, not more than four or five inches wide, is fixed horizontally in an open place in the dairy of the chalet; wooden pins, from two three feet in length, are fixed in an upright position into this, their whole length projecting above its surface. As the butter is made it is placed daily round these pins (one at a time), beginning at their lower end, and in a mass not exceeding at first the width of the board. Every day as more butter is made it is added to the previous portion around the pin, the diameter of the growing mass being gradually enlarged upwards, until the upper surface overhangs the base to a considerable extent, like an inverted bee-hive. When one pin is filled, another is proceeded with in like manner, and so on. The exposed surface of these masses gets soon covered with a sort of hard film, which effectually excludes the access of the air; and this circumstance with two others, viz., the complete expression of milk from the butter, and the unobstructed circulation of a cool mountain air through the chalet—will go far to explain how the butter so treated can remain so long without being spoiled.

"I should like this experiment to be tried in some of our English dairies. The Swiss manipulators had no doubt of the trial succeeding, provided all the above-mentioned requisites of complete expression of the milk, a low temperature, and a free circulation of air were obtained.

"It is very probable, that if the butter thus preserved, from June or July to October, were then made use of as the supply of the daily breakfast, it might not be found exactly good, according to our acception of the term, as applied to so delicate an article of diet; yet there can be no doubt that butter so treated is preserved from all putrescency; and it is from it that the whole winter store of the inhabitants of Switzerland is obtained.

"The mode of preparing this winter store of butter seems to me much more important; and I will here describe it in detail, as I believe it is little known in England, and ought to be more so. I refer to what is called in the Vallais and in Piedmont boiled butter (beurre cuit), the form in which this article of diet is universally used, at least for all purposes of cookery.

"In looking at the horrid compound sold in England as salt butter, at least the cheaper sorts of it used by the poorer classes, I cannot but believe that its supercession by the boiled butter of Switzerland would be advantageous to the comfort and health of a large proportion of our countrymen. It can hardly be believed that such an offensive, briny, and semi-putrid mass as the cheaper sorts of our salt butter, can be without serious detriment to the health of the customers, any more than the salted meat formerly issued to our seamen was so. The only difference in the two cases, is the comparative quantity consumed in each case: in itself, I am disposed to regard the rancid butter as the more unwholesome of the two. The boiled butter, while infinitely more palatable, is neither saline nor rancid, and, consequently, is calculated to be more easily digested, and to produce a more wholesome material for absorption into the system.

"I give the receipt for the process of making the boiled butter in the words I took it down from the mouth of my guide, from the valley of Entremont, with the addition of some little variations in the process, as I obtained them from others learned in the same art.

"Formula—Into a clean copper pan, (better no doubt tinned), put any quantity of butter, say from twenty to forty pounds, and place it over a very gentle fire, so that it may melt slowly; and let the heat be so graduated, that the melted mass does not come to the boil in less than about two hours. During all this time the butter must be frequently stirred, say once in five or ten minutes, so that the whole mass may be thoroughly intermixed, and the top and bottom change places from time to time. When the melted mass boils, the fire is to be so regulated as to keep the butter at a gentle boil for about two hours more, the stirring being still continued, but not so necessarily so frequently as before. The vessel is then to be removed from the fire, and set aside to cool and settle, still gradually; this process of cooling being supposed also to require about two hours. The melted mass is then, while still quite liquid, to be carefully poured into the crock or jar in which it is to be kept.—In the process of cooling, there is deposited a whitish cheesy sediment proportioned to the quantity of the butter, which is to be carefully prevented from intermixture with the preserved butter. These casous grounds are very palatable and nutrient, and are constantly used as food.

"As might be expected, there are some variations in the process in the practice of different individuals. One very experienced man assured me that a much shorter time than two hours need elapse between the setting the vessel on the fire, and the period of bringing the butter to the boiling point. Another said that the time should bear some relation to the quantity of materials used, an average period of ten minutes being allowed for every pound. The same party told me that if the butter employed was not quite sweet, the addition of a slice of bread and a slice of onion will remove this: and also that the appearance of the grounds rising up to the top when the mass is stirred, is itself a proof that the coction is sufficient. My guide at Chamounix told me that his wife usually added a small portion of salt to the mass, in the early stage of the boiling.

"Every one agreed in asserting that butter so preserved will last for years perfectly good, without any particular precautions being taken to keep it from the air, or without the slightest addition of salt. Indeed I myself tasted more than once butter so prepared, full twelve months after preparation, and found it without the slightest taint. It wanted the flavor of fresh butter, but seemed to me infinitely more palatable than our coarse salt butter; this boiled butter, however, is not commonly used even in Switzerland as a condiment with bread, as fresh butter is, but merely as an article in cookery, for which purpose it is said to be even better than perfectly recent butter. I saw at the Hotel d'Angleterre, in Chamounix, the very jar out of which all the butter used in the kitchen was taken; and certainly it would not be easy to find more delicate cookery than we have met with."

[The foregoing is an extract, from a recent work published in England, by Dr. Forbes, formerly of Chichester, called "A Physician's Holiday, or a month in Switzerland." The Doctor's recommendation, to try the experiment in the English Dairies, we would extend to Canada, and for that reason, we have transferred the foregoing extract to the Canadian Almanac, trusting that it may be of service here.]

Public Lands, Free Grants, Scrip, &c.

An Act of the Legislature of Canada, passed 30th May, 1849, contains important provisions relative to the management and disposal of the Public Lands.

LOCATION TICKETS.

§ 2 & 3.—The receipt to the purchaser of any land from the Crown, including Clergy Reserves, Crown Reserves, or School Lands, and also the Location Tickets, or Licences of occupation, shall bear date on the day on which they shall be respectively signed, and entitle the parties to take immediate possession, and maintain suits in law or equity, against any wrongful possessor or trespasser.

SCRIP.

§ 4. That all claims to scrip or land, whether of minors or others, and whether founded upon Orders in Council or other regulations, shall be established to the satisfaction of the Governor in Council, within one year after the passing of this Act, or in default thereof they shall be forever forfeited: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Governor of this Province, by and with the advice of His Executive Council, to receive and satisfy the claims of such person or persons who being entitled to Lands were prevented from receiving Scrip for the same, by reason of such claims not having been presented to the Government prior to the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, if such applications be made within nine months after the passing of this Act: Provided also, that the Lands purchased from the Indians, and known as the "Huron Tract," shall not hereafter be granted to claimants nor sold for Scrip, but that the same shall be withheld from sale, until the provisions of the Act passed during the present session, appropriating one million of acres of land to Common School purposes, shall have been complied with so far as relates to the setting apart of the said million of acres.

PAST DUE FEES, OR SETTLEMENT DUTIES.

§ 5. That all lands upon the grant of which fees were payable, and which fees are now due, or upon which settlement duties remain to be performed or the performance of such settlement duties to be proved, shall be forfeited at the end of two years from the passing of this Act, unless such fees shall be duly paid, and such settlement duties duly performed, and the performance thereof proved to the satisfaction of the Governor in Council within the said period: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall be held to apply to free grants of fifty acres, made upon the lines of public roads, as provided by the twenty-sixth section of the Act hereby amended. [4 & 5 Vic., cap. 100, passed 1841.]

LOCAL AGENTS, &c.

§ 6. The Governor may appoint Local Agents, from time to time, for the sale of Public Lands, and make regulations for their guidance, and "such alterations in the Crown Lands Department, as may be deemed necessary and expedient, for the better and more efficient management thereof."

TO CORRECT ERRORS IN PATENTS.

§ 7. That whenever a Patent shall have been erroneously issued in consequence of any clerical error, incorrect return of an Agent, or wrong description of the land thereby granted or intended to be granted, it shall and may be lawful for the Governor in Council, upon the Report of the Commissioner of Crown Lands thereon (there being no adverse claim), to direct the defective Patent to be cancelled, and a correct one to be issued in its stead, which said corrected Patent shall relate back to the date of the one so cancelled, and be construed to have the same legal effect as it would have had, had it borne the same date as such cancelled Patent.

ASSIGNMENTS OF LOCATION TICKETS.

§ 8. Provides for the Registration of Assignments of Location Tickets, in the Crown Lands Department, which when registered, shall be valid against any of previous date, not registered, except in cases of express notice. All assignments shall be unconditional, and when produced to the Commissioner of Crown Lands, they shall be accompanied by an affidavit of their due execution, sworn before any Justice of the Peace, which shall duly express the time of their execution. In Lower Canada, assignments executed before Notaries, or before one Notary and two witnesses, shall be sufficient: and in Upper Canada, Commissioners for taking affidavits in the Queen's Bench, shall have the same authority in administering oaths, in matters relating to the Crown, Clergy, and School Lands, as is now exercised by Justices of the Peace. In case of the decease or absence from the Province, of the subscribing witnesses to assignments, affidavit of the fact, and proof of their handwriting, shall be sufficient evidence to authorize the registration of the assignment by the Commissioner of Crown Lands. The Crown Patent Deeds for the Lands, shall be issued to the Assignees.

FORFEITURE OF LANDS FOR ARREARS.

§ 9. That it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Crown Lands, as soon after the passing of this Act as circumstances will permit or render expedient, to cause to be prepared lists of any of the Public Lands under his management already sold or leased, or which may hereafter be sold or leased, and upon which arrears of one or more instalments or of one or more years' rent have already or may hereafter accrue, and to direct sales to be made thereof on any specific day to be named, after a notice of not less than thirty days, and one publication at least in the Canada Gazette and a local or District newspaper, published in the County or District in which such lands shall be situated and when no newspaper shall be published in such County or District, then such publication shall be made in a newspaper in the District or County next adjoining.

CONDITIONS OF SALE WHEN ARREARS HAVE ACCRUED.

§ 10. That it shall be the duty of the said Commissioner before publishing any such list, to submit the same for the consideration and approval of the Governor in Council, who shall establish the price and conditions upon which the said lands shall be offered: and lots which shall not meet with purchasers at the upset price on the first day of sale, shall thereafter become disposable by the local Agent, in the same manner as other advertised lands, subject to such modification of price and terms as may from time to time be deemed proper by the Governor in Council, to the first applicant who complies with the conditions required, the first lottee excepted, who shall in no case be allowed to re-purchase at private sale unless paying up the whole of the arrears due with interest up the date of such sale.

INDULGENCE TO LOCATEES TO STOP SALES.

§ 11. That no sale shall be made under the provisions of this Act, until after the expiration of six calendar months from the passing thereof: and provided further, that if the original locatee or purchaser of any lot so advertised for sale, shall at any time before the day of sale pay one of the instalments due on the said lot with interest accrued thereon, then it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Crown Lands to withdraw the said lot from the intended sale; and the said original locatee or purchaser shall be held to comply with the conditions of his purchase or lease so long as he continues to pay yearly one of the instalments due with interest, or three years' rent or interest for lots on lease or on quit rent, otherwise the lot shall again be liable to be sold as aforesaid, for the remaining instalments due.

FIELD NOTES OF TOWNSHIPS.

§ 12 & 13. The Commissioner of Crown Lands is required with all convenient speed, to deposit in the Register Office of each County in Canada, a copy of the Field Notes of the original surveys of each Township in such county; and a certified copy by the County Registrar shall be received in all Courts of the Province, as prima facie evidence, without the production of the originals, or of the copies deposited with the Registrar.

Upper Canada. The population of the several Counties, we have given separately, in another Table.—(See p. 24.)

* Included in Home District. † In the detail, the number is 723,332, shewing a difference of 40.

Note.—The blanks in the foregoing table, arise from the circumstance, that the Districts in which they occur, were not set apart as separate Districts at these periods; and the population appertaining to them respectively, is included in that of the different Districts, of which they then severally formed a part. The Districts to which we refer were severally formed as follows, viz:

Brock, from a portion of London.
Colborne, from a portion of Newcastle.
Dalhousie, from parts of Bathurst, Johnstown, and Ottawa.
Huron, from a portion of London.

Prince Edward, from a portion of Midland.
Simcoe, from a portion of Home.
Talbot, from a portion of London.
Victoria, from a portion of Midland.
Wellington, from parts of Gore and Home (now Simcoe).

* There is a deficiency in this Table of 5,495, as compared with the gross sum of the Census, which has arisen chiefly from the Township of Dumfries, in the Gore District, not having made any return.

† These returns, for 1848, are exclusive of the Township of Dumfries, in the Gore District, and the whole of the Western District. The return for Brockville is also imperfect; and there are no returns, under these heads, from Brantford and Dundas.

§ The returns for the Western District, for 1842, are taken, with 10 per cent. added to the columns of servants, colored persons, and children.

NATIONAL ORIGIN OF INHABITANTS.

Taking the two enumerations, we find the whole per centage of the population to be made up as follows:

	1842.	1848.
England .....	8.85	8.99
Ireland .....	17.92	19.63
Scotland .....	8.65	8.03
Canada, French .....	3.65	2.85
Canada, British .....	53.86	53.36
Continent of Europe .....	1.43	2.63
United States .....	7.14	4.54
	100.00	100.00

We find the greatest increase to have been amongst the Irish and German inhabitants, while the great decrease has been in those from the United States:

The increase % of English during 7 years, was	50.10
“ Irish, “	70.04
“ Scotch, “	37.01
“ Canadians, F. “	38.75
“ Canadians, B. “	46.31
“ Other Countries “	170.90

The decrease % of United States, “ 6.63
While taking the census by ages of 1848, it will be 51.10
Increase on whole population according to origin 47.68

The above comparisons show the equable rate of increase of the different nations, as regards the whole Population, and the varying increase with regard to the separate classes; the increase of Germans and Dutch has been very great, while the decrease in natives of the United States is rather singular, when it is known that large numbers come annually from the Union into Canada, the inference is that no influx of native Americans takes place.

RELIGIOUS CENSUS.

It is quite impossible to get anything like a correct Religious census of Upper Canada, because the numbers of various denominations are so many, and such sectional jealousies exist, that the exclusion of any class from the census rolls, causes dissatisfaction, and to include all would have the effect of swelling the rolls to an enormous extent; consequently in this census, a large deficiency must occur. In 1842, the deficiency amounted to 80000 or one-sixth of the whole population, while in 1848, it is 25,000, or about 1-20th of the whole; in addition to the actual deficiency in 1848, we find no less than 600000 classed under the head of “No Creed or Denomination,” a circumstance which of itself is sufficient to render this branch of the census perfectly useless for any practical purpose, nor would it be attended with any beneficial result to institute a comparison between the denominations given in both years.

CENSUS BY AGES.

This branch of statistical information is looked upon in all countries as of primary importance; it indicates in a great degree the social character of a people, and with us it may form, after the lapse of a few periods, a satisfactory basis on which to rest a calculation as to the comparative increase by births within the Province and by immigration.

In 1842, we find the Males under 11 were 23.71 per cent of the Population.

“ Females “	22.34	“
In 1848, “ Males “	23.04	“
“ Females “	21.57	“

The total number of Males in 1842 were 259914
“ “ “ 1848 357631

Increase ..... 127717 or 49.11 [Pct.

The Females in 1842 were ..... 226111
“ “ “ 1848 ..... 333248

Increase ..... 112107 or 49.57 [Pct.

Of the Males in 1842, 144525 were adults above the age of 14, and of these 79329 were married, being about 55 per cent; in 1848, the former were 220361, of whom 120523, or about 54.68 were married: the decrease has arisen from a falling off in the number of persons in proportion above the age of 60, and a very trifling decrease is observable in those married between the ages of 14 and 18.

Of the Females in 1842, 117507 were above the age of 14, of whom 74767, or 63.62 per cent were married, while in 1848 the total Female adults were 170168, of whom 111034, or 65.01 per cent were married.

In 1842 the males were to the females as 100 to 88 nearly. In 1848 “ “ “ 100 to 88 nearly.

We find that nearly 6-7ths of the male population between the ages of 30 and 60 are married.

The Board of Registration have been thus particular in establishing the above proportions in the full belief that they will be found useful in future comparisons as to the increase of population, and have followed herein the plan adopted both in England and the United States; in the former country, the most minute particulars are entered into, but here the means do not exist of following up the subject as connected with health and longevity.

BIRTHS AND DEATHS.

The census of 1848 was the first in which any attempt was made to collect information under these heads regarding the Upper Province, and it is of course deficient in some particulars: from two or three localities no returns were made, yet there is sufficient data for some comparisons.

The total number of Births we find to be 27688, or one to every .....	26
“ “ “ Deaths “	11518 “ 63

Difference “ 16170 “ 37

The general average of births and deaths in England is, of the former 1 in 33, and of the latter 1 in 54.

By the United States census taken in 1840, we find that the children under 5 years of age were about 15 per cent of the population, while in Canada they are very nearly 20—in England the proportion is much less. Now if we assume the number of births and deaths to be correct, we find that for every 100 males born, 42 die, and for every 100 females 41.

The marriages in Upper Canada, during the year previous to the census, were 5367—or about 1 to 12 of the adult single population.

Deaf and Dumb...	234 “ 1656	194 “ 1743

The United States census does not class the above as males and females—the proportions however were of Blind .....

SERVANTS.

In a country, a great proportion of whose population accrues by immigration, the number of persons usually classed as servants must naturally be small, particularly of male farm servants; and any increase at all approaching to a similar ratio to that of the population argues one of two positions. 1st. That there must have been a great increase in the number of those able to employ assistance: or 2ndly, a great increase in the wealth of our farmers and the extension of their labours. Now, in 1842, the male farm servants were 3184, and in 1848, 7514, far more than double. This shows a rapid increase and affords direct evidence of the increasing prosperity of the agricultural body of Western Canada.

DOMESTIC MALE SERVANTS.

In this class, no great increase can be expected for years among the rural inhabitants, being chiefly confined to towns and cities.

DOMESTIC FEMALE SERVANTS.

This class has increased very much, and is one of the items affording the best proof of prosperity. In 1842, the unmarried females between the ages of 11 and 45, to which class female servants may be said entirely to belong, were 36882, of whom 5181 or nearly 1-7th were servants. In 1848, the former amount to 60654, and the latter to 10781, about 1-6th in the first period, being one to every 7.12, and in the latter one to every 6.63.

COLOURED PERSONS.

We have no means of knowing what portion of the increase of coloured persons was by immigration, and what by births, as the ages are classed separately of the males: taking one-fourth to be adults, the increase would be about 20 per cent. by immigration, and of females about 30 per cent.

* For the year 1838, the Assessment Rolls were very imperfectly taken, owing to the disturbed state of the country consequent on the outbreak.

Remarks on the foregoing Table.

(By the Board of Registration and Statistics for Canada.)

The Acts of Parliament which regulate the Local Taxation in Western Canada, declare the value which shall for that purpose be placed thereon, according to their classes. In all new Countries, particularly where, as in Canada, the value of the labour in erecting houses is so much greater than that of the material used, the dwellings of the earlier settlers are generally "Shanties," many of which are retained several years after the owner has become independent, and as such dwellings are not liable to any taxes, no account has been kept thereof; we have only therefore a table of those houses which fall under one or other of the following classes:—

1st—sq. logs, 2 sides, 1 story, 2 fire places, rated at £20 each
Additional fire places . . . . .	4 "
2nd—sq. logs, 2 sides, 2 stories, 2 fire places . . . . .	30 "
Additional fire places . . . . .	8 "
3rd—frmd. houses under 2 stories, 2 fire places . . . . .	35 "
Additional fire places . . . . .	5 "
4th—Brick or stone, 1 story, 2 fire places . . . . .	40 "
Additional fire places . . . . .	10 "
5th—frmd. brick or stone 2 stor., 2 fire places, . . . . .	60 "
Additional fire places . . . . .	10 "

It will be at once perceived that the above classification will give but a very distant idea of the actual progress of improvement, where the value of the house is fixed by the number of stories; however, as it is the only guide we have, we are compelled to adopt it, and we have the following results:—

The last period is exclusive of the Cities of Toronto and Kingston, and must at best be taken as a mere approximation.

In England, previous to the year 1831, when the house tax was repealed, the Parliamentary Return showed the increase on Houses divided into 2 Classes, viz.: 1st, those paying from £10 to £40 a year Rent, and 2nd, those paying above that sum; these may be taken as affording a sufficiently accurate data of increase on which to found a comparison merely to show the improvement in Canada.

The gross increase in Great Britain of Houses of both Classes:

Between 1812 and 1821	was 20.54	per cent.	2.28	per annum.
" 1821 " 1831	" 21.69	"	2.17	"
" 1831 " 1833	" 1.82	"	.91	"

In Canada the Increase:

Between 1827 & 1837	was 123.12	per cent.	12.31	per annum.
" 1837 " 1847	" 93.76	"	9.37	"

The latter, however, does not include Toronto.

The Census of 1812 gave for Upper Canada 74,000 houses inhabited to a Population of 486,053, or between 6 and 7 inhabitants to each house; in 1848 we have 112,595 houses to a population of 723,332, being a very nearly similar proportion; the number of inhabitants to each house in 1841, (the last Census), in England, was 5.44, Scotland 5.04, Ireland 6.51; and these numbers show pretty accurately the number of individuals constituting each family.

GRIST MILLS.

On reference to the foregoing Table, which being completed from the various Assessment Rolls, I adopt rather than the Census of 1842 or 1844, we have the following results, dividing into periods of 5 years:

Between 1825 & 1830	the in. was 41 or 17.68	per cent., or 3.54	per annum
1830 " 1835	" 79 " 28.95	" 5.79	"
1835 " 1840	" 68 " 19.32	" 3.86	"
1840 " 1845	" 58 " 14.00	" 2.80	"
1845 " 1847	" 40 " 10.26	" 5.13	"

The most reliable index to improvements is found not in the number of Mills, but in the figures in the next column showing the additional run of stones employed; this gives a great increase and indicates a rapidly increasing prosperity, by the erection of larger Mills, for in 1825, we find 71 additional runs to 231, or 1 Mill in 3 with 2 runs, whereas, in 1847 we have 475 to 527.

These Returns are below the truth, for in 1842 under the Census Act, there were returned 414 Mills, with 584 run of stones, and by the Census of 1848 we have 548 Mills with 1200 runs. This difference is easily accounted for by the manner in which they are assessed for taxes—each additional run of stones being charged at the value of £50: at the periods of the year too at which the Assessments are taken, many of the Mills are idle, and are consequently not given in.

MERCHANTS' SHOPS.

From this column little information can be gleaned. 1st, because it is generally most loosely taken, 2nd, because it is not generally known what is meant by the term "Merchants' Shops," and 3rd, it would be impossible to form even a distant idea of any relative value—the shop of a chapman, when sales amount to £50 a year, being assessed at an equal value to that of the most extensive Merchant, both being £200.

CATTLE.

1. Horses.—This column includes only horses 3 years of age and upwards, and are valued by the Assessment Laws at £8 each. Every means at the command of this office were employed to arrive at a just value, and the average was fully established at £12 10s. or even higher. One half of the horses in Upper Canada are valued above £15, and one-fourth above £20, and about one-half above £30, and a like number at £35.

Increase between

1825 & 1830.	8,188 egl.	to 36.20	per cent or 7.21	per annum.
1830 " 1835.	16,947	" 55.06	" 11.01	"
1835 " 1840.	25,010	" 56.60	" 11.33	"
1840 " 1845.	25,864	" 33.55	" 7.11	"
1845 " 1847.	15,219	" 13.44	" 7.72	"

2. Oxen—4 years old and upwards, valued at £4 each.

Increase between

1825 & 1830.	9,870 egl.	to 41.20	per cent, or 3.26	per annum.
1830 " 1835.	12,290	" 36.45	" 7.29	"
1835 " 1840.	3,257	" 7.07	" 1.41	"
1840 " 1845.	15,810	" 32.07	" 6.41	"
1845 " 1847.	6,590	" 10.82	" 5.26	"

This shows a singular fluctuation; allowing the tables to approach anything near the truth, in the 3rd period from 1837 to 1840, is embraced a time when the troubles in Upper Canada materially affected the returns; but throwing this period out of question, we have a regularly descending ratio. To explain this, we must observe, that in the earlier settlement of the Country, most of the agricultural operations were carried on by means of oxen, which as the country improves gives place to horses.

The increase on which counterbalances the decrease in the others.

3. Milch Cows—Valued at £3 each. As there is no animal more conducive to comfort, so none afford a more correct index to prosperity. In Upper Canada, the number may be taken as given, 1 to every 3 persons.

Increase between

1825 & 1830.	20,693 egl.	to 57.80	per cent, or 11.56	per annum.
1830 " 1835.	23,696	" 35.46	" 7.09	"
1835 " 1840.	35,205	" 32.20	" 6.44	"
1840 " 1845.	51,637	" 37.70	" 7.54	"
1845 " 1847.	19,116	" 9.00	" 4.80	"

The seeming decrease in the ratio between 1845 and 1847 is easily accounted for by an inspection of the annual returns. The average annual increase for the first period being 5,940; for the second, 5,740; for the third, 7,000; for the fourth, 10,926, and for the fifth, 9,558. The whole increase in the 23 years being 167,437, or an average of about 7,280 a year.

4. Young Cattle—Valued at £1 each.

Increase between

1825 & 1830.	9,595 egl.	to 42.15	per cent, or 8.43	per annum
1830 " 1835.	5,933	" 17.76	" 3.75	"
1835 " 1840.	9,296	" 23.63	" 4.75	"
1840 " 1845.	30,010	" 61.50	" 12.36	"

For this decrease it is difficult to account, particularly as it is the generally received opinion that they had increased.

SAW MILLS. Speak for themselves.

CARRIAGES.

Under this head a great and rapid increase is perceptible. No farming carriages are liable to assessment, and consequently many which are used for both purposes are not returned.

Remarks on the foregoing and two succeeding Tables.

LANDS.

The number of Proprietors of Real Estate liable to assessment in Upper Canada, was about 60,600 say 65,000, and the number of acres occupied 8,613,501 or about 133 acres each; allowing the return of lands under cultivation (arable and pasture) to be near the truth, viz. —1,750,152 of the former, and 766,768 of the latter, or 2,546,920 in all, and as the great body of the people are supported by agriculture, we find every 3½ cultivated acres maintaining a person. In 1842, the population was 486,053 and the cultivated acres 1,916,319, the increase in the former has been about 47 per cent, while in cultivated lands it was only 33 per cent; and further, that every 100 increase in population added 265 acres to the cultivated lands. Taking Mr. Couling's estimate of lands in England as a guide, we have the following results:—

In 1827 the lands of England were divided thus: uncultivated 25,632,000, uncultivated 3,454,000 and unprofitable 3,254,400, and the number of acres brought into cultivation between 1760 and 1834 was 6,840,540, while the increase in population was 10,059,588, so that during that period every 100 increase in the population added about 68 acres to the cultivated lands. The effect of the rapid increase of Manufactures on the agricultural pursuits of the people is made evident by the fact that while taking the whole period as above we have 68 acres for every 100 persons; if we confine our calculation to the 1st quarter of the present century, we find the proportion to have been only 37 to every 100.

The number of acres returned under tillage was 1,750,152 while under the designated crops we have:

Wheat . . . . .	593,805 acres.
Barley . . . . .	29,334 "
Oats . . . . .	38,452 "
Rye . . . . .	285,571 "
Pease . . . . .	82,516 "
Maize . . . . .	51,997 "
Buck Wheat . . . . .	26,653 "
Potatoes . . . . .	56,796 "

Add for omissions 10 per cent, . . . 116,500 "

This leaves a deficiency of 498,648 acres, easily accounted for as being comprehended under various crops not specified, gardens and town plots.

The unproductive lands in Upper Canada comprise 571,139 acres, or about 6.63 per cent, and even this proportion is beyond the truth, because much land is returned as unfit for cultivation which only requires a good system of drainage, it being mostly included in swamp lands. The unprofitable lands in England according to Mr. Couling was about 10 per cent of the whole extent.

Great difficulty arises as to obtaining any idea of the value of landed property in Canada, because under the assessment laws all lands are valued at the same price. The following estimate is founded on the best information that could be obtained from the Registrars of the several Districts, and the computation of the several averages given in the Census Rolls. According to these, 17 Districts have returned the wild land as at £24 15s. 2d., or an average of £1 9s. 2d. per acre, and the cultivated at £60 5s. 10d., or an average of £3 10s. 10d. per acre; and these approach very near the truth.

per acre, . . . . .	£9,090,341 13 4
Uncultivated do., 5,849,406 at £1 9 2
per acre, . . . . .	8,530,383 15 0

£17,550,725 8 4

If we take the annual rental to establish a value, we find that in Upper Canada farms of average value generally rent at 15s per acre where about 75 per cent are cleared. Yet, taking a lower average of 10s. per acre, the rental of cultivated lands in that portion of the Province with a corresponding quantity of uncultivated would be about £1,697,946. This approximation is not given as being the truth, but from the means within our reach it no doubt comes as near as possible. The next Census, however, with the operation of a more just and equitable valuation of property will throw much light upon the subject.

CROPS.

Before entering upon any analysis of this branch of the subject, I cannot refrain from quoting a few remarks from Porter's Progress of the Nation, as bearing directly on the position of Canada. "It is much to be regretted that in this country, (England), rich as we are in the possession of facts connected with many branches of social economy, we are almost wholly uninformed with regard to the statistics of agriculture. The knowledge we have upon that important subject, the quantity of land in cultivation within the kingdom is entirely due to the industry of an individual whose estimates have never been either confirmed or questioned. What proportion of the cultivated land is applied to the production of any one article of food, it has never been attempted to ascertain. We know every rod of ground that is employed for the cultivation of Hops, because of the direct financial interest which the Government has in ascertaining the fact; but it does not appear sufficiently to be understood how the national interest can be concerned in any kind of knowledge that does not yield money to the exchequer; and there is reason to believe, that if any comprehensive measure were adopted by the government with a view to ascertain the actual condition of the country as regards its agriculture, so much jealousy and so many groundless fears would be excited in the minds of persons from whom the information must be sought, that the returns obtained would be extremely erroneous, or so incomplete as to be of little value." The above remarks apply with great force to Canada, the least steps towards obtaining any statistical information, had hitherto been met with objections of all sorts, for there are never wanting persons who make it their study by misrepresentation to lead the public mind astray, and as soon as the idea of a Census is promulgated the cry of intended taxation is raised and the people deterred from giving true replies to the questions; this difficulty is however rapidly abating, and in a few years a perfectly correct Census will be attainable.

So much has been said of the fertility of the United States that the following table will not be without interest: it shows the proportion of each kind of grain raised to the population at two periods in the United States and Canada. That of the United States for 1848 being taken from the Report of the Commissioner of Patents and being merely an estimate.

In 1840 the population of the United States, was 17,063,353, and in 1847, 20,746,400.

In 1842 the population of Canada West, was 480,055, and in 1848, 723,332.

From the above table, it will be seen that in proportion to the extent and population, Canada is a more agricultural country than the United States, and the surplus of wheat is very great. The usual quantity allowed for the consumption of each inhabitant is generally 5 bushels, which would leave for export one half the produce of the country. The large quantity of Indian Corn grown in the States enables them by making it a staple of consumption to export a large stock of flour. In Canada, on the contrary, little Indian Corn is grown, and wheat becomes of necessity the great article of food.

In making the foregoing comparison between the crops of the United States and Canada, a remark has been made which requires some observation. It is stated to be unjust to take the whole of the former country, whereas some portions do not produce wheat, Louisiana and Florida for instance, whose united population is about 600,000: we will take therefore those states which produce the greatest quantity, viz:—

New York with a population of 2,350,000 produced 15,500,000 bushels, or little more than 5 to each inhabitant.

Pennsylvania, with a population of 2,220,000 produced 15,200,000 bushels, or very nearly 7 to each inhabitant.

Virginia, with a population of 1,295,000 produced 12,250,000 bushels, nearly 10 to each inhabitant.

Ohio, with a population of 1,930,000 produced 20,000,000 bushels, little more than 10 to each inhabitant.

Indiana, with a population of 1,000,000 produced 9,500,000 bushels, or about 9 to each inhabitant.

With respect to Michigan, it is worth while to examine the returns: in 1841, the population of that State was 212,367 and its produce in wheat was 2,157,104 bushels. In 1848 the population is rated at 420,909 and the wheat crop at 10,000,000 bushels, and other crops at 22,110,000, making together 32,000,000: how does that stand with regard to the available labour of the State? According to the ratio of 1841, the whole male population between the ages of 15 and 70 would be about 127,000, of whom, allowing 75 per cent to be engaged in agriculture, we have 95,000 to collect this enormous harvest of grain above, or 350 bushels to each man. The wheat crop being about 21 bushels to each inhabitant.

MARK SCOBIE.—The manufacture of this article is carried to a great extent throughout Canada. In 1847, to which year the Census applies, was decidedly one of the worst, while 1848 was good beyond the average, the number of lbs. given by the Census was 3,764,243, to which we may safely add 10 per cent to bring it to the average yield of 4,140,667, and as no portion of this is exported, we have very nearly 6 lbs. to each inhabitant.

HEMP, FLAX AND TOBACCO.—These articles are very little cultivated, and with respect to the latter we have unfortunately no return from the Western District where it is chiefly grown.

CATTLE.

1 Neat Cattle in 1842, 504,903, in 1848, 565,845, increase 60,942, or 12 per cent.

2 Horses in 1842, 113,675, in 1848, 151,829, increase 37,154, or 33 per cent.

3 Hogs in 1842, 394,366, in 1848, 484,241, increase 89,875, or 23 per cent.

4 Sheep in 1842, 515,730, in 1848, 832,807, increase 317,077, or 45 per cent.

The last, viz: Sheep is of peculiar consequence as connected with the improvement of the country.

In 1842 there were produced 1,302,510 lbs. of wool, while in 1848 it amounted to 2,330,756, or an increase of very nearly 80 per cent, the average fleece being 2 6 5/8 lbs. In the States in 1840, the number of Sheep was 19,311,374, and the wool 35,802,114 lbs.

The various other divisions of the Census Roll call for no remarks, if we except the quantity of linen cloth manufactured in which there appears to be a falling off of more than half, while the increase in fulled cloth and flannels has been correspondingly great. With regard to the columns given for produce for market, viz: Butter, Cheese and Pork, they were inserted for the purpose of obtaining grounds of comparison for a succeeding Census, nor was it till the returns came in that any idea could have been formed of the immense amount of these articles produced.

As to Mills and Manufactures, I regret to say that any opinion is, that little reliance can be placed on the returns—from many townships they are very imperfectly made up; this difficulty, however, will be obviated by the next Census.

In closing this branch of the Report, it is right to call attention to the heads inquired after by the Census of the United States, particularly as there appears to exist in Canada a feeling that the Questions are inquisitorial and too numerous, the following is an abstract of the Columns in the States Census of 1841:—

Mines . . . 39 " "	Fisheries . . . 7 " "

Population of Lower Canada.

In 1822 there were 50 men and women in Quebec. In 1720 Quebec contained a population of about 7,000, and Montreal a population of about 3,000.

The first general capitation in the Province, was taken in 1676, from which time the periodical increase has been summed up by Bouchette, and other authorities, as follows:—

Years.	Population.	Increase.
1676 .....	8415

In 1792 Lower Canada was first divided into Counties, by proclamation of Sir Alured Clarke, the Lieut. Governor. The population at that time, is assumed at 230000. The number of Counties, under this proclamation, was 21. By the Census taken in 1825, under this division, the population of Lower Canada amounted to 423630—of these, there were male adults, 105371, very nearly 25 per cent of the whole.

A new division of Lower Canada was made by the Act, 9 Geo. IV., chap. 73, (1823.) The computation of the Census, under that division, showed a population in 1831, of 511922, of which 108953 were male adults.

On the passing of the Union Act, (1840) the divisions were re-modelled, and a new set of Counties established, under which the Census of 1844 was taken. By reason of these frequent changes in the Counties and Parishes, it has been found exceedingly difficult to institute comparative tables from the Census rolls.

In 1844, the population of Lower Canada amounted to 690782, of which 144091 were male adults. The increase from 1831 to 1844, was 14.87 per cent in the District of Gaspé; 35.10 per cent in the District of Quebec; 39.24 per cent in the District of Three Rivers; 41 per cent in the District of St. Francis; and 34.21 per cent in the District of Montreal. The whole population of Lower Canada from 1831 to 1844, increased 34.94 per cent; and the male adult population increased 32.36 per cent during the same period.

These numbers would give, according to a well established rule of statistics, adult females 182230, and children of both sexes 364461.

From 1831 to 1844, the annual per centage increase, was 2.68, and this, allowing for the increasing ratio, would give about 12½ per cent for the four years, from 1844 to 1848:

Population of 1844 .....	690782
12½ per cent added .....	86347

Approximation for 1848 .....

In this estimate there is no allowance made for decrease by migration. Both Mr. Cauchon and Colonel Tache lay great stress on this point, and it is well known that a very large migration of Lower Canadians has taken place within the last five years. Mr. Cauchon estimates the maximum population of Lower Canada, in 1844, at 770000; and Colonel Tache rates it at 765,797. A calculation based on the returns of births and deaths, rates it at 774674. These four taken together, give a mean estimate of 771922. Allowing that in the first hypothesis, the increasing ratio should have been abandoned, the mean of the estimates would then be reduced to 768901.

After going into some further minute comparisons between the computations of Colonel Tache, Mr. Cauchon and the Board of Statistics, the compiler of the latter observes, that these joint calculations give as the population of Lower Canada, 765324, or an increase since 1844, of 77552, being 2030 more than that assumed by Colonel Tache, and 1660 less than that of Mr. Cauchon. These calculations were made separately, without any previous communication between the parties, and with very different means, each proceeding on a very different system of data; and as the three parties so nearly agree, we may safely state the population of Lower Canada to be, at the very utmost figure it will bear, 770000.

It is to be regretted that, the last Census Act had not been acted upon in Lower Canada. Had the provisions of that Act been complied with the necessity of adopting a series of calculations, in this manner, to arrive at the probable amount of population, would have been obviated.

The following Table shows the increase of population from 1825 to 1848 inclusive, according to the divisions established by the Union Act, and now existing. The years 1825, 1827 and 1831, show only the population of the several Districts, while the years 1841 and 1848 show the population of the counties comprised within each district. The defect in the first three returns alluded to, as regards the population of counties, arises from the circumstance already referred to, of the frequent changes in the boundaries, and the non-identity of the present counties, with those which existed previous to the union.

For the sake of convenience, we have added to the Table, statements of the contents of L. Canada, divided into Counties and Districts, in square miles and acres, and the proportion of it actually laid out in square miles. Also, returns of the number of Schools, and Scholars attending them in 1848.

* Each County is divided into School municipalities, and 87 of those municipalities made no return to the Superintendent for 1848, when the report from which the above is taken, was made up. Had the whole of the returns been given in, the result would have shown a larger number of Schools and Children attending them.

Progress of Settlement and Value of Lands in Lower Canada.

A system of Registration of Titles to Property has been lately established in Lower Canada, which seems to have succeeded to some extent.

The following is an Abstract of the information furnished to the Board of Statistics, in reply to a series of questions proposed by them to the several Registrars of Counties, in the view of getting at some foundation on which to predicate future enquiries.

COUNTY OF QUEBEC.

Charles N. Montzambert, Registrar.—The number of deeds registered within the year 1847, was 1383; all containing either general, special, or tacit mortgages as limited by the ordinance 4 Vic. cap. 36, have been discharged. New settlers seldom remain in the County of Quebec. The Registrar states the average value of uncleared lands at 5s. per acre, and of cleared at from 15s. to 17s. 6d. The average per centage increase in the value of land during the last ten years has been exclusive of Quebec and its environs, about 20 per cent.

COUNTY OF NICOLET.

Joseph Jutras, Registrar.—In this County in which very little land has been purchased by new settlers, there were registered 339 deeds and 159 mortgages. Mr. Jutras states the value of cleared lands at from 5s. to 20s. per acre, and of uncleared 2s. to 10s.; he remarks that instead of increasing in value, land is decreasing in the County for the last ten years in consequence of the crops being so bad.

COUNTY OF DORCHESTER.

R.A. Fortier, Registrar.—Not one new settler has fixed in this County during the last year within the knowledge of Mr. Fortier; large purchases however must have been made from the fact that 413 deeds and 234 mortgages were registered. The value of the old cleared lands has remained pretty stationary during ten years, new lands have however increased 2, 3, and 4 times their value in the same period; the average price of cleared land is from £1 to £10, depending on the quality of the soil—the distance from the main roads, churches, mills, &c., uncleared lands are granted by the Seigniors at an annual charge of from 15s. to 30s. per 90 superficial acres.

COUNTY OF MEGANTIC.

J. R. Lambly, Registrar.—Mr. Lambly, who appears to have paid great attention to the matters made subject of enquiry, states the average value of land to be about 6s. 3d. per acre, except in some of the Townships, particularly Lambton, Forsyth, and Somerset, in the latter of which it sells at 20s. per acre. Mr. Lambly then proceeds: since my acquaintance with this County, viz: 1830, it has been steadily increasing in population and in the actual value of property, notwithstanding a decrease in the market value of the land. The major part of the population come to settle in this County possessed but of small resources, and in fact many in a state of indigence, who are now in a comparative state of wealth to what they were in their own country, and that, by their own industry.

It must be understood that this county is not indebted, (as most others are) for its increase of population to Immigration, but solely to its own resources; in fact so rapid has been the increase, that I believe, referring to the last Census will show that for the last ten years it has been in a greater ratio than any other County in Canada, although others have had the advantage of Immigration, and this I would be inclined to attribute to the salubrity of the atmosphere, and the productive-ness of the soil.

The inhabitants are industrious and supply the Quebec market largely with butter, pork and sheep, and also great numbers of horned cattle; the butter of this County carries the palm in the Quebec market, and the sheep are superior to any thing of the kind in Lower Canada, and in fact could not fear competition with those of the Upper Province; in a word, agriculture is flourishing in this County, it abounds in valuable timber as oak, pine, spruce and hemlock, as also maple, beech, birch, elm and ash of a superior quality, lying contiguous to and at the head of a water communication, which, with a little outlay, might easily be made one of the finest transits for timber in Lower Canada, having its debut at St. Nicholas, on the St. Lawrence, and thus open up an almost inexhaustible source of valuable timber as well as minerals. These waters are above the head waters of the Beaucour, having their confluence below Three Rivers, on the St. Lawrence, and in their present condition form a boat navigation of 30 miles to the Black Lake, and thence to the head waters of the St. Francis, by a portage of three miles.

At the head of these waters is a valuable Iron Mine, and in 1847 a rich copper bed was discovered in the Township of Inverness, about fifty miles from Quebec. There are also many quarries of good lime stone.

COUNTY OF SHERBROOKE.

Wm. Ritchie, Registrar.—The number of deeds registered in this County in 1847, was 251. The Registrar states that he does not know of a single new settler having located himself in any of the new Townships of the County, nor does he think that there has been any increase in the value of lands for ten years.

COUNTY OF LOTBINIERE.

R. S. Noel, Registrar.—During the year from 300 to 375 mortgages have been registered. No new Settlers. Cleared lands sell for £2 10s. per acre; uncleared lands may be had from the Seigniors for nothing a titre de cens; no increase in value.

COUNTY OF YAMASKA.

J. O. Arcand, Registrar.—The increase in the value of lands in this county is stated to have been about 25 per cent, the cleared selling at from £1 10s. to £7 10s. and the uncleared from 15s. to £5. The deeds enregistrer were many, thus stated by the Registrar, 411 titles, 114 obligations, 58 contracts of concession and and 54 donations of land.

COUNTY OF ROUVILLE.

H. Aubertin, Registrar.—The increase is stated at 50 per cent, in consequence of the clearing. 657 deeds have been registered 377 mortgages, 52 decharges, and 270 land deeds.

COUNTY OF SUFFORD.

H. S. Forster, Registrar.—A small portion of the lands which were sold during the year was purchased by new settlers (not more than 1,000 acres) generally at from 15s to 20s. per acre. The Township of Milton and the north part of Stukely are fast filling up with French Canadians. The increase in the value of land within ten years has been 5s or 6s. per acre.

COUNTY OF OTTAWA.

J. F. Taylor, Registrar.—Wild Lands have sold from 5s. to £5, and some cleared lands in Hull have sold even as high as £10.

COUNTY OF TWO-MOUNTAINS.

D. DeHertel, Registrar.—During the year 1847 there were registered 587 deeds of all kinds; a few new settlers located in the Townships where uncleared lands sell at various prices from 1s. 3d. to 10s., and cleared from 10s. to 40s. The Townships are settling slowly, and the increase in value has been little or nothing.

COUNTY OF LISLET.

J. D. Lepine, Registrar.—The Registrar complains of the inefficiency of the Registration Act, and says, that of 30 deeds of Sale which have passed during the month, only 10 have been registered. This complaint is also made by others. Mr. Lepine has been a resident of the County for seven years, and during that time thinks the value has retrograded in consequence of bad crops.

COUNTY OF VERCHERES.

L. Menard, Registrar.—191 Registrations. Cultivated lands in the County sell for from £3 to £4 per acre, and the uncultivated which derive their chief value from the timber, sell from £2 to £5. The County has 122 or 125,000 acres, and a population of about 14,000.

COUNTY OF LEINSTER.

L. Archambault, Registrar.—711 Registrations. Of these 275 were land deeds. No new settlers. Cleared lands average £4 and uncleared £1 per acre. The increase in value has been 6 per cent.

COUNTY OF ST. MAURICE.

G. Duval, Registrar.—354 Registrations. New lands filling up.

COUNTY OF BEAUHARNOIS.

D. K. Lighthall, Registrar.—Registered 450 deeds, 175 mortgages, and 75 mortgages were discharged. The lands sold were about 2,500 acres, of which about 3 per cent was purchased by new settlers. Lands sell well, and the increase for the ten years has been great, especially in the Townships.

COUNTY OF KAMOURASKA.

Hon. J. B. Tache, Registrar.—361 Registrations, 117 of which were conveyances of lands, 27 being to new settlers. Uncleared lands sell for 2s. 6d. and cleared for £2 per acre.

COUNTY OF BELLECHASSE.

P. Forgues, Registrar.—No new settlers. Cleared farms well situated sell from £4 to £6. Mr. Forgues says the value of land has decreased during ten years, 16 or 12 per cent.

COUNTY OF STANSTEAD.

C. A. Richardson, Registrar.—310 deeds of various kinds registered during the year, and the deeds of transfer covered about 10,118 acres. The general average price of cleared land varies very much, it goes as high as $3 in Stanstead, and as low as $3 in Barford; the general value of uncleared lands is from 5s. to 7s. 6d. per acre.

COUNTY OF SAGUENAY.

C. D. Berger, Registrar.—346 Deeds registered.—The value of lands has decreased, and many of the inhabitants have sold their lands very low, and migrated to the new crown settlements on the river. The mode of cultivation is very bad indeed.

COUNTY OF MISSISQUOI.

R. Dickenson, Registrar.—About 11,000 acres of land were sold, very little of which was purchased by new settlers. Lands sell at a general average of from 15s. to 20s. Some parts of this County were granted so early as 1792, and the increase in ten years has been 25 per cent. The income of many of the farmers of this County is from £300 or £400 per annum, chiefly derived from butter, cheese, pork, and beef and young cattle. Some farmers in the spring of the year often take to the Montreal market, cheese to the amount of £100, and the Registrar knows one who laid down an acre and a half in hops, from which in two years he realized £175.

COUNTY OF YADDEUIL.

H. F. Charlebois, Registrar.—Registers 250. Contracts of sale, obligations 130. Discharges 34. Cultivated land sells for £2 10s. and uncultivated for £1 per acre. The increase has been in ten years about 25 per cent.

COUNTY OF GASPÉ.

P. Winter, Registrar.—Transfer of sales 48. Wills 4. Obligations 22. Judgments 35. The quantity of land covered by 32 deeds was 4200. The sales to new settlers were very trifling, if any. The price for front village lots was in some instances as high as £15 per acre. Lands one half cleared, sell for from 10s. to 25s. per acre, while the government upset price is 3s.—Fishing rooms sell for about £15. Owing to the falling off of immigration, the lands are not fast filling up.

COUNTY OF RIMOULKI.

A. G. Ruel, Registrar.—About 8000 acres have been sold, about one third being to new settlers. The increase has been about 15 per cent on the value of property.

Answers from the other Registrars do not contain any information worth noting.

Lands and their Produce.

In 1827, Mr. Bouchette states the total number of acres of land in culture to be, . . . . . 2,946,565 acres. The Census of 1831, gives only . . . . . 2,065,913 " " 1844, . . . . . 2,802,317 "

This shows that Mr. Bouchette must have over-rated the quantity. Taking the two last Census as being authentic, we find that the increase was 35.6 per cent, while the increase in population was exactly similar, being 35 per cent. The number of landed proprietors in 1831 was 57,891, being on the average about 36 acres to each, while in 1844 the proprietors amounted to 76,440, or about 36½ acres each: this shews us that the state of agriculture in Lower Canada must have been sadly neglected, and that it is only followed far enough to give an actual sustenance to the cultivators. The increase in the population of the City of Montreal will not account for the non-increase of cultivation, in proportion.

The produce of Lower Canada is thus stated by the foregoing authorities:

	Census 1831.	Bouchette 1827.	Census 1844.
Wheat . . . Bushels.	3404756	2931240	942835
Pease . . . . "	945758	823318	1210420
Oats . . . . "	3112274	2311529	7238753
Barley . . . . "	394705	363117	1195456
Rye . . . . . "	234529	217543	333446
Indian Corn . . . "	339693	333150	141008
Potatoes . . . . "	7357446	6796300	9918869
Buck Wheat . . . "	106050	121397	374809

This shews a fearful falling off in the production of wheat. The produce for 1844, without any deduction of seed, would only furnish 188,567 barrels, or only 1 barrel for every 3 inhabitants.

The whole produce in 1844 exclusive of potatoes, was 11,445,727 bushels, and allowing that two-thirds of the cultivated lands were under potatoes and fallow, it would give an average crop of 12 1-6th bushels per acre of all grain for the remainder. In 1831, the same allowance being made, the average crop would be 12½ bushels, while Mr. Bouchette for 1827 makes it 7 20-98 bushels exclusive of 184,659 bushels of mixed grain.

1844.—Of the 76,440 Proprietors of real estate, 15,188 held their lands in "Free and Common Socage," and the land so held amounted to 1,706,993 acres, of which 540,256, were cultivated.

These held under Indian and other leases, 169 persons occupying 25,598 acres, of which only 5,918 acres were under cultivation.

TRADE, COMMERCE, &amp; FINANCES OF CANADA.

(From the Montreal Brokers' Circular, 25th March, 1849, printed by order of the House of Assembly.)

The period has arrived, when, from obtaining access to the public accounts, we are enabled to lay before you a statement of the Imports and Exports for the fiscal year just closed; and having obtained from Messrs. MacDougall & Glass the use of the tables and statements published by them up to March last, we are enabled at the same time to give you a complete statistical view of the commerce of the country from 1838 up to the present time.

That the trade of Canada, and particularly of Montreal, was unusually depressed last year, is known to every one concerned in it; but there are few perhaps who will be prepared for the enormous falling off in its amount, both as to Imports and Exports, which our tables make manifest.

As to Imports, a part of the decline is no doubt attributable to the importations of 1847 having been in excess of our actual wants, and the decrease of our Exports of agricultural produce is to be accounted for by the facts, that in 1847 the Exports were swelled by Flour ground in bond for exportation from United States Wheat, whilst in 1848 the quantity so exported was much less, and that the high prices of 1847 induced our own farmers to bring every bushel to market which they could spare, thereby leaving less in their hands to be disposed of in 1848. The quantity of United States Wheat ground in the manner alluded to for exportation in 1847 was 533,465 bushels, and in 1848 only 127,955 bushels.

Our General Tables, to which we beg you to refer, show the Imports under separate heads, viz., those received inland, separately from those received by sea; while the following table which has been prepared to facilitate comparison, shows the Imports by both routes consolidated. A glance at its contents will show how greatly the Import business of the Country fell off last year as compared with 1847, and also the striking fact, that while the total importation of goods paying ad valorem duties fell off materially, such goods imported inland, (that is from the United States,) increased upwards of forty per cent., showing a large decline by way of the St. Lawrence.

Exports from Canada by inland Ports in 1848, with the Custom House Values.

Our Exports by Inland Ports (in addition to those above given by Sea,) we think it advisable to bring prominently into view, inasmuch as the extent of our direct export trade to the United States, seems to us to be greatly underrated. It will be seen by the annexed table that it reached the value of £772,432 5s. 4d. in the year just closed. This table is made up from returns chiefly furnished by officers of the Custom House Department of the United States, our own Customs' officers being unable to supply the data, as our laws do not make it compulsory to enter goods exported by the frontier. It may reasonably be assumed, therefore, that a large additional quantity of commodities is annually smuggled into the United States, for which their high tariff holds out a great inducement.

Bank Stocks, 1848.

The prices of Bank Stocks shew how greatly our monetary institutions have been affected by the depressed state of the Trade and Commerce of the Country. As a contrast, we may mention that in 1846, and for some years before it, the Stock of nearly every Canadian Bank in the Province, stood at, or above par. That of the Bank of Montreal, for instance, was as high as 14 per cent. premium, in 1846. But the losses which they all suffered in 1847, were very heavy, and business has since then, been too depressed, to admit of their making sufficient profits to re-establish the value of their Stocks at par.

The Bank of British North America, not being a Canadian Bank, requires a separate notice. Its Stock also has been much depressed, but the transactions in it here are at all times very limited, the Stock being chiefly owned out of the Province.

The premium of Exchange on London, between April and November 1848 inclusive, ranged between 134 and 10 per cent. On the 1st March, 1849, it was 104.

Bank of Montreal Stock was at 52 per cent. premium, on 25th April, 1848. It fluctuated until November, when it was quoted at 1½ @ 2 per cent. discount, and it again rose to par. On 1st March, 1849, the quotation was 2½ per cent. discount.

Bank of British North America Stock was at 6½ per cent. discount, on 25th April, 1848, and from 5th May to 15th August, it was quoted at 7½ discount. The quotation from 23rd August until 24th October, was 12 per cent. discount, after which there were no sales.

City Bank Montreal Stock was quoted on 20th April, 1848, at 7½ per cent. discount. It continued to decline until 30th June, when it was quoted at 18 @ 20 per cent. discount. It remained at 20 discount until 15th August, and afterwards went down as low as 32½ @ 33½ discount, closing in November at 32 discount. On 1st March, 1849, it was quoted at 40 @ 45 per cent. dis.

Banque du Peuple, Montreal Stock was quoted on 20th May, 1848, at 6 per cent. discount. In June it was quoted at 10 dis., in July at 11 dis., and in August at 12 dis., after which it was returned as unsaleable. Since September 1848, it was offered much below 12 per cent. discount, without finding buyers.

Bank of Upper Canada Stock was at 5 per cent.

discount, on 25th April, 1848. It gradually declined until in July it was quoted at 10 dis., in August at 12 dis., and in September at 25 dis. On 1st March, 1849, the quotation was 20 @ 25 per cent. discount.

Commercial Bank, M. D., Upper Canada Stock was quoted on 25th April, 1848, at 1 per cent. premium. In May the quotations were 11 per cent. premi. Between June and September it fluctuated between 2½ prem. and par; and on 18th October it was quoted at par @ 1 per cent. discount. On 1st March 1849, the quotation was 2 @ 2½ discount.

This Court has, within the Province, the combined jurisdiction possessed as Courts of Law, by the Courts of Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, and Exchequer in England. The full Court is held four times a year at Fredericton. Courts are also held there twice a year, by one of the Judges, for the trial of Civil and Criminal causes, as well as in St. John and Charlotte Counties, and once a year in each of the other counties. When the sum in dispute does not exceed £20, the proceedings are summary, the pleadings simplified, and the costs about one half the amount of ordinary proceedings. There is an appeal to the Governor in Council, where the amount exceeds £300 sterling, and from that Court to the Queen in Council, where the amount in dispute exceeds £500 sterling.

COURT OF CHANCERY.—Chancellor, the Lieutenant-Governor; Master of the Rolls.—Hon. Neville Parker; Registrar.—Daniel Ludlow Robinson; Deputy Registrar.—Henry C. Robinson. There are twelve Masters and five Masters Extraordinary.

The general business of this Court is conducted by the Master of the Rolls, from whom an appeal is permitted to the Chancellor, and from him to the Queen in Council. All proceedings relative to Lunatics and Idiots must be had before the Chancellor himself, who generally claims the assistance of one or more of the Judges of the Supreme Court as advisers. The Equity system of the English Court of Chancery is generally adopted, varied in some respects by local legislation, and particular rules of practice established by the Court.

COURT OF GOVERNOR AND COUNCIL.—President, the Lieutenant-Governor; Vice-President, the Master of the Rolls; Members, the Executive Council; Registrar and Clerk, John C. Allen. Terms—2nd Tuesday in February, and 2nd Tuesdays in June and October.

The jurisdiction of this Court is confined to questions concerning marriage, contracts of marriage, divorce, and separation and alimony.

COURT FOR THE TRIAL AND PUNISHMENT OF PIRACY AND OTHER OFFENCES COMMITTED ON THE HIGH SEAS.—The Governor; the Judges of the Supreme Court; the Executive Council; Judge of the Vice Admiralty; Public Secretary; Public Treasurer; Commander-in-Chief; Flag Officers and Captains, and Commanders of Ships of War on the station, for the time being, Registrar and Scribe, ———; Provost Marshal, C. H. Joubert.

When cases arise calling for the exercise of the jurisdiction of this Court, it sits at any place within the province, to be appointed by any three of the members, the Governor, Chief Justice, or one of the Judges of the Supreme Court, or Judge of the Admiralty, being one. The proceedings are similar with those in the ordinary Criminal Courts in the province.

COURT OF VICE-ADMIRALTY.—Judge and Commissary, Hon. Robert Leonard Hazen; Advocate General, William Wright; Registrar and Scribe, John M. Robinson; Marshal, John Dombert.

The Governor is Vice-Admiral. This Court has two branches—a Prize and an Instance Court—the former applicable only in time of war. The latter has jurisdiction in suits for seamen's wages, pilage, bottomry, damage to a ship by collision, contempt in breach of the regulations and instructions relating to Her Majesty's service at sea, and salvage and droits of Admiralty, notwithstanding the cause of action may have arisen out of the local limits of the Court. It has also jurisdiction in cases of seizures for the contravention of the laws in force within the province, for the collection of the duties on timber. An appeal lies to the Queen in Council.

THE COURT OF ORDINARY AND SURROGATES' COURTS.—The Governor is the Ordinary of the Province, giving him the power of collating to churches, chapels or other Ecclesiastical benefices, and of issuing all marriage licences. The other duties of the office are discharged by Surrogates, of whom there is one for each county, having power to grant Probates of Wills and Letters of Administration. An appeal is allowed from the Surrogate to the Court of Chancery.

COURTS OF JUSTICES OF THE PEACE, for the recovery of debts not exceeding £5, and covering cases of trover, trespass &c., where the damages to real property do not exceed 40s. These cases are decided by the Justice alone, unless either party demand a Jury. An appeal is allowed to a Judge of the Supreme Court. The jurisdiction of the City Court of St. John, is the same as that of the Justice of Peace Court.

THE INFERIOR COURTS OF THE COMMON PLEAS—One of these is established in each county, and is held four times a year. The Judges are appointed by the Crown. They have jurisdiction in all cases in which the titles to lands do not come in question. Where the matter in dispute does not exceed £20, the costs are on a reduced scale. Should the matter in dispute exceed £20, the defendant may by Unleaves Corpus, remove the cause into the Supreme Court; and either party, after judgment, may, by writ of error, remove the judgment into the Supreme Court.

ST. JOHN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.—President—Hon. John Robertson; Vice-Presidents—John Duncan and John V. Thurgar; Secretary and Treasurer—Robert Jardine; and a Committee of fifteen, including the members of the Assembly, for the City and County of St. John.

Imports into and Exports from New Brunswick.

The following Table gives no returns of the value of the Exports from St. Andrews and its Outbays. Even were we to assume a sum as the probable amount, the Imports would far exceed the Exports, for the whole of the Province. The statement shows an increase of Imports into the Province in 1847 over 1846, of £29312 stg. The Exports from St. John in 1847, fall short of the amount in 1846, by £178130 sterling. There is a great falling off in the Export Trade to every place except to the United States, which shows an increase of £29024 in 1847 over 1846,—but this is very trifling indeed, compared with the aggregate decrease. Supposing the Exports from St. Andrews to be equal to the Imports, the deficiency in value of the Exports from the Province in 1846, compared with the Imports in that year, will then amount to £166,941 stg., while upon the same hypothesis, the deficiency in 1847 in the value of the Exports compared with the Imports for that year, will amount to £437,902 sterling.

The Imports to St. John, for the half year ending 5th July, 1849, were £253,556, sterling. Of these £120,033, sterling, were for British, and £97,055, sterling, for United States goods. Of the latter £19,021 were imported in American, and £78,034 in British vessels. The Imports from the United States, for the corresponding half year of 1848, were £97,211, sterling. The Exports from St. John for the half year ending 5th July, 1848, were £139,162, and for the corresponding half year of 1849 they were £112,908. The Export of Timber, for the same period in 1848, was 61,000 tons, and in 1849, 35,320 tons. The Export of Deals for the same periods compare as follows:—1848—45,124 feet; 1849—43,879 feet. The difference in quantity is small, but there is a great depreciation in value. The vessels and tonnage for the same period compare as follows:—Inwards, 1848—754 vessels, 141,707 tons, viz., 130,843 tons British, and 10,864 tons American; 1849—634 vessels, 110,579 tons, viz., 103,606 tons British, and 6,913 tons American. Outwards, 1848—705 vessels, 137,494 tons, viz., 127,119 tons British, and 10,375 tons American; 1849—605 vessels, 112,355 tons, viz., 106,061 tons British, and 6,294 tons American.

SUPERIOR COURTS, U. C.—The Act 12 Vic. cap. 63 regulates the establishment of two Superior Courts of Common Law, viz.: the Court of Queen's Bench and the Court of Common Pleas, and also a Court of Error and Appeal, in Upper Canada. It abolishes the former Practice Court. The Act 12 Vic. cap. 64, regulates the establishment of the Court of Chancery in Upper Canada. The Courts of Queen's Bench and Common Pleas, shall each be presided over by a Chief Justice and two Puisne Judges, and the Court of Chancery by a Chancellor and two Vice Chancellors; while the Court of Error and Appeal shall be composed of the Judges of the Courts of Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, and Chancery. These courts all sit at Osgoode Hall, Toronto. The Judges shall have rank and precedence in the following order, viz.: first, the Chief Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench; second, the Chancellor; third, the Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas; and fourth, the Puisne Judges and Vice Chancellors, according to seniority of appointment. Hitherto there were five judges in the Court of Queen's Bench, two of whom are to be transferred to the Court of Common Pleas; but the appointments to this latter court have not as yet been made, (October 1849). The subjoined lists therefore shew at present five judges in the former and none in the latter, but the necessary changes and additions will be made before the close of 1849. The Judges shall be appointed by the Crown, from Barristers of at least ten years' standing, and shall hold their offices during good behaviour, removable upon an address of both Houses of the Provincial Parliament, subject to Appeal to the Queen in Privy Council. The salaries of the Chief Justices and Chancellors are £1,250, currency, each; and those of the Puisne Judges and Vice Chancellors, £1,000, currency, each. This does not apply to the present Chief Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench, who retains his usual salary of £1,066, 13s. 4d. currency; or to the senior Vice Chancellor, who retains his former salary of £1,250, currency. The Courts of Queen's Bench and Common Pleas, shall have each a Clerk of the Crown and Pleas, at a salary of £400, currency, who shall each appoint a senior and junior Clerk, each senior to receive £250, currency, and each junior £150 currency, salary. The present Clerk of the Crown and Pleas to receive £750, currency, salary, as compensation for the deprivation of his usual emoluments. The several Clerks of the County Courts shall be ex officio Deputy Clerks of the Crown and Pleas. The present Deputy Clerks of the Crown are, nevertheless, continued in office during pleasure—(see the lists of county officers, p. 68)—their remuneration to be fixed by the Governor in Council. There shall be a Master and also a Registrar, in the Court of Chancery, the latter to be ex officio Clerk of the Court of Error and Appeal. He is also empowered to appoint one Clerk. The salaries are, to the Master £500, to the Registrar £400, and to the Clerk £125, currency, per annum. All the fees of these courts are to be paid into the consolidated fund, out of which all the salaries are to be paid. The circuits are to be held twice a year in each county, between Hilary and Easter terms, and between Trinity and Michaelmas terms, except in the County of York where there shall be three in each year, to commence on the first Monday in January, May, and November, respectively. An annuity equal to two-thirds of the salary may be granted for life to any Judge on retiring from the Bench, after fifteen years' service, or on account of some permanent infirmity disabling him from the due execution of his office.

H. Lower Canada.

THE BAR OF LOWER CANADA.—All Advocates, Barristers, Attorneys, Solicitors, and Proctors at Law, in Lower Canada, are Incorporated—(see Act 12 Vic. cap. 46)—under the name of "The Bar of Lower Canada." SUPERIOR COURTS, L. C.—The Act, 12 Vic. cap. 33, abolishes the Courts of Queen's Bench in the several Districts of Lower Canada, and the offices of resident Judge of Three Rivers, and Provincial Judge of St. Francis. In cases not exceeding £15, or not relating to property titles, the proceedings shall be summary; and if the value shall not exceed £65s., then the suit shall be determined according to equity and good conscience. ## ERRATA.

In a portion of the Edition "Lambton" is omitted. On p 33 read "1. Essex, Kent and Lambton." Also on p. 34 read "2. Essex, Kent, and Lambton." The omission of "Lambton" renders a correction of the contents of Townships in "Essex, Kent and Lambton" necessary as follows, viz: Essex contains Anderton, Colchester, Gosfield, Maidstone, Mersea, Malden, Rochester and Sandwich. Kent contains Camden, Chatham, East Dover, West Dover, Harwich, Howard, Orford, Raleigh, Romney, East Tilbury, West Tilbury and Zone. Lambton contains Brooke, Dawn, Bosanquet, Enniskenil, Euphemia, Moore, Plympton, Sarnia, Sombra and Warwick. This also affects the Table, on pp. 36 37, as regards the Townships in "Lambton," also West Tilbury in "Kent."—p. 34, for "William Jones," read "H. Glass." Chatham, Registrar for Kent and Lambton. Omit "Elgin—Frontenac," on p. 36, in the alphabetical list of Townships. Omit "Elgin" on p. 31, one line from foot.

Saturn's Ring.—To render Saturn's Ring visible to the earth, it is necessary that the Sun and the Earth, as viewed from the Planet, be elevated on the same side of it, which is the case during the whole of 1851. It will attain its greatest apparent diameter (13'.) in September.

Explanation of the Articles in the Calendar.

THE SUN'S DECLINATION is given for mean noon at Toronto, for every day: the difference for mean noon for any other place in the British Provinces, will rarely amount to one minute.

APPARENT NOON, SHOWING THE EQUATION OF TIME.—This column contains the mean time corresponding to the apparent noon on each day, or the hour which should be shown by a clock or watch at Toronto, when a Sun-dial marks twelve o'clock. Its error at any other place in the British Provinces will rarely amount to one second.

SUN RISING AND SETTING.—The mean time of the Sun rising and setting is given for every day for Toronto and Montreal, and will be found given for every tenth day at Quebec, Halifax, and Fredricton, by referring to the Table at page 53. If the time is wanted for any intermediate day, enter the table of Semi-diurnal Arcs (page 53) with the Sun's declination for that day, the value given, subtracted from, or added to, the mean time of apparent noon, will give the hour of rising or setting.

THE MOON'S RISING OR SETTING is given for every day at Montreal and Toronto: the time of rising being when she sets during daylight: and the time of setting when she rises during daylight. The time given for Montreal will never be more than four minutes in error for Halifax, three minutes in error for Fredricton, and five minutes in error for Quebec; and it is, therefore, near enough for ordinary reference at those places.

THE PLANETS.—The hour of meridian passage, right ascension and declination of each of the principal planets, is given for the 1st and 15th of each month. (m signifies morning.)

THE POLE STAR.—The time when the Pole Star is on the meridian, is given for the 15th of each month, being the hour when it is due north. U signifies Upper Culmination—L, signifies Lower Culmination. The greatest elongation of the Pole Star from the meridian, varies with the latitude of the place: it is about 2 deg. 4 m. at Toronto, 2 deg. 8 m. 5 s. at Montreal, increasing at the rate of 1 m. 5 s. for every degree of latitude between 40 deg. and 50 deg. To find the hour when it is on the meridian at any other date, multiply 3 m. 55 s. 9 s. by the interval in days,—add the product, if for a date before the 15th; subtract it, if for a date after the 15th.

Twilight begins in the morning, when the Sun is about 18 degrees below the horizon, and ends in the evening, when it is eighteen degrees beyond it. The mean time for beginning and ending for every tenth day will be found at page 58, together with the time of the Sun's rising and setting at Quebec, Fredricton & Halifax.

SEMI-DIURNAL ARCS.—This table is useful for determining the times of rising and setting of the heavenly bodies. Enter the table with the declination of the object; under the proper column for the locality will be found half the time which the object remains above the horizon, which is to be subtracted from the time of its meridian passage, if the time of rising is required, or added, for the time of setting.

Example.—Required the time of rising for the Planet Jupiter, at Montreal, June 16th, 1851, Declination of Jupiter 7 deg.

THE METEOROLOGICAL NOTICES for this year are derived from a journal kept with great care from 1831 to the present time, by the Rev. C. Dale, in or near Toronto, and kindly communicated by that gentleman, with accompanying remarks, of which we have freely availed ourselves. We regret that our limits have not permitted anything like a full use of the valuable and elaborate tables in which the results of his observations are embodied. A contribution towards a juster knowledge of the climate of Upper Canada are valuable in themselves, and will be regarded with interest for the extension they give to the public records of H. M. Observatory, to which we have in previous Almanacs had recourse. The present series, however, has the peculiar advantage of having been commenced nine years before the date of that establishment, and continued for several years contemporaneously with it. Such fictions as the crossing Lake Ontario on an ice-boat (De Roo's Travels p. 112-3) are perhaps not often related by travellers of the present day, but exaggerations scarcely better founded have astonished Canadian readers of very recent works. The compilers of books of geography in particular have been frequently led into error by extending to the whole of Canada the accounts of early writers, who referred exclusively to Quebec and its neighbourhood. There can be little doubt that this misrepresentation has had an injurious effect by discouraging a valuable class of intending settlers; it is therefore important to seize every occasion of correcting it by showing to such parties that there is nothing in the climate of Upper Canada which need be viewed with apprehension by natives of Great Britain.

Lowest and Highest Readings of Thermometer at 8 A.M., and Noon, together with the approximate Mean Temperature for each year since 1831 at Toronto.

Year.	Lowest.	Highest.	Mean.	Year.	Lowest.	Highest.	Mean.	Year.	Lowest.	Highest.	Mean.

1835	-15	84	42.0	1840	-11	84	43.7	1845	-2	94	44.3

The approximate means are derived from observations at 8 a. m. alone, and are below the true mean of the twenty-four hours by 1.3 deg. on an average of seven years, which quantity must therefore be added to all of them. The lowest and highest temperatures are also within the true extremes, which would be better given by observations at 7 and 3 p. m. Taking the number of days in each year in which the thermometer at 8 a. m. indicated frost, we have the following distribution:—

Year.	Zero or below.	0-10	10-20	20-32	Total.	Year.	Zero or below.	0-10	10-20	20-32	Total.
1831	8	22	37	45	112	1837	9	10	31	71	121

1836	11	15	34	80	140	1842	0	6	21	68	95

The average of which is 112 days of frost at 8 a. m. during the year. The winds at Toronto are divided into three prevailing classes, namely North-west, South-west and East; the first prevail most from November to March, and with this wind the greatest degree of cold takes place, and the greatest variations of temperature. The south-west wind prevails from May to October, and brings the greatest heat. Easterly winds predominate in March, April, May, June, August, September and October, and are accompanied by rain or snow. The average number of observations for each month is as follows:—

MONTHS.	N. W.	S. W.	E.	MONTHS.	N. W.	S. W.	E.	MONTHS.	N. W.	S. W.	E.

April.....	7	10	13	August.....	5	14	12	December....	12	10	9 giving an average of 97 days from N W, 139 days from S W, and 129 days from E. Taking broader division again, Westerly winds are to Easterly in the proportion of 236 to 129, or as 9 to 5 nearly. The average number of days of rain and snow in the several months is given in the next table, together with the average quantity of rain which was received in the observer's rain gauge: there can be no doubt, however that this quantity is much too low for the station. We have annexed to Mr. Dade's results the average quantities given in the Canadian Almanac for last year; the former comprise the years from 1834 to 1841, and give an average annual quantity of only 22.02 inches; the latter from 1840 to 1842, and give an average annual quantity of 32.50 inches.

We must conclude these notices by a short account of the winters of 1835-6 and of 1841-2, which were extremes of their respective kinds, and well adapted to illustrate the fluctuations of the climate of Upper Canada. The winter of 1835-6 may be said to have commenced Nov. 23rd, with them, at 23 deg., gale from East and heavy snow. On Dec. 1, Toronto bay was frozen over, being about a fortnight earlier than usual. The temperature of Dec. was as follows:—3 days below zero: 9 between 10 deg. and 20 deg.; 15 between 20 deg. and 32 deg.; and 4 from 32 deg. to 40 deg. January 1836 was not remarkable for severity, the minimum being only 2 deg. and maximum 15 deg.; this mildness was however compensated by the rigour of the succeeding month, in which there were no less than seven days below zero, and only one above the freezing point at 8 a. m. The minimum was 29 deg., and the range of the mercury during the month 68 deg. in the shade. The following table gives the temperature for the first six days of February 1836, at the hours of 8 a. m., noon, and 5 p. m., the wind being N W the whole time.

	8 a. m.	Noon.	5 p. m.		8 a. m.	Noon.	5 p. m.
February 1.....	0	0	0	February 1.....	0	0	0
" 2.....	—7	Zero.	—3	" 2.....	—10	—1	Zero.
" 3.....	—13	Zero.	3	" 3.....	—20	4	3
" 4.....	2	14	9	" 4.....	—15	12	10

March was likewise unusually severe. On April 2nd the ice in the bay was 2½ feet thick, and about the middle of the month, a vessel in crossing from Niagara fell in with a large field of ice in the open lake. There was a heavy snow storm on the 13th, and the bay was not clear of ice until the 25th of April. This winter may be said to have continued 153 days, which may be classed as follows. Temperature at 8 a. m.

At or below zero. .... 13 days, 32 deg. to 40 deg. .... 25 days.
 0 deg. to 10. deg. .... 15 " 40 " to 50 " .... 4 "
 10 " to 20 " .... 35 " 50 " to 60 " .... 1 "
 20 " to 32 " .... 62

During the whole period there fell no more than 1½ inches of rain; the number of days of snow was 34, of which 13 were due to February alone. We have here then an example of the utmost rigour of the winter of Upper Canada. In contrast to 1836, the lowest temperature of the winter of 1841-2, at 8 a. m., was 5 deg., and on Feb. 23, at noon, the thermometer stood at 55 deg. Fog and rain early, then fair, with warm close weather. On Jan. 29 was the unusual occurrence of thunder with heavy showers, as also on Feb. 4. The ice was gone from Toronto bay on the 17th March, and the spring was proportionally advanced. On the other hand, this mild winter was followed by a cool summer, the mean temperature of May, June and July having each been below the average, and that of June the lowest observed.

COUNTIES, CANADA WEST.

The following lists of the several Counties and unions of Counties in Canada West shew the Townships, Villages and Towns, comprised in each. The Cities form Counties by themselves. It is likely that changes will be made in the composition of some of the Counties, as there is now a Bill for that purpose under the consideration of the Legislature. Should it pass the changes will be noted in another part of the Almanac. The subjoined lists also contain the names of the various Corporate and other Officers. The Elections take place simultaneously in all the Municipalities on the first Monday in January, in each year. See Act 12 Vic. Cap. 81. The population is only partially given in the annexed lists, on account of the census returns from most of the places not having been received. [26th July, 1850.]

Vendors of Temperance Tracts, &amp;c.

The Act 13 & 14 Vic. cap. 7, declares, that notwithstanding anything contained in the Acts of Parliament in force relating to hawkers and peddlers, it shall not be necessary for persons in the employ of any Temperance, Benevolent or Religious Society in this province to take out licences as hawkers or peddlers, in order to enable them lawfully to sell and peddle temperance tracts, and other moral and religious publications, under the direction of such society.

Land Scrip.

The Act 13 & 14 Vic. cap. 16, passed 10th August, 1850, declares "that no land scrip heretofore issued, or that may hereafter be issued under the authority of any act, ordinance, or law in force in this province, shall be redeemable by the Provincial Government, or receivable in payment upon sales, or for deferred payments of instalments or other dues of or upon public lands or otherwise, unless the same be presented and offered in payment at the office of the Commissioner of Crown Lands, or at the office of one of his agents, within one year from the passing of this act: and all such scrip which shall not be presented and offered in payment within the period aforesaid shall be null and void; any act, ordinance or law to the contrary notwithstanding."

Customs.

The Act 13 & 14 Vic. cap. 5, empowers the Governor in Council from time to time to order any article not enumerated in the schedule to the Customs' Amendment Act (12 Vic. cap. 1), and thereby made subject to a duty of 12½ per cent. ad valorem, to be placed among the articles subject to a duty of 2½ per cent. ad valorem. The 2½ per cent. duty, and no other, shall be payable on such article, so long as the order in Council remains in force.

Interprovincial Free Trade.

Reciprocal free trade has been some time established between Canada, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, by Acts of the several Legislatures, in articles of the growth, produce or manufacture of these provinces respectively. By the Canadian Act, 13 & 14 Vic. cap. 3, the Governor in Council is empowered from time to time to declare, that any article whatever, when of the growth, produce or manufacture of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward's Island and Newfoundland, or of any one or more of them, is or is not admissible into this province free from duty, and under what circumstances, conditions and regulations.

British Copyright Works.

The Act 13 & 14 Vic. cap. 6, empowers the Governor in Council to impose an ad valorem duty, not exceeding 20 per cent., upon foreign reprints of British Works, wherein the copyright shall be subsisting, and with regard to which the notice to the Commissioners of Customs, required by the Imperial Act, shall have been given; and from time to time to alter the duty (but not to exceed the 20 per cent.) and establish such regulations and conditions as may be consistent with any Imperial Act then in force, and as he may deem requisite and equitable with regard to the admission of such books, and to the distribution of the proceeds of such duty among the parties beneficially interested in the copyright. The act to come in force when approved of by the Queen in Council, and proclamation is made in the province of such approval, and not before.

Division of Counties.

The Bill referred to at the top of page 33, for a new Division of certain Counties in Upper Canada, did not pass the Legislature.

CANALS IN CANADA.

From the Report of James Stewart, Civil Engineer, to the Board of Works, in 1848.

WELLAND CANAL.—This Canal extends from Lake Erie to Lake Ontario, and overcomes the interruption to the navigation caused by the Falls of Niagara. It has two entrances from Lake Erie, about seventeen miles apart; the upper entrance being from the Grand River, a little above Port Maitland, about thirty-seven miles west from Buffalo, and the lower at Port Colborne, about twenty miles west from Buffalo. It also communicates with the Grand River by a branch commencing on that stream at Dunville, five miles above Port Maitland, through which branch the whole canal has hitherto been supplied with water. The termination on Lake Ontario is at Port Dalhousie. The Port Maitland entrance has an advantage in spring over the Port Colborne, in being clear of ice several weeks before either that or Buffalo Harbour.

The work was originally undertaken by a Company, for which an Act was obtained in the year 1824, with a capital of £37,500. The Canal then contemplated was a small one, and meant to extend from a point on Lake Ontario to the Chippewa or Welland River only, down which vessels would proceed to the Niagara and then ascend that River to Lake Erie. In 1825 another Act was passed providing for the enlargement of the work. It was then proposed that the Canal should not, as before terminate at the Chippewa, but that vessels from Lake Ontario, on reaching that stream, should proceed upwards to a point on its south branch, from whence another canal would be cut to join Lake Erie at the mouth of the Grand River, thus opening a direct communication between the waters of the two Lakes. The summit level was to be at the Chippewa, from which therefore the Canal would be supplied with water; but some difficulties having occurred in excavating what is called the "Deep Cut" to the necessary level, that intention was abandoned, and a small canal, to serve as a feeder, and which would also be navigable for boats, extending from a point a little south of the Chippewa to Dunville on the Grand River, was substituted. The Canal from the south branch of the Chippewa to the mouth of the Grand River was also abandoned, and a shorter route adopted from the junction of the feeder, to Port Colborne on Lake Erie. The Company under the new Act was authorised to raise a sum of £200,000, which, in 1834, was extended to £250,000, and a portion of this stock, amounting to £115,000, as stated in certain documents of that date, but in later ones at £117,800 was taken by private individuals. In a despatch of the Secretary of State to the Governor of Upper Canada, dated the 30th September, 1826, the estimate on the extended plan appears to have been £147,240, of which the Imperial Government agreed to pay £16,360, or one ninth, for the free passage of vessels with public stores, being about the same proportion as was paid in the case of the Lachine Canal: but this arrangement was altered afterwards, and a loan substituted. The work was commenced on the 30th November, 1824; the trunk from Lake Ontario to where the feeder joins it, and the feeder terminating on the Grand River, were opened on the 30th of November, 1829: and the trunk from the junction to Port Colborne, in 1832. The general width of the canal was twenty-six feet on bottom, and about fifty-six feet at top water-line, with eight feet depth of water. In the "Deep Cut" the breadth on bottom was fifteen feet, and at top water-line forty-three feet. The number of locks was thirty-nine, all of wood: from Lake Erie to St. Catharines they were 100 feet long and 22 feet wide, with seven feet of water on the miter-sills; below St. Catharines they had the same depth of water on the sills, but were 125 feet long by 32 wide.

In the end of the year 1834 the accounts appear to have stood thus:—

At the beginning of the year 1837 the accounts stood thus:—

At the end of 1837 therefore, the accounts would probably stand thus:—

The expenditure on works to about the same period is stated in a document of Mr. Macanlay's, President of the Welland Canal Company, dated 12th February, 1838, and printed in the proceedings of the Assembly of Upper Canada, to be—

In 1839, an Act was passed authorising the Government of Upper Canada to purchase the Stock of private stockholders, by an issue of Debitments, redeemable in twenty years from their date, bearing interest at the rate of two per cent. for the two first years, three per cent. for the third year, four per cent. for the fourth, five per cent. for the fifth, and six per cent. for the sixth and following years;—and so soon as parties owning two-thirds of the Stock should have agreed to the terms, to assume the entire responsibility and management of the work thereafter, which arrangement was, in about two years, carried out accordingly. No statement has been found of the total sum expended on the Canal up to the period when it came entirely under the control of the Government, but it, probably, was very near £500,000, without reckoning the expenditure annually made from the tolls.

The enlargement of the entire work was commenced in 1841, and is not yet completed. A detailed estimate of the expense has not been obtained, but in a memorandum submitted to the Governor General, dated the 12th August, 1841, £150,000 is put down as an approximation to the cost, and this seems to have been the amount of the first grant made by the Legislature. Under this grant, the locks were to be of stone, 120 feet long by 24 feet wide, with  $\frac{8}{9}$  feet of water on the sill, excepting one at Port Dalhousie, and another at Broad Creek, which were to be steamboat locks, 200 feet long by 45 feet wide, with nine feet water on the sill; and the supply of water necessary for the navigation and machinery was to be drawn, as formerly, from the Grand River, the summit level of the Canal thus remaining unchanged. It was afterwards thought desirable to enlarge the smaller locks to 150 feet long by 26 feet 6 inches wide, with  $8\frac{1}{2}$  feet of water on the sill, and also to enlarge the trunk of the Canal, and alter the curves, to suit the increased size of vessels that would enter the enlarged locks; to reduce the summit level low enough to allow the water of Lake Erie to flow through the Canal, from which Lake, therefore, both it and the machinery would in future be supplied, and to substitute a sternboat lock between Port Dalhousie and St. Catharines, and another at Port Colborne, in place of the small ones previously contemplated. It was considered by the Engineer in charge at the time, that these improvements might be made without exceeding the sum of £300,000, being the amount then appropriated; and the large excess of expenditure has been explained as arising mainly from the great difficulty both of estimating the extent of work required, and of ascertaining the cost when carried on in connection with an old canal much out of repair, and the navigation through which having to be always maintained, the two works continually interfered with each other. It will be seen from the tabular statement of canals, that the expenditure on the enlargement of this one, up to the Dec. 31, 1848, was £323,043 7s. 8d.; and that £312,350 is the sum estimated as required to complete it fully, making upwards of £1,100,000 for both the old and new work.

CORNWALL CANAL.—The object of this Canal is to overcome the difficulties to the navigation of the St. Lawrence, presented by the Long Sault Rapids. Operations were commenced in 1831, under local Commissioners, appointed by an Act of the Legislature of Upper Canada, and suspended in 1838, when the work was well advanced, for want of funds. Up to this period the expense was defrayed by the Government of the Upper Province. In 1842, the operations were resumed, under the direction of the Board of Works. The Canal was partially opened in December of that year, and completed in June, 1843; but various slides and breaches have since occurred, which it has taken a considerable outlay to repair. The locks are the largest in Canada, having a chamber 200 feet long and 55 feet wide, in the clear; the depth of water on the sills being nine feet, as in the other large Canals of the Province.

The original estimate for this work, as stated in Mr. Killaly's Report on the Public Works of Canada, dated April, 1846, was £191,993.

In the end of 1835, when work to the amount of £95,797 was calculated to have been done, the total cost, including that sum, was estimated in the Report of the Canal Commissioners, at £232,216.

By Mr. Killaly's above Report, there was actually expended under the Commissioners £410,997.*

And there has since been expended by Government, up to the 31st of December, 1848, £75,600, making altogether £515,697.

* In a Report of the Select Committee to the House of Assembly, dated 30th January, 1840, and which is the last public document that has been found relating to the work while under the charge of Commissioners, the expenditure up to the end of 1830 is stated at £356,570. The books kept for the Commissioners show the following expenditure for each year up to the end of 1839—

|           | £       | s. | d.              |
|-----------|---------|----|-----------------|
| 1831..... | 31,429  | 15 | 6               |
| 1835..... | 85,949  | 12 | 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ |
| 1836..... | 82,821  | 13 | 6               |
| 1837..... | 117,421 | 19 | 10              |
| 1838..... | 33,676  | 17 | 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ |
| 1839..... | 7,931   | 9  | 9 $\frac{1}{2}$ |

Total. . . . £362,134 11 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

At this period a sum of £5,215 15s. 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. was due on outstanding notes given by the Commissioners to Contractors. In 1840 the books show an expenditure of only a few pounds, while none is shown either in 1811 or 1842.

WILLIAMSBURG CANALS.—These are a series of four short Canals and six locks, lying between Prescott and Dickenson's Landing, constructed for the purpose of overcoming the rapids at the Galops, Point Iroquois, Rapid Plat, and Parren's Point. They were commenced in 1843; the first of them finished in November, 1846, and the last in October, 1847. Since then, farther works have been found necessary, some, if not all, of which will be finished for the navigation of 1849, and they will be carried on so as not to interfere with the navigation.

BEAUHARNOIS CANAL.—The Beauharnois Canal, extending from the lower end of Lake St. Francis, nearly opposite Coteau du Lac, to the head of Lake St. Louis, overcomes the rapids of the Coteau, the Cedars, and the Cascades. It was commenced in 1812, and finished in the autumn of 1845. Farther works have been found necessary, some, if not all, of which, will be finished for the navigation of 1849; and they will be carried on so as not to interfere with the navigation.

LACHINE CANAL.—This Canal extends from the village of Lachine, at the foot of Lake St. Louis, to the city of Montreal, overcoming the various rapids in the St. Lawrence between the two places.

The following particulars regarding the old Canal have been obtained from a statement, dated Montreal, 19th March, 1843, and signed F. Griffin. The work was commenced in 1821, under the Provincial statute, 1 Geo. IV. c. 6. The Canal was partially opened in 1824, and completed in 1825, at an expense of £108,601 0s. 9 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. currency. (In a Report of the Directors of the Welland Canal, dated the 31st December, 1829, the cost is stated at £120,000.) The funds were furnished by the Government of Lower Canada with the exception of £10,000, contributed by the Military Government, to secure a free passage for troops, stores, &c. (In a despatch from the Secretary of State to the Governor of Upper Canada, dated the 30th September, 1826, it is stated that £12,000 was granted by the Imperial Government.) The length of the Canal is eight miles and 718 yards; its breadth at bottom twenty-eight feet, at top water line in rock excavation thirty-six, and in earth excavation forty-eight feet. The prescribed depth was for vessels drawing four and a half feet water, but those drawing five, and even five feet three inches, have passed through. There are seven locks, all of cut stone, 100 feet long by 20 feet wide in the clear. The Guard Lock at Lachine has usually no lift; the two next have a lift of six feet each; the three next of eight feet each; and the remaining one, the entrance lock at Montreal, a lift of nine feet; making forty-five feet altogether. There are three culverts and fourteen bridges. The earliest period at which the navigation ever opened was on the 8th of April, in the year 1828, and the latest period at which it closed, the 8th December, 1830; but on an average of years, the 15th April may be reckoned as the period of opening, and the 15th November as that of closing the Canal.

The enlargement of this work began in the end of 1843. It was sufficiently advanced in the spring of 1848, to allow the passage of vessels, and will be completed in 1849. The general dimensions are calculated for the same size of vessels as the Beauharnois and Williamsburg Canals, but the two locks at the Montreal terminus have each a depth of sixteen feet water on the sills, to allow of large sea-going vessels passing into the second basin, which it is proposed to excavate to a corresponding depth at a future period, the first basin having been deepened already.

CHAMBLAY CANAL.—The Chamblay Canal extends from St. Johns to Chamblay, a distance of about eleven and a half miles, and was made to overcome the interruptions in the channel of the Richelieu, between the two places. It forms the chief portion of the works necessary to connect the navigation of the River St. Lawrence, by way of the Richelieu, with that of Lake Champlain. At a period not later than the year 1819, a private company was organized for the construction of a canal at Chamblay, and an instalment of five per cent. on each share, was paid to cover the expense of preliminary examinations; but the proposal seems to have lain over, and ultimately to have been dropped without any practical result. The work, as finally undertaken, was authorized by the 3 Geo. IV. c. 41, which provided for the advance of £60,000 currency, from the funds of the Province of Lower Canada, for the completion of a Canal from Chambly Basin to St. Johns. The original estimate appears to have been about £50,000, and although Captain Melhuish, of the Royal Engineers, considered it as much too low, and stated £90,745 as the amount that would probably be required, the Commissioners under whose directions the operations were commenced and carried on, placed reliance on the smaller sum, and actually let the whole work for £46,218. It was begun on the 1st October, 1831, and carried on till the autumn of 1835, when although the Canal was very far from being completed, not only the original appropriation of £60,000, but a farther one of £6,000, made by the 3 Wm. IV. c. 30, for enlarging the locks, were found to be exhausted, and the work was in consequence stopped. At this period it was estimated that £20,000 would be required to finish the Canal, and again in 1839 when about £5,000, advanced by the Provincial Government, had been spent in upholding and repairing the work, it was estimated that £29,900 would be required. Authority was granted by the 2 Vic. c. 61 to borrow £30,000 for this purpose, but the money could not be raised on the terms specified, and nothing was done beyond the ordinary repairs, until a new power to borrow £35,000 on the security of the Province of Lower Canada, was conferred by the 3 Vic. c. 21. In 1840, the operations were resumed on this new appropriation, but about April 1842, it became apparent that even that would be insufficient, and a further sum of £12,000 was craved to complete the work. Advances exceeding that amount were made from time to time through the Board of Works, from the funds of the province of Canada, and ultimately the canal was finished and opened in 1843. The outlay up to the 30th June of that year may be stated approximately, at £120,204; disbursed as under:—

From the suspension of operations in 1835 up to 1840, the Canal was used between St. Johns and the combined Locks at Chambly only, and yielded a revenue of about £500 gross; while, from 1840 to 1843, as there is no return of revenue, it was probably out of use. There are nine locks all of stone, 120 feet long by 24 feet wide, and six feet of water on the mitre sills.

St. Ours Lock, &c.—This Lock is in the river Richelieu, at the foot of the artificial navigation, about fourteen miles from its mouth, and with a dam raises the water above it sufficiently to overcome the shallow portions of the stream, and afford a free passage to Chambly Basin. In conjunction therefore with the Chambly Canal, this Lock opens a communication between the St. Lawrence at Sorel and Lake Champlain; while, by the Northern Canal, the communication is continued from Whitehall to the navigable waters of the Hudson near Troy. At the site of the work the Richelieu is divided into two deep channels by a small island, in the eastern and narrowest of which the lock is built, while the dam extends across the western. The work was begun in the autumn of 1844, but in consequence of various hindrances, will not be finished until 1849. The length of the lock is 200 feet, by a width of 45 feet, with six feet of water on the sill. At the head it is joined to the shores by an embankment. The dam is about 600 feet long, formed of cribs filled with stone, and is connected with the shores by hammer dressed abutments.

St. Ann's Lock.—This Lock is situated on one of the branches of the River Ottawa, between the Village of St. Ann's and Isle Perrot, about twenty-five miles west of Montreal. It overcomes the St. Ann's Rapids, and thus, in conjunction with the Lachine and the Ottawa Military Canals, opens a communication from Montreal to Bytown, and thence by the Rideau Canal to Kingston. It was begun in the autumn of 1839, and completed in June, 1843. The Lock is 190 feet long by 45 feet wide, with 7 feet of water on the sill in the ordinary state of the river during summer, and 6 feet at its very lowest state.

DESJARDINES CANAL.—On the 30th of January, 1826, an Act passed the Legislature of Upper Canada, incorporating a company for the construction of a Canal, for sloops and other vessels of burthen from Burlington Bay to the Village of Cootes Paradise, with a capital of £10,000, which work is now known as the Desjardins Canal. It extends from a point at the head of Burlington Bay, about two miles north of Hamilton, to the Town of Dundas, and is, including the natural and artificial navigation, between three and four miles in length. The depth of water proposed was eight feet.

The Canal was opened on the 10th of August, 1837, for vessels drawing 7½ feet water; and, according to a Report of the Directors, dated the 2nd May, 1840, cost £24,671.

The money advanced by Government to the company is as follows:—

This loan bears interest at 6 per cent., of which there remained unpaid at the 31st of December, 1839, £2,573 11s. 2d.; at the 31st Dec., 1844, £7,973 11s. 2d.; and at the 31st December, 1848, supposing nothing has been paid in the interval, £12,033 11s. 2d.—making a total sum of £29,033 11s. 2d. due Government at the latter date.

It thus appears that the Canal has been far from profitable, which the Directors of the Company attribute to the work having been constructed on too small a scale. In 1840, it was stated by them that only boats of thirty tons could navigate it; and in 1845, there was no more than five feet of water in some parts of it. On the 22nd of May, 1840, the Directors, in a memorial to the Lieutenant-Governor of Upper Canada, proposed to surrender to her Majesty's Government the whole property and interest of the Stockholders in the said Canal until such time as the sum due Government was repaid; and on the 19th of June, 1841, the Directors again made the same offer to Lord Sydenham, but without success. In 1845 and 1846, estimates were made by the Board of Works for enlarging and completing the Canal, but the works were not undertaken. The estimates were for an enlargement from a breadth of 60 to a breadth of 100 feet at the surface, with twelve feet depth of water, and embraced two methods; the first, by following the present canal, and the line of the Creek, to Fish Point, a distance of 3 68-80 miles, at a cost of £31,593; the second, by following the present Canal for about two miles from Dundas, and then passing through the Burlington Heights in the direction of Fish Point, reducing the distance to 2 69-80 miles, but at a cost of £59,083.

GEOLOGICAL SURVEY OF CANADA.

The origin, progress and results, up to the present time, of this interesting work is given in the following brief abstract drawn from the most authentic sources:—

In January, 1832, a petition from Dr. Rae, praying for pecuniary assistance in prosecution of a geological and statistical survey of the Province was sent down by message to the Legislative Assembly, with a favourable recommendation from His Excellency Sir John Colborne, Lt. Gov. of Upper Canada. It was read and referred to the Committee of Supply, but not considered.

In December, 1832, a petition from the York Literary and Philosophical Society, praying that a sum of money might be granted to provide for an investigation of the Geology, Mineralogy, and Natural History of the Province, was presented to the Legislative Assembly of Upper Canada. It was read and referred to the Committee of Supply, but was not considered.

In February, 1836, on the motion of Mr. W. L. Mackenzie, seconded by Mr. Durand, Messrs. R. G. Dunlop, Gibson and C. Duncombe were named a select committee to consider and report on a plan for a Geological Survey of the Province. Three hundred copies of this report were ordered to be printed, and it was referred to the Committee of Supply, but it was not considered.

In November, 1836, Mr. R. G. Dunlop gave notice of a motion for leave to bring in a Bill for the purpose of instituting a geological examination of the Province, but the bill was not proceeded with.

In November, 1836, on the motion of Mr. R. G. Dunlop, seconded by Col. Prince, the House went into a committee of the whole to consider the expediency of a geological survey, and, on their report being received, it was resolved that an address should be presented to His Excellency the Lt. Governor, (Sir F. B. Head,) to ascertain whether there were any means at his disposal to effect a geological survey of the Province. The address was ordered to be drafted, but was not reported.

In December, 1836, Mr. R. G. Dunlop gave notice that he would move an address to His Majesty for a grant of wild lands to defray the expense of a geological survey of the Province, but no address was presented.

To Lord Sydenham, who well appreciated the importance of an examination into the mineral resources of Canada, the country is indebted for the commencement of the geological survey which has been instituted.

In July, 1841, in the first united parliament, a petition from the Natural History Society of Montreal, praying for aid to carry out a systematic geological survey of the Province, was presented by Mr. B. Holmes. It was referred to a select committee consisting of Messrs. Holmes, Neilson, Quesnel, Merritt, and the Hon. Mr. Kilbaly, but it was not reported on. A similar petition was presented by Mr. Black, from the Literary and Historical Society of Quebec, which was read. The Government took up the matter, and on the motion of the Hon. S. B. Harrison the sum of £1500 for the purposes of a survey was introduced into the estimates.

In 1842, Sir Charles Bagot appointed two geologists, Mr. W. E. Logan, F. G. S., principal, and Mr. A. Murray, assistant, to carry the survey into operation, and the investigation was commenced 1st May, 1843.

To Lord Metcalfe is due the credit of a more systematic continuance of the survey. In March, 1845, under the administration of the Hon. Mr. Draper, Mr. Attorney General Smith brought before parliament a bill, which was supported by all parties and passed into an act without a dissentient voice, (8 Vic. cap. 16,) making a provision of £2000 per annum for 5 years, for a complete examination of the rocks, soils, and minerals of the Province. For the purpose of analyzing minerals, ores, mineral waters, and soils, a chemist was attached to the survey.

The area of Canada, according to Bouchette, is 331,250 square miles. It was not to be expected that 3 persons could examine the whole of this in the time which elapsed from the commencement of the survey to the expiration of the 8 Vic. cap. 16, (March, 1850,) and Lord Elgin, who, from the circumstance of his own family estates being so extensively enriched with mineral deposits, must be well acquainted with the importance of geological investigations, was no doubt favorable to a continuation of the Canadian examination, and therefore well pleased that the present administration should renew the act, which they did (again without a dissentient voice being raised in the Legislature,) during the last session of parliament, for 5 years more.

The districts examined, according to the reports of progress that have been published, are as follows:—

The Canadian coast and islands of Lake Superior and two rivers on the north shore for distances of 40 and 60 miles up.

The Canadian coast and islands on Lake Huron with distances of 20 to 70 miles up 4 principal tributary rivers on the north shore.

The coast of the lower part of Lake Erie and the upper part of Lake Ontario, as well as the country back from Toronto to the exit of Lake Simcoe and Matchedash Bay.

The Ottawa from its mouth near Montreal to the head of Lake Temiscamang, a distance of 400 miles, with many of its tributaries on the right bank for distances of 20 to 40 miles up.

The Eastern Townships from the Richelieu to the Chaudiere River.

The country between the Chaudiere River and the Temiscanata Portage road.

The coast of the Gaspé peninsula from the Metis road round by Cape Gaspé and Isle Perce to the mouth of the Matapedia River a distance of about 800 miles, with several sections across the peninsula from the St. Lawrence to the Bay Chaleur.

From this it would appear that there still remain to be examined the following districts:—

The region on the south side of the St. Lawrence between the Temiscanata and Metis roads.

The whole of the north shore of the St. Lawrence, including the Island of Anticosti, from Labrador to Quebec, with the exception of Murray Bay and Bay St. Paul.

The north shore of the St. Lawrence from Quebec to Montreal.

The same from the Cascades to Kingston, including various parts of the interior between the St. Lawrence and the Ottawa.

The country between Kingston and Lake Simcoe, extending back to the Mattawa.

The interior of the peninsula between Lakes Huron and Erie.

The whole of the region extending along the height of land separating Canada from the Hudson Bay Territory in the entire length of the Province.

A large and valuable collection of specimens has been made to illustrate the following districts:—the districts examined, which is preserved at the office of the survey, for the present at No. 10, Little St. James-street, Montreal; a full suit of these specimens is intended to form the nucleus of a provincial museum, and the duplicates, after they have served the purposes of the survey, are to be distributed among such educational establishments of both sections of the Province as the Government may determine.

It being impossible to understand the true bearing and relation of geological facts as parts of a whole unless their geographical position is accurately ascertained, and so large a portion of Canada being still unsurveyed topographically, it has been necessary for the geologists to measure extensive lines of exploration, and the maps resulting from these topographical measurements have proved of great value to the Crown Land Department. To this collateral work on the geological survey we are indebted for the chief part of what we know of the interior of the peninsula of Gaspé, where six rivers have been measured,—the Matanne, the Chate, the St. Ann, the St. John, the Bonaventure, and the Great Caspédia. From it also we have the course of the Kamanistiquia and the Michipicoten rivers on Lake Superior; the Thessalon, the Mississague, the Spanish and the French rivers on Lake Huron; in addition to 150 miles of the Ottawa, and 40 miles (the whole of its length) of the Mattawa. These measurements are effected by Rochon's micrometer, an instrument by which much time is saved; and, as showing how far it may be depended on, it may be mentioned that the Mattawa having been re-surveyed by Mr. Sinclair, a Provincial Surveyor, by the chain, by order of the late Commissioner of Crown Lands, Mr. D. B. Papineau, the map resulting from the re-survey is almost a complete counterpart of the other. The map of the Ottawa is used in the Crown Land Office for the distribution of timber limits, for that part of the river represented by it.

Mr. Hunt, the chemist attached to the survey, was appointed three years since, and as the results of his labours, in addition to the analyses of a great multitude of useful metallic ores and other minerals, we have those of thirty valuable mineral springs, and, by the last report of progress, it will be perceived that a commencement has been made upon the soils of the country: with great diligence 15 soils were completed last winter.

It would extend our notice of the geological survey to too great length for the limits of this publication, were we to attempt a description of the geographical distribution of the formations of the Province as far as ascertained, and show how these formations present concentric zones, encircling the great coal fields spread out in the middle and western states on the one hand, and our sister provinces on the other, with a wider and a wider sweep in their range as they descend in the order in which they are placed upon one another, the whole being arranged after the manner of a nest of weights or of irregularly rimmed but close fitting dishes one within another, the edges of which constitute the geographic surface; the edges of the lower dishes only strike through Canada, and thus leave it without coal. To make this perfectly intelligible would require such a model of the forms as has been constructed by Mr. Logan, and was exhibited here to the members of the Legislature during the last session. In preference we give below, as containing much information in a small space, a catalogue of some of the minerals and deposits of the Province, capable of useful application, prepared by Mr. Logan, for the purpose of promoting a collection of native specimens to be sent to the grand Industrial Exhibition in London, in May, 1851, and appended to the last report of progress, that for 1849-50.

We would first, however, wish to show the importance attached to geological examinations by giving a few facts connected with that of the State of New York. The area of New York is 46,240 square miles, and on the geological survey there instituted, 4 principal geologists, and 4 assistants, were employed, besides a chemist and a palæontologist, to examine and describe fossil organic remains. The examination of the geographic distribution of the rocks required five years. The act establishing the geological survey, comprehended also a general examination of the natural history of the State, including a description of its quadrupeds, birds, fishes, shells, insects and plants, and naturalists were appointed for all the separate branches. The works resulting from all these investigations, of which a copy in 15 volumes was presented by the State to the library of the Provincial Legislature, and unfortunately burned in Montreal, are too well known to require mention. Though the examination of the geographical distribution of the rocks was so far complete in 5 years as to permit the publication of a geological map of the State, the fossils belonging to them (which are of great importance as affording brands or marks by means of which to follow out the formations, and therefore the useful materials associated with them) required farther investigation, and 5 years more have been bestowed on them and on the examination and analyses of soils. The works connected with these branches are beginning to appear; one volume on each branch has been published, and several more are to follow. Up to the termination of the year 1849, the sum which had been expended by the State on these investigations exceeded $300,000, and it was stated to be the intention of the Government to propose a further outlay of $125,000, the only debate being whether $100,000 should be voted at once, and $25,000 more when that should be exhausted, or an annual sum of $25,000 for 5 successive years.

In the United States the geology of about 500,000 square miles of territory has been placed before the world by the investigations of about 70 geologists in a period of 20 years; and the exact knowledge of the mineral resources of the States which these investigations, and the publications connected with them, have produced in foreign countries, has been instrumental in introducing a great amount of capital to make them available. The investigations have been of vast importance, not only in showing where useful materials do exist, but also in marking where they do not; pointing out where capital may be profitably employed in the one case, and saved in the other by preventing useless search. The negative results are of value chiefly in regard to coal; upwards of half a million dollars were expended in the State of New York, a large part in the valley of the Mohawk, in researches for coal in black bituminous shales, which, shortly after the geological survey commenced, were shown to run a long way below it; and the eminent geologist Sir R. J. Murchison, computes that the money expended in England alone, before geology was understood, in searching for coal where it would now be considered madness to expect it, would be sufficient to effect a correct general geological examination of the whole crust of the globe.

GRINDING AND POLISHING MATERIALS.

MILL STONES—The localities of granitic and syenitic boulders strewed about the country, and used for mill stones, are too numerous and too accidental to be stated; these boulders are derived chiefly from the granitic or gneissoid rocks, which range on the north side of the Ottawa and St. Lawrence, from Lake Superior to Labrador. Independent of them various rocks in situ are and may be used for the purpose, such as—Silicious Conglomerate—Vaudreuil Seignior, Cascades and Pointe du Grand Detroit; Ham, range 11, lot 10; Port Daniel, at L'Ance à la Veille. Granular and Corneous Quartz Rock—This rock accompanies the serpentine of the Eastern Townships, (for the range of which see Marble,) and occurs in too many places to be enumerated; a good sample has been obtained by the Hon. Some parts of the Potsdam sandstone have been used for the purpose, as in Allumettes, at the Allumettes Falls; and in Fitzroy, at Shirrell's mills. Some parts of the Gaspé sandstone, in Gaspé Bay, would yield grindstones, but though these might prove the best of the Canadian stones, none of them would equal those of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, or those of Newcastle, in England.

ABSTRACT OF ACTS.

Municipal Corporations Act amended.

Act 13 & 14 Vic., cap. 64, amends 12 Vic. cap. 81.

All the municipal elections in Upper Canada (except those in police villages) are appointed by law to take place on the first Monday in January in each year, for the election in—

- Townships, of five councillors for each;
- Incorporated Villages, of five councillors for each;
- Towns, three councillors for each ward.
- Cities, two aldermen and two councillors for each ward.

In Police Villages, the elections are appointed to take place on the second Monday in January for the election of three police trustees.

The amended Act empowers the municipal council of any county, at any time before the 31st of December, 1850, to dissolve all or any of the unions of townships, formed or to be formed under the former act, and to form such other unions of the townships within the county as they may think most convenient for the accommodation of the people. In forming such unions, they may attach together any two or more townships lying within the same county, but not when they shall be within different counties of any union of counties. The townships to be thus united, shall have together not less than 100 freeholders and householders on the collector's roll. The New Act amends the 16th clause of the former Act, to the following:—"That whenever any township so attached or united to another shall have within it one hundred resident freeholders and householders on the collector's roll, such township shall, for the year next but one following the making up such roll, and thenceforth, be incorporated by itself, and such township and that to which it shall have been so united, shall thenceforth, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, be held and considered as separate townships."

The provisions contained in the 208th section of the former Act, as amended by this Act, shall be and continue in force till the 31st December, as follows:—

(Sec. 208.) With the growing extent of his business, he is better enabled to meet the public wants; and to make corresponding reductions in prices.

His Stock of BOOKS and STATIONERY is at all times varied and extensive, being regularly replenished with fresh supplies, obtained in the best markets, and on the most favourable terms. ☐ Books, &c., obtained from England, New York, &c., to the special order of parties, when desired.

Orders in every department of the business, will be at all times promptly attended to; and it will, moreover, be the constant aim of the Subscriber, to merit a continuance of the very extensive and daily increasing support with which he has been honoured, by the due observance of promptitude and economy in all his transactions.

OCULIST AND AURIST,

Member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada and the United States,

OPERATOR ON THE EYE & EAR,

For Deafness, Blindness, and all Defects of Sight and Hearing.

The EYE and EAR are useful and complicated organs, and the numerous diseases to which they are subject, and the proper knowledge necessary to overcome them, is not to be obtained without great labour and experience.

Dr. C. has for many years past devoted his whole attention to this class of diseases, has been extensively and successfully employed in nearly every City in the Province, restoring the Sight and Hearing of a great number of individuals.

It is well to know that

ALL DISEASES OF THE EYE AND EAR ARE CURABLE,

At some period of time, and are only rendered otherwise by neglect and improper treatment. Hundreds of cases may be found in the Province, of Persons who are partially or wholly BLIND or DEAF, and who will probably always remain in that state for the want of proper advice; it is equally certain that with proper treatment seven-tenths of those cases could be restored to comfortable Sight and Hearing; and as a thorough knowledge of these delicate and important organs is not at the disposal of every one, I have determined to to all who may wish to know my opinion as to whether their disease is one which may or may not be cured. No excuse need, therefore, be made in future for allowing curable cases to remain unrelieved by treatment.

The Charges will always be moderate when treatment is recommended; and where patients remain under direct treatment, subject to my directions, without being relieved,

No charge will be made for either Medicine or Attendance.

All communications, if post-paid, will be promptly answered, and a card of reference will be forwarded, if requested.

TO ADVERTISERS.

SCOBIE'S CANADIAN ALMANAC

PRESENTS unrivalled advantages to Advertisers. There were 30,000 COPIES printed of the ALMANAC FOR 1850, and in the course of a few months the whole were sold—the demand still continuing throughout the year, without the means of supplying it. This has induced the publisher to enlarge the edition, and he has accordingly printed 35,000 COPIES of the ALMANAC FOR 1851. From the amount of orders already received, it is obvious that the edition for 1851 will meet with as general and rapid a sale as did that for 1850. No other periodical in British North America enjoys so large a circulation as the Canadian Almanac, and it is therefore the best medium for advertising in the Province. An edition of 35,000 copies, spread over the whole country, in the houses and places of business of the inhabitants, and retained for daily reference during the year, must come frequently under the notice of at least 150,000 persons. The rates of Advertising in the Almanac, taking into account the large circulation, are less in proportion than the ordinary rates for advertising in Newspapers. They are the following:—

|                       |         |                              |         |

It is probable that the edition of the Almanac for 1852, will exceed by several thousand copies that for 1851. Parties wishing to advertise in it, are requested to send in their Advertisements to the Publisher on or before the 1st of October next. All letters must be post-paid.

SCOBIE'S MUNICIPAL MANUAL, FOR UPPER CANADA,

CONTAINING the Municipal Corporations Act, General Road Act, and the various other Acts of the Legislature, which confer powers or impose duties on the Municipalities, was published in May last, for the convenience and guidance of Councils and the public at large; but, since then, changes have been effected by the Legislature, which render a second publication necessary. The subscriber has therefore arranged to publish, without delay, a

SUPPLEMENT TO THE MUNICIPAL MANUAL,

Containing the amendments to the Municipal Corporations Act, the new Assessment Act, &c. The Supplement will be uniform in size with the Manual, so that both may be bound together. The Municipal Manual and Supplement, ought to be in the possession of every one who wishes to be conversant with the Municipal laws of the Province, and the mode of carrying them beneficially and legally into execution.

Saturn's Ring.—To render Saturn's Ring visible to the earth, it is necessary that the Sun and the Earth, as viewed from the Planet, be elevated on the same side of it, which is the case during the whole of 1852. It will attain its greatest apparent diameter in November=45.8"

Explanation of the Articles in the Calendar.

THE SUN'S DECLINATION is given for mean noon at Toronto, for every day: the difference for mean noon for any other place in the British Provinces, will rarely amount to one minute.

APPARENT NOON, SHOWING THE EQUATION OF TIME.—This column contains the mean time corresponding to the apparent noon on each day, or the hour which should be shown by a clock or watch at Toronto, when a Sun-dial marks twelve o'clock. Its error at any other place in the British Provinces will rarely amount to one second. The Equation of Time is the difference in time between the real place of the Sun, and its supposed or mean place. The actual interval between the successive arrivals of the Sun on the meridian, or the length of successive solar days, is variable, owing to the difference in the rapidity of the motion of the earth in different parts of its orbit, and in the inclination of the successive parts of the elliptic to the equator. But as time-keepers cannot be made to measure an interval which varies every day, a clock or watch is made to mark twenty-four hours in the average of all the days. In other words, it is made to keep pace with an imaginary or mean Sun, having a motion exactly equal to the average motion of the real or apparent Sun. Hence, when it is twelve o'clock by the real Sun, it may be before or after twelve by the mean Sun. The true Sun and the mean or imaginary Sun coincide four times in each year, viz., about the 15th of March, the 15th of June, the 1st September, and the 25th December. The difference between them or the Equation of Time, is never more than sixteen minutes. A Sun-dial gives apparent time, and must be corrected by applying the Equation of Time before setting a clock or watch by it.

SUN RISING AND SETTING.—The mean time of the Sun rising and setting is given for every day for Toronto and Montreal, and will be found given for every tenth day at Quebec, Halifax, and Fredericton, by referring to the Table at page 17. If the time is wanted for any intermediate day, enter the table of Semi-diurnal Arcs (page 17) with the Sun's declination for that day, the value given, subtracted from, or added to, the mean time of apparent noon, will give the hour of rising or setting. The value as it stands in that Table is the apparent time of setting and its complement to 12h, the apparent time of rising.

THE MOON'S RISING OR SETTING is given for every day at Montreal and Toronto: the time of rising being when she sets during daylight; and the time of setting when she rises during daylight. The time given for Montreal will never be more than four minutes in error for Halifax, three minutes in error for Fredericton, and five minutes in error for Quebec; and it is, therefore, near enough for ordinary reference at those places.

THE PLANETS.—The hour of meridian passage, right ascension and declination of each of the principal planets, is given for the 1st and 15th of each month. (m signifies morning.) To which is added the mean time transit  $\odot$  or the mean time of transit of the first point of Aries, being the mean time corresponding to 0h. 0m. 0s. of Sidereal time, on each of those days. By the aid of this Table the time of the meridian passage of any heavenly body may be readily found. From the right ascension of the body subtract the retardation, which is at the rate of 9.88s., for each hour, or 0.16s. for each minute of its RA; add the remainder to the mean time transit  $\odot$ ; the sum, diminished if necessary by 24h., will be the mean time of the meridian passage of the body in question. For any other day than the 1st or 15th of the month apply a correction at the rate of 3m. 55.91 s. per day, reckoned from the nearest given day, to be added if for an earlier date, subtracted if for a later.

THE POLE STAR.—For the convenience of land surveyors and others, we this year give a Table in which will be found not only the mean time of the meridian passage of this star for every tenth day of the year, but also the mean time of its greatest elongation from the meridian, upon the parallel of 44° deg., and its azimuth at that time upon three parallels, namely, 43 deg., 44 deg., and 46 deg. The middle of these is the parallel which passes through the greatest number of Townships; and the first and third are nearly the limiting parallels of Upper Canada. The object of the Table is to furnish a ready and accurate way of referring a Theodolite or other instrument to the true meridian. Where the time is known with accuracy, this is best done by means of the Pole Star when on the meridian; but as at that time it changes its azimuth at the rate of half a minute of arc to one minute of time, in these latitudes; when the latter is not known with accuracy, then the Star must be referred to when at its greatest elongation, at which time its azimuth changes so slowly that an error of a few minutes will not be important, and the angle given in the Table must be added to, or subtracted from, the reading, as the case may be. For any other day, or any other latitude than those given, a value can be interpolated. By means of the North Polar distance of the Star, which is added, the same opportunity may be employed for determining the latitude very nearly.

TWILIGHT begins in the morning, when the Sun is about 18 degrees below the horizon, and ends in the evening, when it is eighteen degrees beyond it. The mean time for beginning and ending for every tenth day will be found at page 17, together with the time of the Sun's rising and setting at Quebec, Fredericton and Halifax.

SEMI-DIURNAL ARCS.—This table is useful for determining the times of rising and setting of the heavenly bodies. Enter the table with the declination of the object; under the proper column for the locality will be found half the time which the object remains above the horizon, which is to be subtracted from the time of its meridian passage, if the time of rising is required, or added, for the time of setting.

Example.—Required the time of rising for the Planet Jupiter, at Montreal, June 16th, 1853, Declination of Jupiter 15° deg. S.

Corresponding to which we find the semi-diurnal arc - - - - - 4 57
Jupiter on meridian - - - - - 9 6 P. M.

Jupiter rises - - - - - 4 6 P. M.

METEOROLOGICAL.—Having in previous almanacs given comparisons of Canadian climates with that of the Southern portion of Great Britain, represented by Greenwich, we this year select for the purpose Makerstown, in Roxburghshire, North Britain, in latitude 55° 35', the Observatory of Sir Thomas Macdonald Brisbane. The particulars are derived from eight years observations 1842-9, except the quantity of rain, which has been recorded for 18 years.

The observations at Fredericton, New Brunswick, were made by Lieut. Col. Page, R. E., to whom we are indebted for them. They embrace about two-and-a-half years, from September 1817 to February 1820, but include a period of six months in the summer of 1818, when the observations were made at St. Johns, N. B. The thermometer was recorded daily, at 5, 6, or 7, A. M., according to the season of the year; at noon, 5 P. M., and 10 P. M.; the mean temperatures here given are reduced to the true mean of the 24th, the largest correction being however only 0° 7'. The data for Quebec are also of old date, being derived from the observations of the Rev. Dr. Sparkes, from 1809 to 1818, as reduced by Mr. Justice McCord. (Hall's British American Journal, vol. 1.) Those values which are marked by an asterisk * are from another source and refer to the years 1822 to 1825.

The observations at Hamilton, C. W., are those of Dr. Craigie, (ib vols. 3, 4, and 5) and include five years, from 1846 to 1850. Although the mean temperatures are derived from observations at 9 A. M. and 9 P. M., which give a value somewhat below the true mean; they are invariably considerably higher than those of the same months at Toronto. The difference being much more than can be due to the difference in the geographic position of the two localities, may be attributed, probably, to some special circumstance in the position of the instruments.

Her Majesty's Magnetical Observatory, Toronto.—Director.—Captain J. H. Lefroy, R. A., F. R. S. ESTABLISHMENT.—Four Non-Commissioned Officers of the Royal Artillery, as Assistants.
